Enters Fight on Chicago Crime

Federal Backing and Millions of Dollars Turn Drive to Major Offensive

Dozen Police Captains Said to Be Facing Indictments for Gangland Ties

CHICAGO, Nov. 20. (Exclusive)—Backed by the forces of the Federal government and millions of dollars subscribed by leading business and professional men, Chicago's war against organized crime has apparently assumed the proportions of a major offensive.

Behind an announcement in Washington today by Atty.-Gen. Mitchell that virtually all agencies of the government are "fortifying their forces" in Chicago in an effort to crush gangdom, those familiar with the crime situation see a determination on the part of both the national administration and local civic leaders to purge the city of its criminal elements and re-establish Chicago's reputation in the eyes of the world in preparation for the Century of Progress World's Fair in 1933. A third objective of the drive is to make Chicago a safer place in which to live and do business.

Organization of a body whose aim and function shall be a unified method of coping with crime throughout the Chicago area was perfected at a police conference today at the University of Chicago. The alliance was officially given the name of the Chicago Regional Group Association of Law Enforcement Officers of America.

FIRST GUNS FIRED

Their first action was to elect Acting Police Commissioner John H. Alcock of Chicago as president and to pass resolutions indorsing the new code of criminal procedure prepared by the American Institute of Law and recommending the establishment of a State Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation under the Department of Public Welfare.

More than 100 of these representatives of crime-fighting organizations met at the call of Prof. August Vollmer, head of the Department of Police Administration, at the university, once Chief of Police in Los Angeles. They represented everything from the Federal Prohibition Bureau to the village Chief of Police in the far-flung metropolitan area, which comprises eighteen independent governments. In the all-day forum that resulted many suggestions for meeting the crime problem were put forth.

Co-operation not only in pressure for new legislation but in the actual work of catching criminals, through a new system of records and information, the extension of police radio and other means will be effected.

"We are weaklings if we don't beat the crooks," said Dr. Vollmer. "It is a question of government by gangsters, and for gangsters, or a government by the people for the

STABILITY CAMPAIGN ANNOUNCED

California Chamber Lays Plans for Business Boom and to Hasten Its Coming

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20. (AP)—The California State Chamber of Commerce today announced a campaign for stabilization of business.

The chamber suggests four general plans to "prepare for the large business that is to come" as well as to hurry its coming. These are:

Organization of shops, warehouses and stores.

Maintenance of fullest employment possible by holding lay-offs to the minimum, reduction of weekly hours of labor and rotation of laborers.

Aggressive merchandising.

Placing of 1931 orders now and budgeting them on a monthly basis, maintaining normal buying.

R. M. Alvord, vice-chairman of the industrial committee, said many industrial organizations in sound financial condition are conserving their financial resources and holding cash reserves which "for their own interest and the interest of development of sound business should be put at work."

Mooney Discord Extent Learned

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20. (Exclusive)—The rupture between Thomas J. Mooney, Preparedness Day parade bomber, and the secretary of his defense league, Mary Gallagher, as disclosed exclusively in the Los Angeles Times, had reached the point where court action had been discussed to remove the secretary from her position, it was revealed today.

The action, it was said, was ordered dropped because of the fear of unfavorable results if the difficulties in the official Mooney bailiwick received a public airing.

China Generals to Aid Nanking

PEIPING (China) Nov. 20. (AP)—Prospects of durable peace throughout China were enhanced today when twenty-six Shansi and Kuominchun generals telegraphed from Tiayuanfu to Nanking pledging themselves to support the Nationalist government. They asked for instructions.

The Nanking government only recently succeeded in putting down a revolt led by the Yen Hsi-shan, for many years Governor of Shansi Province, and Feng-Yu-hsiang, head of the Kuominchun, or people's army.

DOG'S TUMMY YIELDS GEM

X-Ray and Surgeon's Knife Recover $1500 Diamond and Solve Modesto "Robbery" Mystery

MODESTO, Nov. 20. (AP)—In the stomach of Toby, German police dog, was found today the solution to Modesto's greatest diamond "robbery." X-ray pictures revealed in the dog's stomach the largest of three diamond rings, worth $1500, thought stolen from the home of Walter H. Field, Modesto financier.

After the X-ray the dog was operated on and the ring recovered. The dog will recover, too.

On behalf of Toby it was explained he is no thief. It was all an accident. Toby's forte is bones. He never knowingly deviates from them. Mrs. Field, after a social affair at her home, missed the diamonds. Came the police. No clews. Two days later a maid found two of the diamonds in Toby's feed pan. Mrs. Field remembered she had put fudge on the back porch and placed her diamonds on a chair. She recalled Toby's tail had brushed against the chair.

The next day the dog got sick. Suspicion. Then the X-ray. There, Watson, you have it.

RADIOPHONE TALK TO BE SCRAMBLED

Words Distorted and Then Translated for Receiver to Halt Eavesdropping

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—A speech "scrambler" to prevent eavesdroppers from listening in on trans-Atlantic conversations is the newest wrinkle in radiotelephony.

The device was demonstrated by Sergius P. Grace, assistant vice-president of the Bell Telephone Laboratories, last night at a science forum devoted to electrical wonders. It consists of an electric "transmitting brain" which distorts the natural speech frequencies of tones so as to make the result unintelligible to anyone listening in on the ordinary radio and a "translating brain" which picks up the frequencies and rearranges the inverted sounds for the benefit of the receiving party.

Stanford Attack by Air Disrupts Berkeley Rally

BERKELEY, Nov. 20. (AP)—A Cardinal attack disrupted a California rally for the "big game" in Harmon gymnasium tonight.

Fifty red flares, symbolic of Stanford, suddenly lighted the gymnasium where thousands of Californians were cheering their team. Simultaneously an airplane dropped bombs—quite harmless ones but very noisy.

As the California students rushed from the gymnasium, four powerful lights in the plane were turned on one wing, revealing a Stanford ax painted on a black background—the Cardinals' annual taunt.

Two of the band of Palo Alto invaders who hurled the flares were captured and sent home with their faces painted blue.

New Airline Has Long Water Hop

MIAMI (Fla.) Nov. 20. (AP)—Plans to link North and South America by a new aerial route, including the longest regularly scheduled water flight in the world, were tentatively announced today by Pan-American Airways, Inc.

The new route would be from Miami and Havana to Cristobal, C. Z., by way of Kingston, Jamaica. The flight from Kingston to Cristobal, 630 miles, would be entirely over water.

LAVA STILL SPURTING IN VOLCANO

Kilauea Eruption to Last Another Full Day, Say Scientists in Hawaii

HILO (Hawaii) Nov. 20. (AP)—The Kilauea volcano continued to fling lava and flame today twenty-four hours after it began erupting, but the pyrotechnic display is diminishing.

A single fountain shooting 200 feet above the floor of the huge Halemaumau pit cast a glare 1200 feet upward to the rim surrounding the caldron of boiling rock. Scientists at the observatory predicted the eruption will last another full day.

Several other fiery fountains which burst through the lava floor when an earthquake shocked the volcano into action yesterday have ceased playing.

Mexico Holds Celebration for 1910 Revolution

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 20. (AP)—Mexico today celebrated the twentieth anniversary of "La Revolucion," the movement which in 1910 overthrew the administration of Porfirio Diaz and established Francisco Madero.

An official holiday was in force by public decree. Flags were hung out on buildings and for the first time Catholic churches bore the flag of Mexico in accordance with a recent decree of President Ortiz Rubio.

Newspapers devoted special sections to the history of the revolution.

RED TROOPS IN REVOLT

Soldiers Slay Superiors

Many Killed in Battle With Secret Police Who Put Down Mutiny

Scene of Uprising Ten Miles From Moscow Declares Berlin Press

LONDON, Nov. 20. (AP)—Berlin dispatches to the Daily Express carry reports that two battalions of the Red army mutinied while engaged in winter maneuvers at Ismailowo, a village ten miles from Moscow.

The reports add the men killed some of their officers, but ultimately were subdued by the Ogpu (secret police) after a fierce battle in which many soldiers were killed or wounded.

It was added 700 arrests have since been made in the Red capital. The dispatches also say the mutinous battalions consisted of young peasant recruits who complained of the lack of food.

It was added the mutiny, which occurred yesterday, is believed to have been intended as the signal for a general revolt. The dispatches said an investigation today was reported to have revealed civilian agitators had prompted the movement.

Most of the men arrested are described as belonging to the right-wing opposition of the Communist party, including many of its foremost leaders.

The Express described this report as the culmination of a series of rumors current overnight in many continental cities and said many were of an extravagant nature, including one that Joseph Stalin, dominent figure in Russia, had been assassinated.

MOSCOW PRESS DENIES STORY OF REVOLT

MOSCOW, Nov. 20. (AP)—The official Tass news agency tonight denied reports published in Berlin that Red soldiers had revolted and that great numbers of persons have been arrested. The news agency characterized the reports as "absolutely malicious inventions."

Boat From Here Seized at Sea

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 20. (AP)—Charged with navigating without papers of any kind, the speedboat A-2297 of Los Angeles was seized five miles south of Point Loma this evening and brought into port here by the Coast Guard patrol boat CG-255.

The A-2297, with two men aboard, disregarded the patrol vessel's order to "heave to, at once," until a blank shot was fired from the cutter's one-pounder, it was reported here.

Parachute Leap Saves Air Pilot

MATHER FIELD (Sacramento) Nov. 20. (AP)—Lieut. Robert M. Kraft, Army Air Corps pilot from Kelley Field, Texas, joined the Caterpillar Club late today with a successful parachute leap from his disabled plane flying at 4000 feet altitude. Kraft landed uninjured three miles south of the field. His plane crashed and was wrecked.

Belasco Weak as Crisis Passes

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—David Belasco's condition tonight was described as "weakened" and "still serious," after reports during the day had indicated the aged theatrical producer, stricken with pneumonia, had successfully passed the crisis of his illness. His temperature was 101.

GRAF ZEPPELIN WILL BE GIVEN OVERHAUL

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN (Germany) Nov. 20. (AP)—Dr. Hugo Eckener announced yesterday the Graf Zeppelin had finished its 1930 flying season. It will be deflated and given a thorough overhauling during the winter. The Graf has made 155 flights, covered 144,375 miles; has carried 6278 passengers, 12,000 pounds of freight and 18,000 pounds of mail.

Will Rogers Remarks:

BEVERLY HILLS, Nov. 20.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Before the child welfare gang yesterday Mr. Hoover delivered just about his best speech. I got my doubts as to what he thinks of politicians, but he must love children or he couldn't have thought of some of those fine paragraphs. He has never posed as an orator, but he said a lot of things that an orator would have liked to have said.

Chicago University come out yesterday with a terrible radical idea. They proposed to graduate a student as soon as he knows enough. That shows you that higher education is making progress. It's taken 2000 years to think of such a thing. Heretofore they have made the smart ones stay there four years just to keep the dumb ones company.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

BERLIN MAY CALL HALT

Moratorium Plea in Prospect

Curtius Sets Forth Possibility of Having to Invoke Right Under Young Plan

Germany Also Will Demand Early Arms Conference, He Announces

BERLIN, Nov. 20. (AP) — Foreign Minister Curtius told the nation and the world tonight Germany may be compelled to invoke the safeguard measures of the Young plan. These measures refer to a moratorium and the convocation of a special advisory committee to bring about alleviation permissible under the plan. The Foreign Minister's speech constitutes Germany's first official intimation she is likely to invoke her right under the plan to declare a moratorium.

Herr Curtius expressed sharp criticism of Europe's sluggish attitude toward disarmament, and, in connection with a recent speech on that issue by Premier Tardieu of France, he declared Germany will demand an early disarmament conference, "where each nation must show its colors and its real intentions."

AIMS MADE PLAIN

He prefaced his speech with the assertion that he was not offering the subject of the country's financial position for discussion, but was making a plain statement of facts. He assured the world that Germany has no intention of scrapping the Young plan and that Germany will not invoke alleviatory measures of the Young plan until its burdens become dangerously oppressive to the people.

"We must face the fact," he said, "that nobody can know today whether the measures by which we are to put our financial affairs in order will suffice, and when we must take the international steps provided for

SLEET KING ON MARCH

Rockies Storms Hit Midwest

Snow, Ice, Rain and Cold Tie Up Communications and Hamper Traffic

Death Toll From Blizzard in Mountain Region Grows; Many Cattle Freeze

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 20. (AP)—A winter storm riding east from the Rocky Mountains tied knots in wire communication and hampered rail and highway traffic through the West today in the wake of tornadoes that took twenty-one lives and injured about 100 persons in Oklahoma, Kansas and Arkansas yesterday.

Snow, sleet, rain and sharp drops in temperature were the accompaniments of the storm's sally into the Midwest.

Wire service to the Pacific Coast was badly hit as lines snapped through the prairie country from accumulations of ice, sudden temperature changes and high winds.

TRAINS LATE

Passenger trains from the West are running several hours behind schedules and highways are blocked in many sections.

Another fatality was added to the list of several lives claimed since the blizzard broke over the Rocky Mountain section. Guy D. Miner, druggist of Des Moines, N. M., was found frozen to death near Mt. Dora, N. M. He succumbed to exposure while going for aid after his automobile became stuck in snowdrifts. An aged man named Whitehead from Amarillo, Tex., who was left in Miner's car, was found unconscious and may die.

Hundreds of motorists were marooned in towns and farm houses along snow-blocked highways.

CHILDREN MAROONED

Twenty school children were forced to spend last night in a country school near Pueblo, Colo., when huge drifts isolated the building.

Snow ranging from two inches to drifts twenty feet deep were left through the mountain states as the weather cleared.

A blizzard in Northeast Colorado, near Hugo, buried the Union Pacific Railroad tracks under twenty feet of snow. Probably 1000 head of cattle are reported frozen to death in this area.

Through Northwestern Kansas and the central and western portions of Nebraska and the Dakotas sleet and snow tore down wires and disrupted travel.

TOWNS ISOLATED

Rural and mining communities in Southern Colorado were isolated by a twenty-six-inch fall which was converted into mountainous drifts by a high wind, which also resulted in considerable property damage in Trinidad, Pueblo and other towns in that region.

Scores of automobiles were buried under tons of splintered timber and snow when the roof of a garage collapsed in Trinidad.

Telephone lines were broken down by the heavy snow and ice in Pueblo and in other parts of the State. Transcontinental telegraph wires also were made useless as they broke under their burden of snow and ice. Many telephone poles toppled over.

Tons of brick fell through three floors of the Carlisle School in Pueblo, after a wing of the building collapsed and a wall of a rural school building in the Pueblo vicinity was carried away by wind. Wind also unroofed the steel grand stand at the State Fairgrounds in Pueblo.

MOTORISTS MAROONED

Near Colorado Springs, eighty-five marooned motorists spent a night of hunger and discomfort in a small

EX-CABINET AIDE ARRESTED

Robinson, Former Assistant Navy Secretary, and Wife Accused by Mexican Officials at Border

NOGALES (Ariz.) Nov. 20. (AP)—Theodore Douglas Robinson, former assistant Secretary of the Navy and nephew of the late President Roosevelt, and his wife on reaching here today said they were arrested this morning in Nogales, Son., Mex., and $320 in Mexican gold coin was confiscated by Mexican customs authorities, upon their arrival there from Mexico City.

Mexican officials tonight denied either Robinson or his wife had been placed under arrest, but both Mr. and Mrs. Robinson were emphatic this afternoon in declaring to American officials that they had been placed under arrest aboard their train en route to the border.

ON WAY EAST

Robinson immediately placed his case in the hands of Maurice Altaffer, United States consul in Nogales, Son. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson left here late this afternoon for Tucson and thence for the East.

According to semiofficial versions of the episode, Robinson had planned to have the Mexican coins changed into United States money when his train reached Guadalajara, Jalisco, but on arriving in that city found that the banks were closed. He then planned to change the money in Nogales. When the train reached Nogales it was boarded by Mexican customs officers and Robinson produced the gold coin along with his other personal belongings for inspection.

EXPORT ATTEMPT CHARGED

It is reported that he was accused of attempting to export gold from Mexico, which is forbidden by Presidential decree, and when he was ordered to turn the gold coin over to the officers he refused, denying any intention to export the money. He was ordered arrested and upon arrival of the train at the station in Nogales, it is said the officers were advised by Javier Larrea, Mexican Treasury Department official here, conferring with United States customs officials, to confiscate the gold.

Robinson was allowed his freedom immediately and he filed his protest to the Mexican government through the American consul. Efforts are being made to have the money returned to Robinson.

FORMAL PROTEST TO BE MADE, HE SAYS

TUCSON (Ariz.) Nov. 20. (AP)—Describing his and Mrs. Robinson's arrest by Mexican customs officials in Nogales, Sonora, Mex., today as "an outrage," Theodore D. Robinson, declared here tonight he will make a formal protest to the State Department at Washington.

"I am going to Washington," Robinson said, "and report the whole affair and leave it in the hands of the State Department.

"And, I assure you," he added, "they will not keep that $320."

SENATORS UNITE ON DEBT PAYING

Congress Leaders Agreed on Tax Plans

Continuing of Lower Rates Held to Be Unwise

Mellon's Recommendations Being Awaited

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—Congressional leaders of all factions today turned against suggestions to continue the lower income-tax rates by doing away with the public-debt retirement program, and the likelihood of keeping the reduced tax schedule for another year diminished further.

At the Treasury, also, it was said no recommendation will be made to Congress for the abandonment next year of the sinking fund which has been set aside for orderly retirement of the war debt. However, Secretary Mellon still has to say the final word on whether a continuation of the lower income-tax rates will be recommended for another year.

Administration leaders in the Senate, including Senators Watson of Indiana, Smoot of Utah and Fess of Ohio, not only expressed opposition today to any abandonment of the debt retirement through the sinking fund, but they added their opposition to any continuation of the lower income-tax rates in view of a prospective deficit.

Senator Glass, Democrat, Virginia, asserted "the honest thing to do would be to raise taxes next year, and certainly I would oppose any move to abandon the sinking fund." Representative Hull, Democrat, Tennessee, a member of the Ways and Means Committee, took a similar position.

BETHANY (Okla.) Nov. 20. (AP) Helped generously by a sympathetic public, this little Nazarene colony was recovering rapidly tonight from the effects of yesterday's tornado.

The death list continued to mount, however. The deaths of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Heil, an elderly couple, brought the fatalities to twenty.

Two brothers named Griffin were reported to Red Cross headquarters as missing. Several injured victims still were in a critical condition.

A call by the American Red Cross and Gov. W. J. Holloway for $30,000 broadcast by newspapers and radio had met with pledges and cash totaling more than $25,000 early tonight.

A spokesman for the State Contractors' Association said rebuilding work would be undertaken without thought of profit as soon as the bare cost of materials was provided.

Insurance companies said claims would be paid off within forty-eight hours. Building and loan company officers said lenience would be shown in the collection of outstanding loans and in the granting of new ones.

National Guardsmen who have patrolled the district were to be withdrawn tonight.

NYE INQUIRY CONCLUDED IN CHICAGO

Former Nebraska Banker Says Farm Board Member Contributed Through Him

CHICAGO, Nov. 20. (AP)—The trail of investigation that has carried the Senate campaign funds committee into six States ended here today where the loose ends of the inquiry into the Nebraska primary were collected.

The committee headed by Senator Nye of North Dakota heard the testimony of Charles T. Knapp, a former Nebraska banker, that a $2500 contribution to the Senatorial primary campaign fund of William B. Stebbins was made in Knapp's name to save Samuel McKelvie, grain member of the Federal Farm Board, "from the possibility of some embarrassment."

Knapp told the committee McKelvie had been considering making a larger contribution to the Stebbins fund in his own name.

The Chicagoan added he and another friend of McKelvie's — M. V. Beghtol of Lincoln — had decided, however, that due to McKelvie's government position his name should not appear as a contributor to the campaign fund of Senator Norris's opponent. They further agreed, Knapp said, that $2500 was a large enough contribution.

filling station. Motorists crowded into the station in such numbers many women fainted.

At Rocky Ford, Colo., electric power from Pueblo was cut off and unless power can be restored by Friday the water supply will be exhausted.

Cheyenne, Wyo., was isolated by the storm. Every main road leading into the city was closed and the only bus which sought to break through the drifts was stalled eight miles south of town.

A forty-mile-an-hour wind in Raton, N. M., whipped an eighteen-inch snowfall into seven-foot drifts in the downtown section and broke many windows in business establishments.

Restoration of train service to normal schedules in many parts of Colorado and New Mexico is not expected before Friday.

KANSAN DIES WHILE FAMILY HUDDLES IN AUTO

ELKO (Nev.) Nov. 20. (AP)—R. B. Byers, Plainsville, Kan., today was found frozen to death by a sheepherder near here within six miles of his small stalled automobile containing his wife and seven children.

Byers and his family were en route to Wells, Nev., from Idaho where he had been working temporarily. On the highway between Rogerson, Idaho, and Wells the car stalled and Byers started for help.

He plowed through snow twenty inches deep for six miles and dropped exhausted. The family was found huddled in the car.

Merchant Reported Starving to Death Because He's Unable to Swallow

NORTHPORT (Wash.) Nov. 20. (AP)—Henry Broderiows, merchant, was reported today starving to death because of a nervous disease.

Silver wires used to connect affected nerves in the face and throat either broke or else the nerve ends deteriorated, his friends said, and he became unable to swallow, and too weak to travel to another city to see the specialist who operated before. No artificial means of feeding have been devised for him.

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARY TO GET JUDGESHIP

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 20. (Exclusive)—Harold Landreth of Pasadena, private secretary to Gov. Young, will be given a commission as Municipal Court judge in Los Angeles before the present executive retires on January 5 in favor of Governor-elect Rolph, it became known at the Capitol today.

There is one vacancy in the courts now due to the death a few days ago of Judge Elias V. Rosenkranz, and others are expected to occur through the election of municipal judges to the Superior bench.

Landreth was trust officer of a Pasadena bank when he was named private secretary to Gov. Young to succeed Keith Carlin, who resigned to enter the law practice in Los Angeles.

Vincent D. Kennedy, the Governor's executive secretary, will land a job as examiner with the State Railroad Commission when that body is completely reorganized as soon as Young gains control of the commission with the expiration of the terms of Commissioners Ezra Decoto and Thomas Louttit on December 31.

Clyde L. Seavey, president, and William J. Carr of Pasadena are the Young appointees on the commission and with the appointment of the new members the Governor will have four of the five.

It is considered likely that Carr, whose term expires January 1, 1933, will resign to accept one of the two full six-year term appointments. M. B. Harris of Fresno, former State Senator, is considered a certainty for the other full term. If the plan to give Carr a full term is carried through, a successor will be named to fill his unexpired term.

LONG-DISTANCE PLANE OF NEW DESIGN TESTED

TOULOUSE (France) Nov. 20. (AP) A long-distance airplane of novel design, named the Hyphen and built for the noted aviator, Joseph Le Brix, made its first flight today with great success. The machine is a monoplane with a wingspread of ninety-five feet and carries a 650-horsepower engine. Its cruising range is 6000 miles.

COAST GUARD CUTTER TO REACH HERE TODAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20. (AP)—The Coast Guard cutter Saranac, recently completed, left Government Island, San Francisco Bay at 9 a.m., today for Galveston, Tex., where it will be stationed. The cutter will arrive at Los Angeles Harbor tomorrow and after a short stop leave the same day for San Diego.

SHORTAGE OF BALLOTS OPENS QUIZ

Oakland City Clerk Draws Suspension as Grand Jury Calls Election Officials

OAKLAND, Nov. 20. (AP)—City Clerk Merritt was suspended by the Oakland City Council today pending an investigation of a shortage of paper ballots at the recent general election.

Merritt admitted a shortage of 232 ballots in seventeen precincts, necessitating a wait on the part of some voters. In some cases the shortages were met, but in many the voters were unable to vote.

The State law provides that more ballots be printed than there are registered voters, but charges have been made that Oakland, with a registration of over 140,000, had only 110,000 ballots available.

Simultaneously with the City Council's action, the grand jury began an investigation of the shortage. Eight women election officials were subpoenaed.

Rum Gun Fight Fatal to Pair

EL PASO, Nov. 20. (AP)—Frank Barncastle of Las Cruces, N. M., and Jesus Paz, El Paso, were shot and killed in a gun fight over liquor last night with United States customs officers at the outskirts of the city.

Nine men engaged in the fight, one believed wounded, escaped.

SLAYER IN TRIANGLE LOVE CASE INDICTED

HACKENSACK (N. J.) Nov. 20. (AP)—Harry Elbers, confessed killer of Richard Graham, was indicted today for the slaying which, the State charges, followed several months after Graham had admitted carrying on an affair with Elbers's wife. Mrs. Elbers was formally charged with murder today after she told detectives she had summoned Graham by telephone early Tuesday morning to the Elbers Teaneck cottage, where he was found fatally shot a few hours later.

JEALOUS OF PATIENTS, SAYS DOCTOR OF WIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20. (AP)—Dr. Gregory J. Isakson, physician, was granted a divorce today because Mrs. Mary Isakson was "jealous of his women patients." Dr. Isakson testified his wife not only "peeked through portieres" while he was treating his women patients, but accompanied him on visits to women patients and honked the automobile horn when she thought he had been in the house long enough.

PUNCTURED GAS LINE HALTS NONSTOP TRY

COLON (C. Z.) Nov. 20. (AP)—Capt. Roy W. Ammel suffered misfortune today in attempting to take off on a nonstop flight to Chicago. As he was preparing to go he found a gasoline line had been punctured and considerable work was necessary to repair the damage.

JUNIOR COLLEGES ELECT

MEXICAN BLAZE FATAL

STRANGE LANDS TO BE EXPLORED

Great Expedition Into Asia to Start in March

Geographic Society Will Take Part in Researches

Group to Travel 13,000 Miles in Little Known Areas

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (Exclusive)—Plans for one of the most comprehensive and most completely equipped expeditions of modern times were disclosed today when Dr. Gilbert Grosvenor, president of the National Geographic Society, announced that the society will cooperate with Georges-Marie Haardt of Paris, in sending out eight caterpillar cars with scientists in a dozen fields to span 5000 miles of least-known Asia, from Beyruth (Beirut) Syria, to Peiping, China, and then return, across 8000 miles more along a southern route.

M. Haardt came from Paris to Washington to complete arrangements with the society to send a representative with the expedition, whose other personnel will be entirely French, and which will have the approval of the French government and specific missions from France's Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

TAKES FIELD IN MARCH

The patron of the expedition in France is Andre Citroen, lifelong friend of M. Haardt, and benefactor of many scientific projects, who also gave his support to M. Haardt's famous expedition which traversed Africa and first crossed the Sahara Desert in motor cars.

The trans-Asiatic expedition, with the National Geographic Society co-operating, will take the field in March, with its eight caterpillar cars, each carrying a trailer, conveying a personnel of thirty-five men, including specialists in geography, archeology, ornithology, botany, geology, anthropology and other branches of science.

It plans to start from France's westernmost Asiatic territory, in Syria, traverse Iraq, Persia, Russian Turkestan, Senkiang and China, turning south at Peiping for the long trail down to French Indo-China. Then reaching Saigon, it will tour through Siam, Burma, India, Beluchistan, Persia and Arabia. In that journey it will traverse areas which have been little explored by Europeans, scaling some of the world's highest mountains, lofty plateaus, cross the vast Gobi and Ala Shan deserts and come upon tribes and racial remnants of ancient Asiatic peoples whose habits and habitats virtually are unknown.

FILM RECORDS PLANNED

Two cars will be devoted to the taking of one of the most comprehensive vocal and picture records ever made. This phase of the expedition, requiring special scientific and technical experimentation, is being conducted by Pathe-Natan, Paris. The scenic wonders of innermost Asia, the customs and the costumes of its peoples will be photographed both by the black and white and the color camera; and native dialects, songs, chants and rituals will be preserved in sound records.

The expedition will carry a radio sending station which at all times will keep it in touch with Paris and this sending station will be utilized by the National Geographic Society's representative in filing dispatches to the society's headquarters in Washington for release to press associations and newspapers.

GUARANTEE NOT EXPECTED

"We have given no guarantee for the feasibility of the Young plan. Dr. Stresemann (late German Foreign Minister) said a year ago that nobody could guarantee that the plan could be fulfilled and that nobody expected a guarantee from us.

"Even our critics must realize that since the 1929 conference of experts the world's entire economic condition has shifted and there has been a veritable landslide in Germany. It must be observed also that there has been but little of that co-operation which was to be an essential aid to solving Germany's problem."

PARIS VIEWS SPEECH AS HITLER TALK ECHO

PARIS, Nov. 20. (AP)—The speech today in Berlin of Dr. Julius Curtius, saying Germany may be compelled to invoke the safeguarding measures of the Young plan, was viewed here tonight as expressing in more veiled terms the same demands as pronounced more frankly by Adolf Hitler, leader of the German Fascists.

It is understood France's answer to the German Foreign Minister will be the same as that to Hitler—that to attempt all over again the laborious work of the Paris peace conference will be more likely to provoke war than to assure peace.

NEW PLAN ADOPTED IN COMMUNIST QUIZ

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—Plans for a part of the House Communist investigating committee to go to Mexico to procure documents dealing with Communists' activities in the United States have been abandoned. A secret agent selected by Chairman Hamilton Fish, Jr., with the co-operation of the State Department is to be dispatched soon to procure the documents seized by Mexican authorities several weeks ago.

CHICAGO CRIME FIGHT BROADENS

people. The only remedy is organization."

INDICTMENTS EXPECTED

Commissioner Alcock said he is hopeful for the future with such an organization to help him.

That Chicago business leaders as members of the Chicago Association of Commerce are presenting a united front with the government and local enforcement agencies against the criminal elements of the city is seen in reports that they have pledged unlimited financial support to the campaign. A secret war chest established by the business men for that purpose is said to contain $5,000,000 in cash and pledges to be expended over a period of five years, if the fight lasts that long.

For months, it is said, the "secret six" crime fighters of the Association of Commerce and their successor, the association's committee on the prevention and punishment of crime, have been gathering evidence to be used in the police department inquiry. The evidence, chiefly of a police alliance with gangsters, it is reported, is sufficient to cause the indictment of at least twelve police captains and innumerable subordinates.

THREE GOVERNMENT AGENCIES IN FIGHT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—A concerted drive by the Federal government to break up the activities of Chicago gangsters was made known today by Atty.-Gen. Mitchell.

Federal agents, dispatched from Washington, have been active in Chicago since early summer, the Attorney-General said, and recently there has been a "fortifying" of these forces in an effort to apply Federal laws against the underworld characters there.

"We intend to keep going indefinitely or at least until our aid is no longer needed," Mitchell said.

Exactly how large a concentration of government agents is intended in that area Mitchell would not say.

He said the Narcotics Bureau and the Bureau of Internal Revenue of the Treasury Department, together with the immigration authorities of the Labor Department, have joined the drive.

RACKET QUESTIONNAIRE WILL BE SENT OUT

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—Merchants in all big cities of the United States are to be asked in a secret questionnaire their experiences with racketeers.

When J. Weston Allen, chairman of the national crime commission, wrote Dist.-Atty. Crain, offering full co-operation in his drive against "public enemies" the plan was revealed.

Replies to the questionnaire are to be kept anonymous. The result will be a codification of rackets and methods to combat them.

REALTY BONDS TO BE PLACED UNDER LENS

CHICAGO, Nov. 20. (AP)—Chief Justice McGoorty of the Criminal Court announced today a central bond bureau, to investigate real estate before it is accepted as bail in criminal cases, will begin operation some time in December.

Mortgaged or otherwise incumbered property offered will be rejected, except in a few special cases, Judge McGoorty said.

The new bureau is the outgrowth of agitation which reputedly disclosed the acceptance by some judges of worthless bonds.

BEAUTY PLEADS CAUSE OF INDIA

Great Britain Lashed Again at Round-Table Session

Voice of Womanhood Raised by Young Begum

MacDonald Continues to Listen in Silence

LONDON, Nov. 20. (AP)—Ranging the gamut of Indian races, creeds and castes, delegates to the round-table conference on Indian affairs today continued to lash the British administration in India with criticism.

It began with an appeal for an Indian federation by the beautiful young Begum Shah Nawaz, a picturesque figure in her pale blue sari edged with delicate embroidery and it continued through addresses by spokesmen for every Indian rank, from proud princes to "untouchables."

All day long Prime Minister MacDonald sat in his big chair, thumping the table when each speaker had talked ten minutes, but usually each delegate had his full say. The result was that MacDonald's anxiously awaited speech which will wind up the debate and is expected to give some hint of the government's Indian policy, will not be heard until tomorrow.

SPEECH APPLAUDED

The voice of Indian womanhood raised so appealingly by the Begum brought unsustained applause from the delegates when the talk ended.

The little woman from a Moslem family which for generations has observed the custom of seclusion and worn the "purdah" veil, stirred her listeners with the declaration that "Things in our country are moving at such a tremendous pace we ourselves are startled.

"In the remotest corners," said she, "young boys and girls are talking of their national aspirations of freedom and liberty. There is such an awakening of youth that it is not possible to check India's growing desire to form itself into a nation worthy of the name."

READING'S REMARKS

Lord Reading, the only British delegate to speak today, confined himself to the blunt statement that it is idle to talk of anything like immediate constitutional equality between India and the other British dominions.

The plea of India's 43,000,000 "untouchables" was voiced by Ramji Ambedkar, himself of that caste, who asserted in 150 years of British rule the rights of the caste never have been protected by Britain.

W. E. D. STOKES, JR., GRANTED DIVORCE

RENO, Nov. 20. (AP)—William E. D. Stokes, Jr., principal heir to the estate of the late W. E. D. Stokes, who owned a controlling interest in the Ansonia Hotel, New York, was granted a divorce here today from Florence Crittenton Stokes on the ground of insanity. The action was filed last July, but the trial was delayed by negotiations for a property settlement. Stokes and his wife came to Reno last April.

TEN-DAY HICCOUGH SUFFERER RECOVERS

DETROIT, Nov. 20. (AP) — Joseph Baskin's ten-day spell of hiccoughs was ended today without recourse to any of the fifty or more home remedies suggested to receiving hospital by persons who read of his illness. Baskin ceased to hiccough late yesterday under routine treatment at the hospital, and today is reported recovering rapidly from the effects of his ailment.

LINDBERGH'S WIFE GETS SOME TIPS

Her Presence Features White House Child Study Lecture on 4-Year-Olds

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh learned today at the White House conference on child welfare what Baby Lindbergh will be like when he is 4 years of age—if he is an average child.

Armed with note book and pamphlets Mrs. Lindbergh attended the conference on the preschool child. This committee, headed by Dr. John Anderson of the University of Minnesota, has completed a survey of 4-year-olds in 2757 homes.

If Baby Lindbergh is an average child and his father and mother act as average parents, Mrs. Lindbergh learned that Charles, Jr., in a little more than three years—

Will not be jealous nor will he resemble his mother more than his father.

He is likely to have from one to four spankings a month. He may be sent to bed or stood in a corner.

He will be able to count a little, to recite rhymes, songs and prayers, but not the alphabet.

His favorite amusement will be having his mother read to him.

Mrs. Lindbergh, clad in becoming shades of brown and tan, slipped quietly into a back seat of the conference room. Few recognized her and she listened intently as Dr. Anderson talked. Earlier in the day she and Col. Lindbergh had attended a conference on physical education.

MARINE GRID STAR ADMITS BIGAMY

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20. (AP)—Wallace Estes, 28 years of age, former football star and ex-officer of marines, pleaded guilty to a charge of bigamy and asked probation today. He was ordered released on bond and the 30th inst. was set for hearing the appeal. Charges against Estes were filed by Mrs. Mary Stuart Estes, 30, who said she was married to the defendant in Virginia in September, 1927, and was deserted some time later.

Bureau Transfer Arouses Director's Fire

Old Dispute Between Two Services Decided

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—A tempest was stirred up today over the proposed transfer of certain activities of the Children's Bureau to the Public Health Service as President Hoover's conference on child health and protection began discussion of ways and means to improve the lot of the nation's future citizens.

The dispute took place in one of the dozens of committee meetings which were held during the day to advance the work of the conference. It resulted in a statement from the procedure committee that the objectives of the meeting were important enough "to justify any amount of time and effort to harmonize varying points of view."

Points on which agreement cannot be reached, the statement added, will be taken up by a committee to be appointed by President Hoover to carry on the work.

PLAN ADOPTED

The storm spent its fury at a meeting of a public health subcommittee and was stirred up by a proposal that the maternity, infancy and child health activities of the Children's Bureau be transferred to the Public Health Service. It was protested by Miss Grace Abbott, head of the Children's Bureau, who has been mentioned as a possible successor to Secretary Davis when he resigns his Labor portfolio to become a Senator from Pennsylvania. She was backed by representatives of some women's organizations.

A meeting of the entire public health committee was held tonight and in a tranquil session it voted, 26 to 1, in favor of the transfer. Miss Abbott cast the dissenting vote. Capt. Joel T. Boone, the President's physician, voted present, and Dr. Anna Rude of Los Angeles declined to vote. Surgeon-General Cumming, head of the Public Health Service, voted for the transfer.

The committee unanimously acquiesced in the opposition's demand that a copy of Miss Abbott's dissenting opinion be sent to everyone who had received the majority report.

OLD DISPUTE

The statement by the procedure committee was precipitated by a clash between the Public Health Service and the Children's Bureau over an old dispute first broached in the conference proceedings by Secretary Davis when he championed the Children's Bureau in his department.

His speech emphatically declared against subtracting any functions from the Children's Bureau or limiting its scope.

The women demanded a reconsideration of the committee's findings, and the inclusion of Miss Abbott's minority report against such a transfer.

URGES AID PROGRAMS

In an address before the conference tonight Miss Abbott urged children's agencies to support relief programs intended to prevent suffering among children as a result of the present industrial conditions.

Bishop James W. Freeman of Washington Episcopal Cathedral told a group session of the conference that the church should not compete with agencies directing the leisure of boys and girls.

"Too many heads of churches," said the bishop, "are trying to be administrators instead of prophets of God."

MRS. WINTER SPEAKS ON SCREEN IDEALS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (Exclusive)—Legislation and censorship can touch business and specific details and forms, but after all, what is wanted by the people who are pushing for finer and happier life in our country is far more intricate and far deeper than anything law and force can command, Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, spokesman between all the organized women of the United States and the motion-picture industry, declared in a report today to the White House conference on child health and parental education.

"What people want is idealism," she said. "They need genius. And these are beyond and above command."

HOOVER SHAKES HANDS WITH 2500 DELEGATES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—President Hoover today engaged in the business of handshaking on a large scale for a short time, greeting 2500 delegates to the conference on child health and protection as they filed by him at the White House.

Presidential handshaking had grown to such proportions when Mr. Hoover took office that in the interest of his hands and health he was forced to limit it sharply.

ROUGH SEA KEEPS DO-X IN MOORING

Plane Lands at Spanish Port but Visits to and From Shore Impossible

SANTANDER (Spain) Nov. 20. (AP) The German seaplane DO-X came down here today while en route from Bordeaux to Corunna and encountered such bad weather those aboard her could not go ashore nor could those on land go out in the water to welcome the craft.

When the DO-X first anchored about three miles off the mole the sea was calm, but it soon became extremely rough. The boats which attempted to brave the waves were compelled to return to port.

The plane's officers had intended to continue to Corunna after a short halt here, but on account of the weather decided to wait until tomorrow. After reaching the Spanish port the plane will go to Lisbon, where a definite decision will be made by the Dornier brothers regarding the proposed flight to America. The general opinion in aviation circles is that the flight will not be attempted.

RAILWAYS SHOW BUILDING GAINS

Construction Figures in 1930 Up $125,000,000

Association Votes to Keep Jobs Open in Winter

Respite in Rate Reduction Indorsed as Policy

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—Railway executives representing 90 per cent of the mileage of the United States today reported expenditures on construction and equipment for the first nine months of 1930 of $125,000,000 more than in 1929 and pledged themselves to continue that program as an aid to employment.

R. H. Aishton, chairman of the executive committee, reported capital expenditures of class one roads from January 1 to September 30 totaled $698,821,000.

The association then voted unanimously to carry on "as far as practicable" work which may provide employment to the greatest possible number of men during the winter.

The railroads have carried out and will continue to carry out, a resolution said, the program of construction of equipment building undertaken at the request of President Hoover a year ago.

The association also declared its policy in respect to transportation, calling for:

(1.) A respite from rate reductions and suspensions by regulating bodies.

(2.) A respite from legislative efforts that would adversely affect rates or increase the expense of the carriers.

(3.) A withdrawal of governmental competition both through direct operation of transportation facilities as well as indirectly through subsidies.

(4.) A fairly comparable system of regulation for competing transportation service by water and highways, which would include extension of authority of regulatory agencies over rates, routes and service of barge lines and passenger and freight bus lines.

GOLD HOARD GIVES MIDAS TOUCH TO OLD TIN CAN

SAGUACHE (Colo.) Nov. 20. (Exclusive) — Three rusty tin cans packed with $20 gold pieces, the hoard of Johnny O'Neil, who for years was noted through this region as the "man who had more gold than any bank in the San Luis Valley," were found today in a harness shop on his ranch.

O'Neil, pioneer miner, died three years ago, without revealing the hiding-place of his gold. Today his widow, Mrs. Drucilla O'Neil, intent upon restoring order in the cluttered shop, found the cans, reposing beneath a litter of harness and tools.

Mrs. O'Neil refused to reveal the exact amount of gold in the cans, but it is probable that sum is more than $15,000. It is believed there is more gold coin hidden on the ranch.

Members of the immediate family, heirs to the gold, besides Mrs. O'Neil, are three daughters — Mrs. Etta Tarbell and Mrs. Minnie Creger of Saguache, and Mrs. Blanche Ianson of Portland, Or.

NATIONS FLOAT ON GOLD FLOOD

America and France Store 60 Per Cent of Supply

Stabilization of Franc Has Brought on Surplus

Federal Income Decreases Disclosed in Report

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—Sixty per cent of the world's gold lies in the coffers of two nations, the United States and France.

Never since the World War have any two countries held such a stupendous share of the world's wealth. The Federal Reserve Board set the United States holdings of the 1st inst. at $4,530,000,000. They have grown $140,000,000 in ten months of this year.

FLOOD OF GOLD

France, said the board, has been the globe's principal taker of gold since 1927, when it stabilized the franc. The Bank of France utilized its foreign balances to increase the gold reserves until the spring of 1929. Then it stopped, but commercial banks continued the inflow, adding to the Bank of France reserves a total of $550,000,000. The republic's holdings now is $1,999,000,000.

The American holdings are not at the post-war peak, but $150,000,000 under the mark set in May, 1927. Losses occurred then until June, 1928.

RECESSION FOLLOWS

The stock market rise brought in $280,000,000 worth in 1928 and 1929, and then the recession, $100,000,000 flowed out. Since that movement this country has imported from Japan, China, Brazil and other Latin-American countries. There was little movement to and from Europe, and gold went from this country to Canada to some extent.

Other countries which gained gold include Great Britain and Italy, the former building up its reserve to $782,000,000, the latter adding $6,000,000. Germany lost $12,000,000, Argentina $47,000,000 and Brazil $108,000,000.

INCOME DECLINES

Internal American finance showed meanwhile a continued decline in government income. October internal revenue receipts were $6,732,295 below those of October, 1929, making the total for the first four months of the fiscal year $69,203,779 below the same period of last year.

The greatest loss for the month was shown by documentary taxes, off about $4,000,000. Income taxes were down less than $1,000,000, and other losses were more nearly nominal.

VALENCIA'S EMPLOYERS DEMAND AID

"Reign of Terror" Said to Exist There, but Tension Elsewhere in Spain Eases

MADRID, Nov. 20. (AP)—Eight thousand employers in Valencia today sent a delegation here to ask government protection against a "reign of terror" established in their city by warring labor unions, but from other points to which the general strike of the past week has extended came reports that the tension has eased appreciably.

The Valencia delegation blamed the Syndicato Unico, a labor organization, held responsible for much of the recent disorders, for "intolerable conditions" under which Valencia workmen have been driven from their jobs under threat of violence over which the local authorities have no effective weapons.

Minor disorders continued at Barcelona today. In one street fight, a mounted policeman was hauled from his horse and set upon by strikers before the mob was dispersed.

New student disorders developed at Albecete, Huelva, and Cuenca, and most of the important universities throughout the kingdom have been closed.

The newspaper Heraldo de Madrid here was suspended for five days because it published an article defending the general strike and its author was arrested.

W.C.T.U. Group Names Seattle for Convention

HOUSTON (Tex.) Nov. 20. (AP)—The Executive Committee of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union, which closed its fifty-sixth annual convention here last night, decided today to hold the 1932 national convention in Seattle, some time prior to the Presidential election. The date was not determined.

There will be no national convention in 1931, the convention having decided against holding one, but twenty or more regional "campaign conferences" will be held. The first of these probably will be called in Washington, D. C., in December, 1931, it was said, the others to be held in 1932.

Mountain Slide Causes Fear in Swiss Village

GLARUS (Switzerland) Nov. 20. (AP)—The village of Linthal, near here, has become greatly alarmed at a gradual movement of one side of Kilchenstock Mountain, which has shown increasing instability for more than a year.

A gradual landslide, at first very slow, has doubled its speed until now it is estimated that 100,000 cubic meters of earth are moving down on the village at the rate of one centimeter (about two-fifths of an inch) a day.

Watchers with telephones have been stationed at different points on the mountain and measures have been taken to evacuate threatend parts of the village as soon as is necessary.

APPROACHING YEARS PAST 40

Begin now to guard against the after 40 ailment

ONE of the most prevalent menaces to health after 40, says medical science, is kidney breakdown. Over half of men and women past this age are afflicted in varying degree. Many without knowledge, for there are no warning symptoms.

Kidneys excrete 75 per cent of poisonous waste from the system. Through overwork, kidneys are the first vital organs to break down—which leads, in many cases, to more serious ills.

Doctors now say, "Drink 6 glasses of a pure, mineral-free water each day, to dilute waste matter and wash it away." This eases the burden on kidneys, giving the worn cells a chance to repair. Further breakdown is arrested.

Thus thousands are now drinking Puritas mineral-free water. Through scientific distillation Puritas is freed of all minerals and impurities, which add further to congestion of kidneys. Thus Puritas flushes these vital organs in the most thorough, efficient way.

Puritas is drinking water in its very purest form. Though its taste seems different at first, each drink you'll increasingly enjoy.

, Nov. 20. (AP)—The pre-

posal, submitted by Lord
Britain, was adopted objection of the United favors direct limitaver that of Japan and are opposed to super-
budgetary control on direct limitation already indorsed by the great naval powers.

Lord Cecil in recalling his earlier declaration that his country could not agree to naval budgetary limitation unless it also was accepted by other great sea powers, expressed hope that some compromise formula might be found before convening of the general conference which would enable the United States and Japan to enter this scheme.

The proposal was adopted by the votes of Great Britain, Canada, Russia, Ireland, Norway, Persia, Finland, Italy, Rumania, and Holland. Opposing were the United States, France and Japan.

The commission also concluded adoption of the naval limitation draft which transfers the principles of the Washington and London treaties into a general convention formula for all nations.

The articles approved today concern definitions, exemptions and rules for the transfer of tonnage.

The figures in the two existing treaties were placed in the general draft "as illustrations" of what has been done in this direction already, and not to bind the general conference.

The commission moved rapidly today under a fire of amendments from Maxim Litvinoff, the Russian delegate, all aiming at radical reduction. The commission, however, declined to insert any figures except those already in force among the great naval powers.

The nearest to success Litvinoff came today was in obtaining more stringent precautions against converting merchant vessels into war vessels.

ADMIRAL CHASE HAS LIMITATION PROPOSAL

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—Admiral John Valentine Chase, commander-in-chief of the United States Fleet, in a statement today suggested a naval limitations plan by which each nation would allot a fixed percentage of its entire budget to naval building.

The plan suggested at Geneva, limiting each nation to a fixed sum for naval building, the admiral said, would result in consternation because of the continual change in monetary values.

He also criticised the plan advocated by the United States and England, which limits the building of ships according to category, and the plan of France and Italy which limits building according to global tonnage.

"Under both of these methods," he said, "nations like Japan, France and Italy have to accept comparisons irksome to their national pride."

PEN AND RUBBER SWORD CLASH OVER BULLFIGHT

NEWARK (N. J.) Nov. 20. (AP)—The animal lovers of the nation are balancing the pen against the sword in protest against the proposed bullfight here, the 30th inst., featuring Sidney Franklin, America's only toreador.

From Philadelphia, Kansas City, Boston and other points have come scathing denunciations to Mayor Jerome T. Congleton.

Excerpts: "The eyes of the world are on Newark." "If Senor Franklin wants to fight, let him fight a man." "How would you like to be the poor bull?"

Promoters of the spectacle have assured the Mayor it will be only "a sparring exhibition" between Franklin and four bulls. He will carry a rubber sword, it was said; the picadores will be armed with pointless spears and the horns of the bulls will be tipped with rubber. The animals may be bored, but molested? "Never," they averred.

Mrs. McPherson Suddenly Leaves New York Hotel

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—Mrs. Aimee Semple McPherson, Los Angeles evangelist, has checked out of the hotel where she has been staying as Mrs. Ruth Alexander, leaving no forwarding address.

In the party with her were F. C. Winters, her business manager; Mrs. Margaret Smith, and the latter's son. They checked out yesterday at 3 p.m.

Whether the evangelist is en route home is unknown here.

FAREWELL SAID BY SUMMERALL

Chief of Staff Retires After Forty Years

High Praise Bestowed by Secretary Hurley

General Exalts Duty Above Personal Interest

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (Exclusive)—Gen. Charles Summerall retired as Army Chief of Staff today amidst the flourish of trumpets, salute of cannon at Fort Myer, and martial strains from the army band. Following informal good-bys and the issuance of a farewell address to the Army, the retiring Chief of Staff made a last inspection of the officers he has used for the last four years, paid his respects to President Hoover and left for his home at Eustas, Fla.

The ceremonies also signaled the general's withdrawal from actual military duty. Gen. Summerall will take leave until March 4 next year, when he retires for age, after forty years of military service. Maj.-Gen. Douglas MacArthur will be sworn as Chief of Staff at 9:45 tomorrow morning.

SON FIRES SALUTE

An interesting feature at Fort Myer's personal farewell to its most distinguished resident was the fact that the final artillery tribute was fired by a battery commanded by the general's son, Lieut. Charles P. Summerall, Jr., now stationed at the cavalry post. A mounted band escorted Gen. Summerall to the gate of the army post.

Among the officers who bade good by to the retiring Chief of Staff were many who had served in France with Gen. Summerall and had felt in war as in peace time the influence of the hard discipline that won him the nickname of "Old Per Schedule." Today Gen. Summerall bowed to the mandates of another schedule. Under army rulings he helped to frame, the Chief of Staff serves a four-year term, and then retires regardless.

PRAISED BY HURLEY

Gen. Summerall's military and administrative qualities were accorded the highest praise today by Secretary of War Hurley.

"Throughout his military career, Gen. Summerall has demonstrated his splendid professional attainments," Secretary Hurley said. "He is an outstanding technician and tactician, a great executive and a brilliant combat leader.

"As Chief of Staff he has handled the problems of the Army constructively. The present high state of efficiency of the Army and the civilian components is due in large measure to his constructive leadership, his wise counsel, his wealth of experience and his unswerving loyalty. His high sense of duty, his splendid ability and his patriotism have been inspiring to those of us who have served with him."

FAREWELL ADDRESS

In taking leave of the Army, Gen. Summerall exhorted his comrades "to place the service of the nation above personal interests in all the relationships of life."

"I have been privileged to see the Army develop in my lifetime from a cloistered and little understood profesion into a national agency, in intimate contact with the republic which it serves,' Gen. Summerall said. "Never before has America appreciated national defense so fully in the light of civic obligation. Within and without the military service it is generally realized that in the soldier we find the fundamental virtues of the citizen. The National Guard, the Officers' Reserve Corps, the Reserve Officers Training Corps in the schools and colleges and the citizens' military training camps represent the highest form of patriotic service. The earnest and enthusiastic response which they make to their country's requirements for defense constitutes an unimpeachable testimony to the soundness of America's moral fiber. The various components which work so loyally, understandingly and effectvely to form the Army of the United States are in very truth one cohesive whole because they posses the common denominator of citizenship.

SUPERIOR MEN

"Our officers as a class are men of superior intelligence, comprehensive education and high professional attainments. Most of them are experience in war and possess tried qualities of leadership. Our enlisted men represent the best elements of American manhood. As a result of careful selection enlistments are generally confined to young men of good character and habits. They respond to the offer of a career that appeals to the virile, the courageous and the ambitious. Many have spent years in the services and many have gone through war Their loyalty and devotion to duty are beyond question. Their pride and soldierly spirit are manifested by their bearing and conduct and their response to every requirement.

"For the future I would enjoin in them a continuance of industry and fidelity and that consecration to duty which places the service of the nation above personal interests in all the relationships of life."

Michigan Quake Theory Blasted

PONTIAC (Mich.) Nov. 20. (AP)—Last night's "earthquake" which shook the lake district of Oakland county turned out to have been a dynamite explosion.

Sheriff's deputies today discovered that fifty pounds of the explosive had been stolen from the county gravel pit near the "quake" area, and their theory is it exploded after having been carried away in an automobile.

BANDITS TOSS AWAY $6000 IN DIAMONDS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20. (AP)—Among the things that must make a robber sore is to find the next day he has overlooked $6000. The two men who held up Fred L. Newsome last night read this in today's papers. The robbers got Newsome's wallet with $140 in it, but a bag of rocks he had they threw away. That bag of rocks, which Newsome recovered, was $6000 worth of uncut diamonds.

Reduces mouth germs 98%

The moment Listerine enters the mouth it attacks the millions of bacteria breeding there—kills them outright. The number of bacteria on the surfaces of the mucous membrane is actually reduced 98%. This has been clearly demonstrated by repeated tests made under methods employed at great Universities.

Gargle every 2 hours

Make a habit of using full strength Listerine as a mouth wash and gargle every night and morning. This treatment under normal conditions of health is considered sufficient to keep mouth germs under control and maintain a clean and healthy condition in the oral tract.

When, however, you have a cold or sore throat consult your doctor and increase the frequency of the gargle to once every two hours.

Thus you give nature an extra attacking force needed when body resistance is low, to keep disease germs under control. Lambert Pharmacal Company, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A.

On Blocks of Crystal . . .

For fifteen centuries there stood in the harbor of ancient Alexandria the mighty tower of Pharos . . . monument to the acumen of its architect, Sostratus. Seeking a lasting foundation, he discovered by test a substance unaffected by time or the action of the sea . . . and reared this wonder of the ancient world on a firm foundation of crystal blocks.

"Build a solid foundation" is not only a cardinal rule in architecture, but in finance. The foundation of safety in an institution for savings must be built of ample cash reserves and invested capital, liquid assets, and sound loan policies.

Our Statement demonstrates the outstanding invested capital, cash reserves and liquidity of our financial structure.

Our loan rate of 7%—outstandingly low in our field—best indicates the soundness of our loan policies—for it brings us the choicest first lien collateral offered to any building and loan association in California.

TWO ACCUSED IN WIFE DEATH

Husband and ex-Secretary Held in Oregon Tragedy

Suspects Maintain Matron Ended Life With Knife

Doctor's Admission Brings Latest Turn in Case

PORTLAND (Or.) Nov. 20. (AP)—Nelson C. Bowles, 34 years of age, retired capitalist, and Mrs. Irma Loucks Paris, 25, his former secretary, are under arrest today charged with the murder of Bowles's wife, Mrs. Leone Bowles, 33. They are held without bail.

Mrs. owles died the 12th inst. in Mrs. Paris's apartment. A knife had been plunged into her breast. Mrs. Paris and Bowles told police they were in the apartment at the time of the tragedy, but dclared Mrs. Bowles stabbed herself while she was in the apartment kitchen to get a drink.

Mrs. Paris and Bowles were arrested early this morning on orders of Dist.-Atty. Myers. He says all officers connected with the investigation of the case agreed evidence in their possession warranted arrest of the two.

Admission by Dr. Paul D. Cooper, who was called to the scene of the asserted murder, that he "was false in a highly material matter in his original statement" was the culminating cause for murder charges against Mrs. Paris and Bowles, Myers said.

It is understood Dr. Cooper's statment concerning the time of Mrs. Bowles's death was false. Police assert Dr. Cooper had told them Mrs. Bowles was not dead when he called an ambulance to the apartment. It was said after long questioning last night Dr. Cooper admitted Mrs. Bowles had been dead about twenty minutes when he called the ambulance in which the body was removed to a private mortuary.

Dr. Cooper did not notify police or the Coroner of the tragedy. He was later arrested and charged with a misdemeanor in removing, without permission of the Coroner, the body of a person who had met a violent death.

Bandits Disprove Chicago Street "Crime Proof"

CHICAGO, Nov. 20. (AP)—Apparently there is no such place as a crime-proof section of Chicago.

Three men last night invaded Astor street, recently described as a district so well patrolled by special police it was regarded as crime-proof.

When they left they took with them jewelry valued by its owners at $2500 and a small amount of cash.

Mrs. Charles S. Dennis, a resident of Astor street, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley C. Palmer of Winnetka, Ill., and Mrs. Warren McArthur of Phoenix, Ariz., were the victims. They were robbed after a theater party.

HOSPITALS SEEK MORE IN BUDGETS

Thirteen Institutions in State Submit Requests for Two Years Support

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 20. (AP)—Budget requests from thirteen State institutions ask for a total of $20,146,567 for support and permanent improvements during the coming two years, the Department of Finance announced today. The total amount allowed for these purposes during the past two years was $13,906,264.84.

The largest amount sought is $2,576,601 for Patton State Hospital. Agnew State Hospital asks $2,262,130, and the Stockton State Hospital $2,216,476.50.

The narcotic hospital at Spadra asked $533,409 for support and permanent improvements. This institution was allowed $266,800.69 during the last two fiscal years.

The Whittier State School asks $1,109,148, and the Preston School of Industry asks $1,525,130.

These budget figures with the finance department's recommendations will be submitted to Gov.-elect Rolph along with other departmental budgets.

PRINCE IN EXILE HAILED AS KING

Zita Addresses Hungarian Legitimists in Belgium

Budapest Fete Marks Son's Attainment of Majority

STEENOCKERZEEL (Belgium) Nov. 20. (AP)—In a feudal castle here where Archduke Otto and his mother, the former Empress Zita, are spending their exile from their native land, the Archduke today celebrated his eighteenth birthday. According to report he was hailed by a group of Hungarian legitimists as their rightful king.

Exactly what happened within the castle is largely a matter of surmise, but it is known that the young Archduke on having attained his majority was formally designated as head of the House of Hapsburg, which for long had ruled the Austria-Hungarian Empire.

The former Empress Zita, in a brief speech at ceremonies in the castle chapel, declared her son the sole head of Hungarian Royalists.

After the mass the assembled throng sang Hayden's "Hymn to the Emperor."

While a document investing Otto with the "rights of majesty" is understood to have been duly executed and read at the mass, its publication by the family is said to have been deferred for political reasons, chief of which is the opposition of the Entente powers to restoration of the House of Hapsburg in Hungary.

THOUSAND OF FAITHFUL ASSEMBLE AT BANQUET

BUDAPEST, Nov. 20. (AP)—One thousand adherents of the old Austro-Hungarian dual monarchy met at a brilliant banquet table here tonight and agreed the young Prince Otto of the House of Hapsburg, who reached his eighteenth birthday in Belgium today, should occupy the Hungarian throne.

The principal speaker was Count Albert Apponyi, veteran statesman, who declared Otto is the one person entitled to the throne and to restore peace, liberty and equality in the country.

At the same time he gave warning that this is not the moment to attempt restoration, as trouble both abroad and at home might result if such a move were attempted now. He added, however, that the Legitimists will do everything possible to smooth the path of the monarchy's return in the future.

The dinner, held at the St. Gelliert Hotel, was attended by a gay assemblage. Many of the men wore the old Austro-Hungarian uniforms, imperial orders and decorations sparkling on their breasts.

But another meeting today, celebrating the young Prince's coming of age, was nearly wrecked by a group of anti-Legitimists who planted themselves in the audience, at a given signal they threw a stench bomb from the gallery and then set out to create pandemonium. They finally were ejected.

VIENNA ALSO OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

VIENNA, Nov. 20. (AP)—Great crowds flocked toward the Capucine Monastery Church today in order to witness the arrival of former members of the royal house of nobles to take part in thanksgiving services for the coming of age of Prince Otto of the Hapsburgs.

The crowds every now and again burst into cries of "Hail for the Hapsburgs."

The service was celebrated by Abbot Ortenburg, assisted by many bishops and lesser clergy.

At the conclusion of the service the congregation intoned the old Hapsburg Kaiserlied, which is cordially disliked by the nonmonarchists and Socialists in Austria.

BRIEF FILED IN DEFENSE OF BILLINGS

McKenzie Attacks as Worthless Affidavits by State's Witnesses

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20. (Exclusive)—In a lengthy supplemental brief filed today, Edwin V. McKenzie, counsel for Warren K. Billings at the Supreme Court pardon hearing, declares the four affidavits most recently filed by Fred L. Berry, attorney acting for the justices, "utterly worthless and in some respects vicious," and asks the justices either to permit him the opportunity of cross-examination or to discard at least one of the so-called "prosecution" briefs. The one to which McKenzie takes particular exception is that of C. M. Myers, photographer, who submitted an affidavit declaring two men had approached him to "doctor" a photo of the Ellers Building, showing Thomas and Rena Mooney, so a clock in the picture with time indistinct, could be read.

The other three affidavits attacked are those of O. R. Reams, druggist, who declared John MacDonald, the waiter, was "normal" in Reams's opinion, in July, 1916; Opie Warner, newspaper reporter, who averred MacDonald came into mysterious possession of at least $1500 when brought here by Jack Johnston at the instigation of the Chicago Federation of Labor in 1921, and Charles M. Fickert, District Attorney at the time of the trials, relative to a photograph showing a small auto at Steuart and Market streets which, according to the State at the trials, was occupied by the bombers.

COAST GUARD SAVES FISHING BOAT CREW

SCITUATE (Mass.) Nov. 20. (AP)—Beating their way through a heavy sea in their surfboat, a crew of Coast Guardsmen from the Scituate station rescued Capt. Filippe Stragino and his crew of five from the seventy-foot fishing schooner Gyda today. The Gyda went ashore on Callamore's Ledge, two miles off Minot, during a fog and was in danger of breaking up.

PLAINVIEW (Tex.) Nov. 20. (AP) Charles Howard, keeper of a leopard which Saturday fatally injured James Evins, 4 years of age, at Littlefield, is held in Hale County Jail here today on a charge of negligent homicide. The leopard is confined in a zoo at Clovis, N. M.

Wade Potter, County Attorney at Littlefield, said Howard made an affidavit the drug store where the child was attacked had employed him to exhibit the leopard there. The Evins child died yesterday.

Natives Aid Observers in Getting Solar Data

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20. (Exclusive)—Members of the United States Naval Observatory solar eclipse expedition to Niuafou, or Tin Can Island, where a total eclipse was observed and recorded October 21, last, returned to the United States today on the Matson liner Sierra. C. H. J. Keppler, commander and head of the party, said much valuable data were obtainable and the expedition generally had been successful beyond expectations.

One hundred pictures were taken during the ninety-three seconds of the total eclipse which will be distributed to the various astronomers in the country for study and comparison. The work of recording the eclipse on a camera mounted on a sixty-five-foot tower and on the 2500-pound Einstein camera was performed under perfect weather conditions and without accident, Commander Keppler said. Weld Arnold of the National Geographic Society operated the Einstein camera and from his pictures of the corona hopes to be able to obtain proof of the Einstein theory of relativity.

Plates developed on the island show a curious strawberry formation on the outside of the sun's corona, which Keppler said had never been seen in an eclipse before.

All the members of the expedition returned with little clothing as the natives took a great fancy to their shoes, hats and suits and were presented with various garments. Commander Keppler made such a hit with High Chief Foto File of the island that he was adopted as the chief's son and was the guest at a native dance and feast to celebrate the success of the expedition.

Dr. Flexner Says Schools Resort to Humbug

English System Declared to Be Far Superior

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP) — Dr. Abraham Flexner, director of the Institute of Advance Study in Newark, N. J., in a new book criticises American universities for teaching "rubbish."

In "Universities — American, English and German," published by the Oxford University Press, he declares, "the sort of easy rubbish which may be counted toward an A.B. degree passes the limits of credibility."

VULGARIZE SELVES

Institutions, he adds, "have needlessly cheapened, vulgarized and mechanized themselves."

Mentioning clog dancing for men and wrestling among courses that count toward a degree, he said great universities descend to "humbug" in bestowing degrees which represent neither a substantial secondary education nor a substantial vocational training.

Dr. Flexner says there have been unworthy efforts to sell education at a profit if possible, citing as flagrant offenders Columbia and the University of Chicago.

ENGLISH PLAN BETTER

Criticising the Harvard school of business administration, he declares it is an irrelevant and unworthy thing for a modern university to undertake to "short-circuit" experience.

English universities, he holds, are seats of higher learning incomparably superior to anything in America. He asserts there is not a college in America "that has the courage to place athletics where everyone knows they properly belong."

NEWS OF SOUTHERN COUNTIES

VENTURA'S CROPS RAISED FROM SOIL AND SEA AIR

County Rich in Romance, Legend, Climate and Scenic Beauty; Perpetual "White Spot"

VENTURA, Nov. 20.—Deep-soiled Ventura county, rich in romance, legend, climate, soil and scenic beauty, but richer still in agricultural and mineral production, is a white spot on the agricultural map of the United States that has never been dimmed.

Ventura county has just completed the most prosperous agricultural year in its history. The cultivated acreage is greater and the gross returns from the harvest of all its crops are greater than in any previous year.

In area Ventura is one of the lesser Southern California counties—less than 2,000,000 acres. But what it lacks in acreage is more than recompensed by the wonderful fertility of the acres under production.

Ventura county is the land of the lima bean, the walnut and the lemon. More lima beans are raised commercially in Ventura county than in all the world outside, and the lima bean is one of the freaks of agriculture.

The lima bean draws its substance from the air, not from the soil. There are acres in Ventura county that have produced a crop of beans annually for forty years, without an ounce of fertilization, and the yield per acre this year is greater than that of forty years ago.

LIMAS PROFITABLE

The lima bean is the bride of the sea. The limas can be grown profitably only on the open coast lands. They must be lulled and comforted by the trade winds singing to the shore. No plant is more sensitive. Plant them so far inland that they cannot hear the voice of the waves breaking on the shore and they will not mature.

In Ventura county this year 54,168 acres were devoted to bean culture and the estimated value of the crop is $6,690,760.

Ventura county itself might be called the bride of the Pacific. It has forty-two miles of coast line, and most of the productive acreage is to be found in the lowlands and the valleys between the blue Pacific and the purple mountains, for in Ventura county the mountains come down to the sea.

Ventura county is in the citrus fruit belt. In lemon production Ventura is second among the California counties, but in the yield per acre Ventura county is first.

Ventura county is first in walnut gross production.

From 5912 acres devoted to lemon culture this year the gross returns were $5,799,600, an average for the whole county of almost $1000 an acre.

From 15,329 acres of walnuts the gross returns were $2,468,788.

INTERCULTIVATION

But these figures do not tell the whole of the story. In the rows between the lemon, walnut and orange trees beans were growing. They took nothing from the richness of the soil; they added to its productiveness.

According to the Ventura county orchardists, a citrus fruit grove produces best when beans are grown in the rows between the trees.

These yields refer to the soil only. But in Ventura county for the present year, the mineral products from the subsoil have far exceeded in value the agricultural production. In the midst of lemon groves that were giving an annual production of $1000 per acre for lemons, and $125 an acre for beans, were oil derricks bringing to the surface liquid gold that far exceeded the returns from the soil.

In Ventura county 170,000 cultivated acres produced $25,000,000. But the mineral production, chiefly oil, was in excess of $34,000,000.

These figures can be equalled, can be approximately, only in Southern California.

Circle the world at the equator, pass from pole to pole and there will be found no other spot that equals for combined soil and subsoil production that of the oil and citrus belt of Southern California.

Ventura county is a rural paradise. Two-thirds of the population lives outside incorporated cities. The rural population about doubled in the last ten years. It is growing more rapidly than the urban population.

Farming in Ventura county is a cultural occupation. Anything will flourish in the fertile soil of the Ventura coast and mountain valleys but trouble. One county fair exhibit this year contained 228 varieties of fruit and vegetables.

IDEAL REGION

The dream of 10,000 persons employed in the industries of the Los Angeles industrial district is to accumulate enough to buy a fruit ranch in Ventura county, where they can live in ease and comfort, and watch the world go by. This does not mean isolation, for the heart of Ventura county is only two hours by motor from Hollywood.

Some of the most elaborate suburban residences in Southern California are in Ventura county, and the country estates there are royal domains.

Gentlemen farmers in Ventura county take as much pride in decorating their ranches as affluent city dwellers in decorating their homes.

Imagine whole country estates laid out by expert landscape gardeners—rose hedges, palm avenues and terraced mountainsides that not only charm the eye, but produce fabulous crops!

Ventura county is a kingdom in itself. Whatever is necessary for human comfort can be grown on Ventura soil.

On a two-acre ranch within the city limits of Santa Paula this year, one experimental farmer raised thirty-nine varieties of foodstuffs in commercial quantities.

Five fruitful valleys, stretching up to the mountains from the coastal plain, are noted alike for their scenic beauty and their agricultural production.

Here agriculture and horticulture are reduced to a science. The farmer does not follow the plow, but rides on the tractor. The labor, the sweat, is that of the machines. The successful farmer is a mechanical expert.

The poet Goldsmith sang of the "Deserted Village." There are no deserted villages in Ventura county. The movement here is not from the country to the city, but from the industrial communities to the productive farms.

Ventura Valley, Oxnard Valley, Santa Clara Valley, Ojai Valley, Simi Valley, Sespe Valley; these are only the headliners. There are a dozen others that vie with them in agricultural production and scenic beauty.

In these valleys frost is practically unknown and the cool ocean breezes temper the warmest days in summer.

Through Ventura county runs the great international boulevard from Canada to Mexico. There is an inland route, and a coastal route; and here the residents of the countryside from the palm-shaded and rose-arbored homes watch the world go by.

ROMANTIC ATMOSPHERE

Ventura county was once the home of the dons and the padres. In the city of Ventura Father Junipero Serra founded in 1782 one of the famous California missions. On the Del Valle ranch, near Piru, is the scene that Helen Hunt Jackson used for the background of "Ramona," her famous romance. And the flavor of the Spanish occupation lingers still.

In Ventura county the subsoil is native Indian. On the ruins of Chumash Indian civilization, atop the ruins of Xuco, one of the greatest of the ancient cities of that civilization, was founded the Spanish civilization of the dons and the padres. And on the ruins of this civilization is that builded by the Anglo-Saxons.

But the dead still speak through the living; and there is a legend and romance of the past in the wonderful valleys that temper the present rural life. When the trade winds sing to the shore, their songs are in the tongue of the Chumash, the Spanish dons and the padres.

While citrus fruit production leads all the rest, there are other acres that produce bountifully and profitably.

Apricots yield wonderfully in Ventura county soil. From 7000 acres this year the returns were $1,121,464.

Nursery stock—seeds, bulbs and flowers—are valued at $750,000.

Oxnard is the home of the sugar beet. In Oxnard is the second largest sugar beet factory in the world. This year the acreage planted was 7065, and the crop sold for $654,385.

Miscellaneous crops from 40,000 acres produced $398,000.

Grain hay, grown on 10,000 acres, yielded $293,000.

From 2850 acres of tomatoes the yield is estimated at $227,000.

Barley was grown on 5500 upland acres, and sold for $148,000.

Pepper culture was limited to 756 acres. The crop sold for $117,000.

Dairy products for the year were estimated at $1,000,000.

WATER CONSERVATION

In accord with other Southern California counties, Ventura county recognizes the importance of water conservation as an essential phase of its flood-control efforts. While some of the water utilized is taken from the Santa Clara and Ventura rivers and tributary streams, about 90 per cent of the supply is pumped from natural subsoil storage.

The Santa Clara Water Conservation District was organized three years ago for the control of Santa Clara River flood water and its utilization for the replenishment of the subterranean supply by diverting it to spreading areas for subsoil infiltration.

Garden Tour on Saturday Last One of Season

PASADENA, Nov. 20.—The last of the garden tours for this season, which have been conducted on a number of Saturdays here under the auspices of the Girl Scouts of this city, is scheduled for this Saturday from 1:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. Tickets may be obtained at any of the gardens listed below for the entire tour.

Gardens to be visited are: Mr. and Mrs. James A. Brehm, 1450 Hillcrest avenue; Mr. and Mrs. John Earle Jardine, 1504 South Marengo avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Morris Cohn, 1325 South Los Robles; Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Norris, 970 Arden Road; Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Neal, 1804 Foothill, South Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. Clarke E. Bell, 1342 Circle Drive, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Badgley, 1140 Rosalind Road.

LOCAL LABOR WILL BUILD CITY RESERVOIR

GLENDALE, Nov. 20.—Construction work on the proposed $350,000 municipal reservoir at Glorietta street will be carried out, as far as possible by local labor, the City Council has announced, in making it known that work on the reservoir is scheduled to start early in January. Mayor C. E. Kimlin has been advised by the public-service department that the plans will be completed by December 1, and that bids will be asked immediately thereafter. The appropriation for the work was recently voted by the Council from the public-service department funds.

CITRUS BRINGS PRINCELY SUM

Mutual Orange Distributors Receive $13,500,000

This Amount Returns from 5460 Cars Shipped

Brilliant Possibilities for New Year Estimated

REDLANDS, Nov. 20. — The princely sum of $13,500,000 was received by the Mutual Orange Distributors, shipping citrus fruits for packing-houses scattered throughout the citrus district of California, for 5460 cars shipped during the season just closed.

This was the report made to more than 500 representatives of the citrus industry at the annual meeting and dinner held at the headquarters of the company in Redlands, the dinner being served in the basement of the Baptist church.

Before estimating brilliant possibilities of the new year, the delegates heard General Manager C. P. Earley report that "The season just closing has been one of the most successful periods in point of comparative returns in history. Despite the generally small crops throughout the State, Mutual Orange Distributors returned to its grower-members more than $500,000 more than during the previous year."

STRAIT RE-ELECTED HEAD

J. H. Strait, Bloomington, was re-elected president of the State-wide organization and A. B. Cowgill was returned to the secretary's office for his twenty-fifth year. Cowgill, a Redlands man, has been secretary since the sales body was formed in 1906. Strait begins his fifteenth year in continuous service as president. M. W. H. Williams of this city was returned as incumbent to the office of vice-president.

Other directors named yesterday by the Mutual Orange Distributors are C. S. Palmeter, Escondido; W. A. Greenleaf, Santa Ana; E. D. Nickerson, Redlands; William Wagner, Jr., Anaheim; W. L. Cox, San Bernardino; W. Todd Dofflemeyer, Exeter; R. A. Wheatley, Whittier; J. F. Snowden, Orange; E. W. Ginzel, Redlands; George A. Gaylord, Ontario; John W. Crill, Anaheim; T. J. Steves, La Verne.

The only two new members of the board are George A. Gaylord, Ontario, and C. S. Palmeter, Escondido. They succeed O. D. Brouse, Covina, and William Caruthers, Claremont.

QUARTER-CENTURY BEGUN

"The Mutual Orange Distributors today closes its twenty-fourth year and enters the quarter-century of its life with more California acreage and growers affiliated with it than ever before in its history," said Earley.

Since its creation in 1906, the Mutual Orange Distributors has steadily and soundly increased both in membership and in the total number of acres of California groves served by it. The citrus season of 1929-30 resulted in a net gain of California acreage of 2774 acres, with the result that the organization today is handling the crops from more than 5000 more acres than it was at the beginning of the 1928-1929 season. Such a consistent growth definitely reflects its success as a citrus-co-operative sales association, for its membership is built only by its ability to give to California growers better service and better average returns than they can obtain elsewhere. That it has, and is able to do so, is proved by the ever-growing number of successful growers who voluntarily are seeking to become members of it. Not only has there been an increase in individual affiliations with our numerous packing-houses but three new co-operative packing houses, the Upland Mutual Groves, at Upland, the Riverside Citrus Association of Riverside and the Whittier Orange and Lemon Association of Whittier, during the year became members of the Mutual Orange Distributors," Earley concluded.

SEPULVEDA CHURCH PROPERTY CLEARED

SEPULVEDA, Nov. 20.—The Sepulveda Community Church in some manner has escaped the general suffering caused by the national business depression. Lawrence Christopherson, financial secretary for the congregation, today reported that the church property at Rayon street and Langdon avenue, including a two-acre tract, is now entirely free of debt. Members will conduct a meeting of rejoicing on Thanksgiving Day.

MONTEBELLO HOST TO CLUB COUNCIL

Miss Lois Elliott

MONTEBELLO, Nov. 20. — The Montebello Woman's Club will entertain the presidents' council of the Los Angeles district, Federated Women's Clubs, Tuesday, December 9, it was announced today by Mrs. Walter F. Malone, president of the local club.

It is estimated that between 1200 and 1500 women delegates will attend the December council, and in order to accommodate the large assemblage for the day's conference arrangements have been made with Mark R. Jacobs, superintendent of schools, to use the high school auditorium for the general sessions.

The department of junior membership will be the feature of the day's program, for Montebello claims the distinction of having the first and thus far the only girl, Miss Lois Elliott, to win the State musical scholarship which was presented through the junior department of the Federated Women's Clubs. Miss Elliott was awarded this scholarship last spring at the State convention in San Francisco. But the State officials felt she should be introduced to the club women for the first time at this council. Mrs. Dean Lord, who is in charge of the junior work, will make the formal introduction. Miss Elliott at this time is using the scholarship money to study pipe organ.

Elaborate preparations are being made by the local organization to make the December council an outstanding affair. Arrangements have been made to take care of 900 luncheon reservations. Mrs. W. F. Johnson has been appointed general chairman in charge of the day's activities.

Club women of prominence who will attend this council include: Mrs. Howard U. Sherwood, president of the Los Angeles district, and Mrs. William Waller Slayden, president of the State district. The Los Angeles district is comprised of five counties.

Holiday Candles to Deck Street

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 20.—"Santa Claus Lane" of Hollywood Boulevard fame will have nothing on Santa Barbara's State street when it comes to elaborate Yuletide decorations, it was announced here today by a special committee in charge of "fixing" the main street for the holiday season.

From the beach front to Victoria street—exactly one mile—State street will literally be an avenue of huge candles, while in between each "candle" will be a Christmas tree gayly decorated and illuminated.

A contract let today provides for the changing of the street's numerous lighting standards into illuminated candles, which, through the ingenuity of electrical wizards, will burn throughout the evenings, not unlike an immense candle.

In addition to the municipal decorations, dozens of merchants have announced their intention of placing individual Christmas decorations in front of their stores.

Work of transforming State street into its Yule clothing will start early next week, it has been announced.

HODSON ON VACATION

VAN NUYS, Nov. 20.—Capt. C. A. Hodson, commander of the San Fernando Valley division of police, left here today on his vacation. Lieut. Bert Dowling, next ranking officer in the division, will be in charge for the next two weeks.

RECALL AT ARCADIA FAILS

Affidavits of Petition Circulators Declared Invalid by City Attorney Walter F. Dunn

ARCADIA, Nov. 20.—Setting forth that the affidavits of circulators did not meet legal requirements, City Attorney Walter F. Dunn last night declared the petitions for the recall of Mayor John Walshe, and Councilmen Emil Bolz and Henry Seaman, invalid, at a session of the City Council.

The petitions were filed with City Clerk Meade last week for checking and submitted to the Council last night for action. As the petition was declared invalid upon the legal technicality cited by Attorney Dunn, no action was taken in the matter.

Council chambers at City Hall were filled to capacity with followers of Fire Chief and Chief of Police A. N. Coberly, upon whose dismissal, six weeks ago, the recall was based.

Jack Richards who for two weeks has held the temporary office of Chief of Police, was appointed permanently as head of the police and fire department last night.

Chief Richards has already begun a complete reorganization and other vital changes in the department. To increase the efficiency of the staff he has had a special phone and light system installed, whereby officers on their beats can be contacted easily by the head office through red street lights which are connected with phones.

Improvements in the police department offices are also being made under the supervision of Chief Richard and Councilman Bottema, who is chairman of the City Parks and Buildings Committee.

It was voiced today by city officials that a new building for the fire and police departments will probably be erected on the newly purchased lots on Wheeler street.

Construction of the new buildings will increase the efficiency of both departments to a marked extent, as they are cramped in their present quarters, the Councilmen say.

WATER USERS IN ORGANIZATION

Cucamonga Basin Protective Association Formed

George G. Laidlaw Elected President of Group

Plans for Flood Control and Conservation Considered

CUCAMONGA, Nov. 20.—Final steps have been taken in organizing the Cucamonga Basin Protective Association, and plans are now being formulated for more extensive flood control and water conservation, according to George G. Laidlaw, president of the group.

Other officers to serve the association with President Laidlaw are: John Belcher, vice-president; J. F. Grass, second vice-president, and R. A. Wagner, engineer. Mrs. Nelson Crosswell, secretary of the Cucamonga Water Company, will be secretary of the association.

Two committees were chosen at the board meeting. The committee on promotion of membership includes J. F. Grass, R. A. Wagner and A. C. Reynolds. The executive committee for the association-at-large is made up of George G. Laidlaw, John Klusman and John Belcher.

AGREEMENT SIGNED

Cucamonga Basin Protective Association was formally organized a week ago when representatives of ten water companies and water users in the district met at Alta Loma, approved the constitution and by-laws, and signed a mutual agreement.

The officers were chosen this week. The organization meeting was attended by representatives of San Antonio Water Company, the Cucamonga Water Company, the Ioamosa Water Company, the Sunset Water Company, the Old Settlers' Water Company, the Hellman Water Company and Bella Alta Estates.

The association's first move was to take steps toward the purchase of necessary equipment to strengthen the present check-dam system in Cucamonga Canyon, and also to expand the system as rapidly as possible. This, the association members hold, will raise the water table and protect the present mountain supply from run-off loss.

ACTION HELD IMPERATIVE

All of Cucamonga district water users will be urged to become members of the association.

Action toward organization of the association was declared imperative some time ago when an engineer's report indicated the water level was dropping at a rapid rate, and steps were needed to refill the underground basin. It was also indicated that steps should be taken to prevent outside interests from transporting water from the basin to other districts.

Chino Basin Protective Association was organized for that purpose and when its value to the community was apparent, the Cucamonga district water users voted to organize for mutual protection.

Character of Fishing Fleet on Ebb Tide

REDONDO BEACH, Nov. 20.—The waterfront has lost one of its most picturesque figures in the death of John Pearson, 58 years of age, a native of Sweden, who came to this country forty years ago, fishing from this coast in the days when wharves and piers were few and landings were made on the beaches.

Pearson, with his brother, Barney Pearson, who is his only relative in this country, operated a fleet of fishing boats in what was known as "Barney's Cove," in the lee of the Palos Verdes Hills. Here the fishermen had a shanty perched atop a cliff and hauled their catches to market in San Pedro with a horse and wagon. "Shorty's Cove," inhabited by John (Shorty) Gabbelson, another fisherman, was a short distance south of them and these were the only habitations. All three could recite many an epic of the time when men were made of iron and ships of wood.

Pearson had been active in fishing until seized with the illness about six months ago, which caused his death.

Brothers Will Meet After Fifty Years

COSTA MESA, Nov. 20.—Two brothers, long lost to each other, will meet within a few days after a separation of fifty years. William Snook of Nevada county is coming here to the home of Frank Snook so that the boys may clasp hands again.

Back in Chillicothe, Mo., two boys, William, 14 years of age, and Frank, 12, bade good-by when the home was broken up. As the years passed Frank wanted more than ever to see the brother with whom he used to play. He appealed to Charles E. Dunn for aid, stating that he believed William had served in the Spanish-American War. Congressmen Phil Swing and others were called on for assistance, which resulted in the finding of a long-lost pal.

MRS. HELEN HOBSON DIES

VENTURA, Nov. 20.—Mrs. Helen B. Hobson, widow of A. L. Hobson, pioneer Ventura meat packer, rancher and oil developer, died today at San Diego. A heart attack with which she was stricken some days ago at the Park Manor Hotel in that city, where she had been visiting friends, reached an aggravated stage and caused death.

DESERT PLAY IN FINAL SCENES

Throng Expected to See "Tahquitz"

Romantic Scene From Open-Air Drama

James Bush and Edna Bell in roles of aboriginal lovers in "Tahquitz," desert play to be given final performance of season tomorrow and Sunday at Palm Springs.

PALM SPRINGS, Nov. 20.—Since preliminary reservations indicate a record throng of visitors from Los Angeles and other population centers, preparations are being made to accommodate a great throng here at the final performances of the 1930 desert play, "Tahquitz," scheduled for Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

The reservations include several large parties from Hollywood and other localities, and promise of ideal weather conditions for the scenic tour to this desert resort is expected to augment the throngs of visitors by private automobile and motor bus excursion.

The spectacular open-air drama, directed by Phil Whiting, presents Wallace MacDonald, widely known film star, and Dolores Brown, screen and stage ingenue, in the leading romantic roles, supported by a cast of 100, including many prominent thespians of both the footlights and the silver sheet.

MacDonald scored a hit with his rendition of "The Desert Rose," new waltz song written specially for the production, at opening performances last week-end.

James Bush and Edna Bell are well-known Hollywood players in the cast.

Bones in Sand of Desert Not Boy, but Woman

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 20.—Bones found near Hesperia on the Mojave Desert yesterday by a trapper were pronounced tonight by Dr. S. B. Richards, superintendent of the County Hospital, as those of a woman between 20 and 30 years of age. It was first thought the bones were those of a boy, possibly a Northcott victim.

Examination of the bones at the hospital today showed the woman probably died of a skull fracture. A portion of the skull was missing, apparently where she had been struck. Dr. Richards declared the murder to be one or two years old, little remaining of the victim except bones.

Deputy sheriffs found old automobile tracks where the body had lain and the theory is that the woman was slain elsewhere and her remains carried to the isolated spot and thrown out. Only clews to identification are a leather belt and a buckle. Portions of khaki trousers and a skirt also were found.

Southern California officers will be asked to check records of all missing women during the past two years.

INHALATOR SQUAD BY SPEED SAVES LIFE

SOUTH GATE, Nov. 20.—Quick work of the inhalator squad of the South Gate Fire Department saved the life of Hugh Stulz, 59 years of age, when he was found nearly asphyxiated in his garage. The firemen used the resuscitator for four-minute periods, until he was again able to breathe, and in twenty minutes he was pronounced out of danger. He had been working in the garage under his car with the motor running. One door of the building was open. Nevertheless, he soon lost consciousness, and when found was near death. The call was sent into the fire department immediately after Stulz was found lying on the floor unconscious.

CIVIC BODIES AT VAN NUYS MERGE

VAN NUYS, Nov. 20.—The Van Nuys Chamber of Commerce and the Van Nuys Business Men's Association have merged and hereafter will be conducted as one body under the name Chamber of Commerce, with a credit bureau functioning as a separate department. The new board of directors will consist of twenty-nine men selected by ballot of all members. The merger was made in effort to obtain better economic administration and because it is believed better civic results may be obtained through the endeavors of one organization than through the operations of two.

FOOTBALL PLAYER IN HOSPITAL

Charles Camerino May Lose Arm as Result of Infection After Injury

VENTURA, Nov. 20. — Charles Camerino, young Ventura high-school athlete who suffered a double fracture of one arm in a football game here Saturday, was reported in a critical condition at Big Sisters' Hospital today because of the spread of an infection which followed the injury.

Gangrene set in soon after the mishap where one of the bones had pierced through the skin. Amputation of the arm was considered today, but doctors in attendance said the youth was too weak to stand the operation.

Camerino was hurt in the Ventura-Santa Barbara "bee" game.

Motorist Held Blameless in Death of Man

SAN GABRIEL, Nov. 20.—Returning a verdict of accidental death, a Coroner's jury this afternoon exonerated Richard A. Doan of Alhambra, driver of a car which struck and killed Charles J. Horne, 55 years of age, of Los Angeles, Tuesday night.

The accident happened on Las Tunas Drive near the San Gabriel Club where Horne had been employed as a waiter. He was hit near the center of the street as he was apparently hurrying toward a car stop. Doan testified that he did not see the man before the impact.

Police Chief A. E. Manzer of San Gabriel told of his investigation which showed that Horne was struck ten feet from the safety zone.

The inquest was conducted by Deputy Coroner J. Pierce Kane at the Dubois funeral home. Horne leaves a son, Herbert, of Santa Barbara, who identified the body. He is also believed to have had a wife living in San Francisco.

GYRO CLUBS WILL MEET IN CONVENTION

LONG BEACH, Nov. 20.—Members of Gyro clubs from California cities will convene here tomorrow for a two-day district convention with District Governor Vernon W. Lilley of Long Beach presiding. Delegates will represent clubs at Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, San Diego, Pasadena and Long Beach. A stunt luncheon Saturday noon at the Breakers Hotel will be a feature of the convention.

TROJANS WILL REORGAN

Ventura County Alumni of U.S.C. in M Santa Paula Gather at Football Banquet

SANTA PAULA, Nov. 20.—Reorganiza Trojan Club into one strong group, instead east and west ends of the county, was a former students and alumni of the Univers a giant football banquet held last night at at Saticoy.

Charles Wright, instructor at the Santa Paula High School, was elected chairman of a committee to arrange for reorganizing the county-wide Trojan Club, which has been inactive since the St. Francis Dam disaster. Coach Howard Jones, who was to be the principal speaker at the meeting, could not be present because of illness.

However, Sam Barry, assistant football coach and coach of the Pacific Coast Conference cham-

OIL OPERATORS TO BE PUNISHED

First Shot Fired in War on Abandonment of Wells

C. A. Kierluff and A. B. Jenks Get Three Years

Sentence Suspended to Give Time to Plug Properly

BAKERSFIELD, Nov. 20. (Exclusive)—First shot in a war on oil operators who abandon wells in a manner that spells ruination for the oil fields of Kern county rang through the oil industry of the West today with announcement that two officials of the North American Consolidated Oil Company have been sentenced to three years each in Kern County Jail and two oil-well contractors are facing charges that may bring similar terms.

The drastic sentences imposed on the oil company officials, Charles A. Kierluff and A. B. Jenks, in the seventh township court of Judge Henry C. Whittekin at Taft, are being suspended to allow them a reasonable length of time to repair any wells abandoned by them during the year 1930, but the action is calculated to strike terror to the hearts of any other operations illegally abandoning wells.

It is the first time in the history of Kern that oil operators have been prosecuted on this count, according to R. D. Bush, State supervisor of the Division of Oil and Gas, who, with his assistant, H. E. Musser, chief deputy in the Midway division for the oil and gas department, has launched the war to prevent irreparable damaging of Kern oil fields. In their investigations the State officials had the assistance of A. B. Pyles, district manager of the Pyles National Detective Agency.

Facing charges similar to those on which Jenks and Kierluff were sentenced are Cecil Owens and Gil Applegate, contractors, asserted to have handled the work of abandoning the North American wells that led to the investigation. Both contractors surrendered to Judge Whittekin and are at liberty under bail of $2000 each.

"The oil fields of Kern county would be producing nothing but water within a few years if the operations of which the defendants are admittedly guilty were allowed to continue," Supervisor Bush declared.

"Failure to plug properly the abandoned wells is allowing huge quantities of water to pour down into the oil strstas and to ruin all surrounding wells."

New Fast Liner Will Be Built

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—The keel of a 30,000 ton ocean liner for North Atlantic service will be laid at Camden, N. J., December 4, the United States Lines said today.

When completed the vessel will be a five-day boat on the London run. A similar ship will be started next June. They will be 705 feet long, and will have capacity of about 1300 passengers. Their building will employ about 1000 men.

BALL PLAYER DIES

ELY (Nev.) Nov. 20. (AP)—John "Lefty" Russell, former pitcher for the Brooklyn Robins, died here today from a heart attack. He was born in San Mateo, Cal.

Mother and Son Mysteriously Gone

John Dale Payne, Jr., and Mrs. Marion Payne

MOTHER AND SON HUNTED BY FATHER

Kidnaping Warrant for Missing ex-Convict Issued at Santa Maria

SANTA MARIA, Nov. 20. (Exclusive)—A State-wide search for a young mother, her 6-year-old son and an ex-convict, Jesse R. Shoup was under way from here today when John D. Payne, prominent Santa Maria business man, told police that his wife and son, John, Jr., mysteriously disappeared the 10th inst., and have not been heard from since.

At the same time it was learned by authorities that Shoup, alias C. A. Worthington, an ex-convict from San Quentin and next door neighbor of the Paynes, disappeared the same day.

Chief of Police Baker expressed the belief that Shoup, 40 years of age, abducted Mrs. Payne and the child. A kidnaping warrant has been issued for the man.

Payne yesterday posted $250 reward for return of the boy, while Mrs. Payne's father in San Francisco is understood to have posted a like reward for information leading to his daughter.

Radio Return of 'Dead' Husband Inspires Suit

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—A "dead" husband has come back over the radio to haunt Mrs. Mary Mulholland and mate No. 2.

John T. Mulholland told the court yesterday in his suit to have the marriage annulled that he wed Mrs. Mulholland in 1917 with the understanding that her first husband, Frederick (Spider) Tillman, Jr., had departed.

But when a radio speaker from the Doyer-street mission was announced as "Spider" Tillman, Mulholland said, "I noticed my wife's facial expression undergo a complete change." Subsequent interviews with Tillman revealed him as the missing spouse, he said.

RICHARD BENNETT HAS RUB WITH FIRE

SAN JOSE, Nov. 20. (Exclusive) Richard Bennett, actor who has been convalescing from a nervous breakdown at the home of his father-in-law, H. A. Raisch, near here, is recuperating tonight from the effects of a fire occurring late yesterday afternoon. Flames broke out in a furnace flue, causing an almost overwhelming volume of smoke. Bennett was carried from the second floor to a sun parlor on the lawn by firemen. He suffered no ill effects beyond excitement.

GERMANY STIRRED BY BRITISH AFRICA PLAN

BERLIN, Nov. 20. (AP)—A meeting in protest against an asserted British plan to incorporate the former German East Africa into the British Colonial Empire was held tonight in the former Prussian House of Lords. Albert Hermann Schnee, former German Governor of the territory now administered by Great Britain under her East Africa mandate, presided. A similar meeting of protest was held at Bremen.

DETECTIVE STEPPING OUT SHOT BY WIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20. (Exclusive)—While 300 persons dined and danced at the Lido Cafe, Latin quarter resort, Mrs. Pauline Hayes, comely blond wife of Herbert Hayes, police detective, entered, confronted her husband at a table with friends, including other women, and shot him in the chest. He is seriously hurt and she is in jail on an open charge pending the outcome of his wound.

COTTON MEN PICK SELDON AS MANAGER

Co-operative Association's New Chief Will Maintain Offices at Bakersfield

BAKERSFIELD, Nov. 20. (Exclusive)—C. C. Selden, prominent cotton merchant for several years, has been named manager of the California Cotton Co-operative Association, and will make his headquarters in this city, it was announced today by J. W. Guiberson, president.

This announcement was made upon receipt of information that the appointment had been approved by the officers of the American Cotton Co-operative Association in New Orleans, with which the California association is affiliated.

Selden, who is regarded by cotton men as one of the most prominent men in the California cotton industry, has spent many years in the cotton business. For twenty years he operated in cotton in the central south, around Memphis, and came to California about ten years ago as California representative of the George H. McFadden Company. When the McFadden firm withdrew from California three years later, he remained in this State, and started operations as a merchant.

In addition to his wide acquaintance with the growers and the brokers, he is also widely known by mill operators.

Hundreds Hunt Iowa "Jungles" for Tarzan Ape

COUNCIL BLUFFS (Iowa) Nov. 20. (Exclusive)—With one big-game trapper from Colorado and hundreds of armed farmers in the dense bottomland thickets five miles south of here, a determined hunt is on to rid the countryside of an animal, believed to be a large ape, which has been repeatedly encountered in the last month.

O. Williams and J. Miller, farmers, are the latest persons to report coming face to face with the shaggy brute. Children are being escorted to rural schools by armed fathers.

Tracks in damp places through the thickets indicate that the animal may be an ape of the larger type. G. C. Bain, a trapper of wild animals, resident of Sapinero, Colo., entered the "jungle" today intending to put out feed and a trap line in a skilfully arranged effort to catch the beast.

Hold-Up Victim Killed by Bandit

OAKLAND, Nov. 20. (AP)—A man known only to police as Eradia was shot and killed by one of two bandits who afterward looted the cash register in the poolroom belonging to Victoriano Perez at Alvarado early today.

The man was attendant in the poolroom, which was entered shortly after midnight by the bandits, who were accompanied by a young woman. Pedro Aguillar, also working in the poolroom, witnessed the shooting and robbery. Police said he fled from the scene.

INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC RAMPANT IN POLAND

RISE OF CRIME HELD PERILOUS

No One Will Be Safe Ten Years From Now

Assemblyman Cline Speaks to Club Women

Federation Convention at Brawley Ends

BRAWLEY, Nov. 20. (AP)—Assemblyman Chester M. Cline told the delegates to the Southern District, California Federation of Women's Clubs' convention at its closing session here today that a rising wave of crime among the young is the most serious problem faced by the present generation.

Cline, of San Jacinto, said the present younger generation is worse than its predecessors, statistics show, and predicted unless organized women and law enforcement bodies take definite steps to curb crime, no one will be safe anywhere in ten years.

"There are waiting lists at the reformatories sixty deep," Cline said, "and California can't build penitentiaries big enough or fast enough. Our laws are 75 per cent obsolete and most of them work for the criminals."

Cline advised the women's clubs to support quicker justice and demand a higher standard in justice administrators.

Riverside's delegation won the competition for a Southern District song, while Laguna Beach bid for next year's convention. The executive board will decide on the convention city later.

Although the convention closed officially today, tomorrow will be given over to pleasure trips for the delegates. A trip will be taken along the proposed route of the all-American Canal and the Imperial Irrigation District headings on the Colorado River in Mexico will be visited.

MACNIDER ACCLAIMS DRAFT BILL

Measure to Conscript All Resources Declared Sure Cure for War

BURLINGTON (Vt.) Nov. 20. (AP) Col. Hanford Macnider, American Minister to Canada, termed the bill for mobilization of all the country's resources in time of war "the greatest peace measure of the men who fought the last war," in a speech at the annual local American Legion banquet here tonight.

He deplored that the measure "still lies before the Congress unpassed, waiting for the men who understand what it is all about."

"It whips in advance the men who would start an unjust or unjustified conflagration," Macnider continued. "It makes war so inclusive that no jingo would ever be able to make it popular. In short, it directs that, hereafter, all the nation's resources—capital, power, transportation, labor—will all go to war on the same basis as men's lives.

"When there is written into the law that no price or service in America shall rise because of national emergency, that no man shall evade his duty, that no resource of the nation or any individual within it shall remain aloof or in a favored position, then and then only shall we be able to say authoritatively what now we can only say in speeches on occasions like these—America not only wants peace, but America intends to have it."

SWEEPING RADIO QUIZ PROPOSED

Elimination of Unworthy Stations Recommended by Commission Chairman

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—Elimination of unworthy stations and a widespread investigation of the nation's broadcasting facilities were proposed today to the Radio Commission as a means of equalizing radio facilities among the States.

The proposals were submitted by Chairman Saltzman of the commission and by Commissioner Sykes. Both said the present set-up needs revision.

Saltzman said commission records show many violations of the prescribed regulations and he urged they be strictly enforced with a view to the gradual elimination of unworthy stations.

Sykes said an equalization of facilities is needed because of the change in population as shown by the 1930 census.

Upon receipt of the report Sykes said the next step should be a decision by the commission as to what stations are entitled to the facilities after which hearing will be held before final action.

VETERAN OF BATTLES TELLS FEAR OF WIFE

SPOKANE, Nov. 20. (AP)—Enoch Sears, 84 years of age, who fought through seventeen battles of the Civil War, is afraid of his wife, he said today in divorce court. "I don't believe it is safe for me to live with her," he said of Gertrude Sears, 61, whom he married in October, 1926, after a romance that flowered during the meeting of the G.A.R. and the Ladies' Auxiliary thereto. Mrs. Sears filed a counter-suit saying he turned the hose on her, was lax in supporting her, and had bought her only one pair of shoes since their wedding.

FIGURES THAT SPELL BETTER TIMES

Reports of Edison Company Show Business Conditions Improving

NEW BUSINESS connected to the lines of this Company during October, 1930, shows what happened last month.

In October, 28,397 horsepower of customers' connected load was added to Edison lines. In other words, people in this territory purchased and installed electrical motors, lights and appliances with a total capacity of 28,397 horsepower.

This figure, totaled for the ten months period, is 279,423 horsepower.

More than half of the October business (14,913 horsepower) is industrial, meaning that much additional activity in our factories and that much prospective new employment because each horsepower also means more man power.

Industrial new load for the ten months period is 145,205 horsepower.

6,597 horsepower of this new business in October comes from lighting. That means new building. Total lighting for the ten months is 56,684 horsepower.

6,887 horsepower of October new business comes from electric ranges. For the ten months, this figure is 77,534 horsepower. That shows purchasing power.

These figures are made public at this time because they reflect the sound judgment of people in this territory who have not been stampeded by rumors but are going ahead with their plans at a normal rate.

GRANGE MOVES TO AID FARMER

Session Urges Extension of Co-operative Plan

Resolution Scores Cheap Foreign Labor Goods

Organization Commends Farm Board Head

ROCHESTER (N. Y.) Nov. 20. (AP) Various resolutions for improving the economic condition of the farmer were adopted today by the National Grange, in session here. They included recommendations to bring about extension of the benefits of co-operative marketing, protection for the American agriculturist from the products of cheap foreign labor and a halt in the development of additional agricultural land.

Alexander Legge, chairman of the Federal board, is commended in one resolution for his "able and courageous defense of the right of agriculture against the criticisms and hostility of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

The Grange by resolution reiterated its position taken last year "respectfully requesting the Congress of the United States to grant, at the earliest possible time, independence to the Philippine Islands in order that legislation may be enacted which will prevent further immigration of their people to the United States."

DEMANDS PROTECTION

By adoption of the report of its committee on co-operation, the Grange asks "that agricultural products be given adequate protection from competition by products of cheap foreign labor until such time as the standards of living in competing countries shall become comparable to our own."

Another resolution asks government investigation be made to determine whether importations of foreign pulpwood have been detrimental to American agriculture and that Congress, if necessary, enact measures to provide relief.

The use of tobacco on the campus of any school or college supported by State tax is condemned; the Grange agreed to co-operate with other farm organizations in securing a national radio hook-up, and also urged encouragement be given to advertising and popularizing corn sugar.

COMMENDS LEGGE

In addition to the resolution commending Mr. Legge, the Grange gave further praise to the Farm Board in the report of its committee of co-operation headed by Walter F. Kirk of Ohio. It said: "We commend the Federal Farm Board for its efforts in encouraging and promoting farm-owned and directed commodity organizations with power to control distribution on a national basis."

BANK CRASH HELD DIXIE BOOM ECHO

Five in North Carolina Close Doors as Result of Real Estate Slump

ASHEVILLE (N. C.) Nov. 20. (AP)—With the real estate boom of a few years ago held responsible, the Central Bank and Trust Company here failed today, causing four other banks in Western North Carolina to close their doors and tying up total deposits of more than $22,000,000.

The closing of three other small banks was announced later in the day, but it was said there is no connection between their situation and the Central Bank and Trust Company's failure.

They are the Clay County Bank of Hayesville, the Bank of Leichester, Buncombe county, and the Bank of Lowell.

The other banks closing are the Biltmore-Oteen Bank of Biltmore, Asheville suburb; the First Bank and Trust Company, Hendersonville; the Citizens' National Bank, Hendersonville, and the American Bank and Trust Company, Hendersonville.

ILLINOIS FAILURE HAS MISSOURI SEQUEL

JEFFERSON CITY (Mo.) Nov. 20. (AP)—The Hannibal Trust Company of Hannibal, Mo., with total resources of $1,523,720, was closed today by its directors, the State Finance Department announced. Heavy withdrawals as a result of the recent bank closings in Quincy, Ill., across the river from Hannibal, were given as the cause.

FOUR BANKS CLOSE IN LOUISVILLE AREA

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) Nov. 20. (AP)—Two Louisville banks were closed today and two just across the Ohio River at New Albany, Ind., as a result of financial difficulties following Monday's closing of the $54,000,000 National Bank of Kentucky.

The total of Kentucky banks closed was brought to thirteen; the banks closing today are the Liberty State Bank and the American Bank and Trust Company, both of New Albany, and two in Louisville, the Bankers' Trust Company and Union Central.

WOMAN HUNTRESS AND LECTURER DIES

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 20. (AP)—An illness contracted while traveling in Switzerland several years ago has caused the death of Dr. Cora Johnstone Best, lecturer, mountain climber and huntress. Dr. Best, 38 years of age, died yesterday at her home. In 1924 she set a record by climbing Mount Robson, highest peak in the Canadian Rockies, in fourteen hours. The next year she and a companion, Aubrey F. Shippman, successfully negotiated a dangerous 200-mile canoe trip around the big bend of the Columbia River.

PORT MANAGER NAMED

STOCKTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—Col. B. C. Allin, director of the Port of Houston, Tex., today was appointed to the position of port manager here. His salary will be $10,000 a year, effective January 1.

Wet Gains Stir Drys, Chief Says

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—Members of the Anti-Saloon League heard Dr. F. Scott McBride, the organization's superintendent, declare today wet gains in the recent election should serve only to awaken them to the need for aggressive warfare against the liquor traffic.

"But no wet wabbler or dry denier was successful," Dr. McBride told league gatherings here. "You can page Ruth McCormick to find out what it means to run dry in a primary campaign and then wabble in the general election."

BAY CITY CHAMBER ELECTS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20. (Exclusive)—George J. Presley, attorney and former athletic coach at Stanford University, was elected head of the Chamber of Commerce today with the title of vice-president and the authority of general manager.

FIVE-AND-TEN PIONEER DIES

Charlton, Woolworth Chain Official, Expires in East

WEST PORT HARBOR (Mass.) Nov. 20. (AP)—Earle Perry Charlton, vice-president of the F. W. Woolworth Company and a member of the board of directors of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, died here tonight. He was 67 years of age.

Charlton was one of the pioneer 5-and-10-cent store merchants in this country, starting his career at the age of 17 at a salary of $7 a week.

Later he opened up a chain of 5-and-10-cent stores, fifty-four in number, nineteen of them being in New England and the remainder on the Pacific Coast, where he was the first to introduce the low-cost stores.

In 1912 the Charlton Stores were combined with the F. W. Woolworth stores and he became vice-president of the new company.

BOOM'S END BOON TO BOOBS

Stock Crash Prevented Rich Americans From Paying $500,000 for Necklace, Letters Indicate

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—Letters purporting to show that a plan to sell a Napoleon necklace for $500,000 to one of several "rich American boobs" was halted by the Wall-street crash were introduced today at the trial of Archduke Leopold of Hapsburg.

The Archduke was indicted with Col. Charles L. Townsend and Townsend's wife, the Baroness Baronti, on charges of grand larceny in the asserted unauthorized sale of the necklace for only $60,000. The heirloom was owned by Leopold's aunt, Archduchess Marie Therese.

The Townsends have not been apprehended. A letter introduced as evidence today dated January 18, last, and bearing Townsend's signature, said: "Had we received the necklace before the crash one of five boobs would have paid for it, but they . . . have been wiped out in the crash." The letter was writen to a Viennese jeweler.

In one of Baroness Baronti's asserted letters a "Gen. Du Pont" was mentioned as a prospective buyer.

Baroness Eisenmenger, the Archduchess' personal representative, under questioning by the prosecutor, said Leopold is both a Hapsburg and an Archduke, but not a nephew of Marie Therese. She declared his reputation for honesty in Austria is "bad."

CHURCH FIXES BUDGET

CHICAGO, Nov. 20. (AP)—A budget of $12,000,000 has been adopted for the benevolent activities of the Presbyterian Church for the year beginning April, 1931. The figure, decided upon yesterdaly by the church's general council, is the same as for the current fiscal year.

HEALY BANKING DATA STUDIED

Tammany Leader's Wife's Deposits Enter Quiz

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—Bank accounts of Mrs. Martin J. Healy, wife of the Tammany district leader who is on trial along with Thomas T. Tommaney, charged with barter of a judicial appointment, today were introduced in evidence.

The accounts, showing deposits of several thousand dollars during the spring of 1927, were introduced, the State said, to show that when Healy borrowed $10,000 from Mrs. George F. Ewald he and his wife had ample funds of their own.

The indictment on which Healy and Tommaney are being tried charges that this loan was in reality a payment by Mrs. Ewald for their support of her husband for the post of City Magistrate.

Honolulu Flood Cost Nine Lives

HONOLULU, Nov. 20. (AP)—This city today counted her dead as nine, with two Japanese children missing, as a result of the rain flood which plunged through Northern Honolulu and environs Tuesday night.

Traffic into Honolulu has been resumed over repaired bridges and workmen are busy restoring numerous houses to their foundations.

PRESIDENT KILLS SELF WHEN BANK CLOSES

HORSE CAVE (Ky.) Nov. 20. (AP)—Worry over the condition of his bank is believed to have caused William Virgil Bell, 55 years of age, to hang himself yesterday. Bell was president of the First National Bank here, which closed Monday. His body was found in a barn behind his residence. A Coroner's jury returned a verdict of suicide.

CHICKEN THIEF TO CALL AGAIN

Note Tied to Lone Rooster Left in Coop Contains Promise to Return

SUTTON (W. Va.) Nov. 20. (AP)—There's a chicken thief hereabouts who didn't do a 100 per cent job, but left assurance he will.

When Mrs. Thomas Terrine went to her henhouse she discovered a thief had made away with all her chickens except an old rooster.

Around the rooster's neck was tied a note. It read:

AID IN DROUGHT STATES SOUGHT

Congress to Be Asked Road Fund of $50,000,000

Loans for Seed and Feed Advocated at Parley

National Committee Reports on Relief Plans

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—Resolutions urging the next Congress to appropriate $50,000,000 for highway construction in drought States and to authorize loans for seed, fertilizer and live-stock feed were adopted tonight by representatives of more than a score of State drought relief committees and the National Drought Committee.

The highway resolution called upon Congress to appropriate the $50,000,000 without requiring the States to match the fund dollar for dollar at the time the distribution is made.

The portion to be borne by the State would be repaid to the government by an annual deduction from the normal Federal road appropriation over a period of ten years.

Earlier in the day the delegates to the drought conference received word from Dr. C. W. Warburton, secretary of the national committee, that Congress will be asked to make the $125,000,000 allotted for Federal aid in road construction in 1932 available immediately on enactment of the Agriculture Department's supply bill.

The conference also urged liberal contributions to the American Red Cross to enable that organization to meet the relief problems in more than 1000 drought-stricken counties.

Another resolution requests the Secretary of Agriculture to ask Congress to relieve the counties of their share in the cost of maintaining county agents to June 30, 1932.

The conference expressed its appreciation to the railroads for their very substantial contribution to the drought relief work by reducing freight rates on hay and feed into drought areas and live stock out of these sections.

FORD ENACTS ROLE AS PATRON OF ART

DETROIT, Nov. 20. (AP)—Henry Ford played the role of a Maesenas to Beatrice Griffin, young Detroit violinist, who made her debut tonight in Orchestra Hall.

Learning from Ossip Gabrilowitsch, conductor of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, that Miss Griffin needed a good violin for her first appearance as a soloist with the orchestra, Mr. Ford offered the loan of an instrument from his collection. One of Ford's secretaries called on Miss Griffin, taking two rare violins, one a Stradivarius, dated 1709, the other a Gagliano, dated 1740.

Gabrilowitsch had offered a guarantee for the safe return of the violins, but Ford said, "it won't be at all necessary."

Miss Griffin's debut with the symphony orchestra tonight was a sensational success.

CALIFORNIA COUPLE RECEIVED BY POPE

VATICAN CITY, Nov. 28. (AP)—E. Raymond Armsby and his sister, Cornelia Armsby of Burlingame, Cal., were received in audience by Pope Pius today. The Pontiff imparted the apostolic blessing on the entire family, which is prominent in California and New York social and banking circles.

MEXICAN SHIP BILL SIGNED

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 20. (AP)—The President today signed a bill granting a subsidy to ship yards building ships for a Mexican merchant fleet.

ITALY TO TRAIN BOYS ON SUNDAY

Special Military Tactics Provided in Bill

Il Duce and Aides Indorse New Help for Mars

Regular Conscription Will Also Be in Effect

ROME, Nov. 20. (AP)—Italian youths who have attained the age of 18 years will soon have to devote every Sunday morning for eighteen months to learning the rudiments of soldiering. The Council of Ministers, with Premier Mussolini presiding and approving, today indorsed a bill to this effect presented by Gen. Pietro Gazzera, Minister of War.

This premilitary training will serve as a preliminary to the regular eighteen months' conscript service each youth is called on to give on reaching the age of 20.

Conversion of the bill into the law by the Fascist Chamber of Deputies and the Senate is taken as a foregone conclusion.

The effect of the bill will be to give Italy's conscript army a class of recruits each year that will not have to be taught the elementary details of military training.

Hitherto premilitary training in Italy has been confined to the Fascist Avanguardia and Balilla organizations, membership in which is voluntary.

BILL-PAYING SAVES FOR WAR DEPARTMENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—It pays, the War Department has found, to pay bills promptly. A saving of $374,268 during the year in discounts allowed for prompt remittance, was remarked in the annual report today of Maj.-Gen. Carmichael, chief of finance. He said that brought savings of this kind for the past ten years up to $3,111,203.

ORGANIZED DRYS PLAN SESSIONS

Agencies to Hold Conference Near Nation's Capitol

Temperance Council Also to Meet Next Month

Methodist Board Schedules Washington Parley

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—The plans of organized dry forces to act for an immediate tightening of their machinery, and for holding a series of joint meetings here in coming weeks, became known today.

Dry leaders here made known that "lengthy private conferences" already have been held in various cities between business men and representatives of dry organizations.

On December 10, shortly after the coming session of Congress has gotten under way, a general conference of organizations supporting the Eighteenth Amendment will be held near the Capitol itself. Also it is planned to hold a national temperance council, composed of individuals favoring prohibition, on December 9 and 10. In addition the Methodist Board of Temperance will hold a meeting at about the same time.

HUNTINGTON PALISADES

COMEDY RARE IN "MIN AND BILL"

Uproarious Effects Capture Carthay Audience

Marie Dressler's Portrayal Great in High Lights

Wallace Beery, Rambeau and Others Praised

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT

All precedents for swagger entertainment of the Wilshire sector fell by the wayside last evening. "Min and Bill"—the title is amazing enough—came to the Carthay Circle Theater, blazoning the names of Marie Dressler and Wallace Beery in the sparkling lights. Without spectacle, without the usual effulgence of youth and beauty in the stellar roles, and resorting occasionally even to rough-and-tumble comedy, this feature costarring two character actors apparently proved the height of delectable enjoyment for its premiere audience, and conjured also the spell of pathos.

George Hill directed this production for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer with scenario and dialogue by Frances Marion and Marion Jackson. The note is also made on the opening title that it was suggested by the book, "Dark Star," written by Lorna Moon, though there is little similarity to that original.

"Min and Bill" is a commingling of strange, rough and yet often vigorous values of sentiment and drama, as well as slapstick mirth. A runaway speed boat, and a fight between the two title personages that rivals a Donnybrook Fair at its wildest, furnish the exceptional peaks of comedy, and say what you will of the means used the end justifies them in the seeming great hilarity. The picture as a whole is boldly, as well as cleverly, done.

I venture to say that "Min and Bill" will prove sensationally popular over the entire country. In the present locale of the showing it would at first seem almost too violent a variation from what has gone before, considering that a suave and polished "Holiday" was a great success at the Carthay Circle but a month or so ago. But, then, after all, variety is perhaps the paprika of existence, and one can see where this film, even in the intelligenzia circle, will evoke high merriment, and also cause those heart throbs that are the thrill of the matinee audience.

Unmistakably fine are the leading characterizations. Marie Dressler in the single scene where she reads the letter from the young girl, whom she had guarded, and then surrendered to a better association, does a piece of work that merits immortality. You may well watch for this, as it is the summit of artistry.

There are other parts of the film, too, where Miss Dressler's work rings so true that it is veritably life that you are looking at There are some, perhaps, where a shade too much pathos or sentiment are expressed, and that run to the old hokum, but they can largely be overlooked for the reality of her portrayal as a whole.

Wallace Beery, as a good-souled rascal, almost matches the Dressler portrayal in an impersonation that equals the best that he gave in the silent days. That is saying a great deal in its favor. Unqualifiedly, Bill is his most convincing talkie portrayal, rich in humor especially, and most rich when Wally is into mischief.

These two players are afforded a great latitude, but the old feeling of friendliness will go out strongly to Marjorie Rambeau, for the quality that she exhibits in her interpretation of a half-repulsive lady of the streets, who is the picture's chief menace. Experience shows in every facet of this colorful characterization which is raised above the sordid level that it could easily slump into.

Mainly, though, the plot lets Miss Dressler and Beery ramble, and these two troupers seldom fail to imbue the situations with their humanness and deviltry. I would give crdit to the restraint with which the character of the woman is drawn, and the fact that the picture never bids too obviously for the tear.

The story reminds one of that portion of "Stella Dallas" where the mother forces her daughter away from her. Indeed, it embodies virtually the same sort of sacrifice, but the environment and the details of the action are entirely different. And the water-front background is highly romantic.

OAKIE AND CONFRERES GO TO SEA

Comics Join and Disrupt Mythical Navy in Farce at Paramount

Take a mythical navy, place in it Jack Oakie, Eugene Pallette, Harry Green, and throw in some of George Marion, Jr.'s, wise-cracking dialogue. Stir the mixture thoroughly and the result is "Sea Legs," the current film at the Paramount Theater.

A mythical navy should by all means have music, and so there is a song by Mr. Oakie and his running mate, Lillian Roth. It's rather a catchy tune but it seems lonesome for others which are not forthcoming.

The patron who drops in at the Paramount this week should not expect an iota of seriousness to crop out in the current entertainment. There are wisecracks and still more wisecracks, some funny, some mediocre and some not up to either Marion, Jr., or Oakie's previous standard.

An early mix-up in persons and names starts the story off, with Oakie as Searchlight Doyle assuming the name of O'Brien, a lad who inherits a million if he spends a year in the navy. O'Brien falls in love with the captain's daughter in between scenes of a good old-fashioned slapstick pie fight and dodging an officer who metes out punishment with each breath.

One of the most humorous touches in the picture is the screen name of Eugene Pallette, namely Hyacinth Nitouche. Oakie's line, when Pallette gives his name, "You go too far," is also a highlight. And the subtitles by Marion, Jr., strike a funnybone in the audience here and there.

The combined efforts of Oakie, Pallette, Green, et al, in the film are centered around the difficult task of getting laughs. The dialogue is so saturated with broad humor that the audiences gives up after the initial reels. Anticipation exceeds realization in the antics of the comedians.

The supporting cast is made up of Jean Del Val, Albert Conti, Andre Cheron, Charles Sellon and Tom Rickett. Victor Heerman directed from Marion's story.

The new stage presentation at the Paramount is called "Ole Virginny," which is self-explanatory. Slim Timblin and company are featured. Pauline Gaskins, the California Crooners and the Mary Read Tiller girls are included in the show produced by Louis McDermott. It's better than usual.

RODZINSKI WINS OVATION

Popular Director and Orchestra Score With Varied and Interesting Program at Philharmonic

BY ISABEL MORSE JONES

Another Rodzinski success was scored at last night's symphony concert. The Skriabyn, or Scriabin, if you prefer, "Divine Poem," proved to be a presentation of masterly conducting. Sophie Braslau sang a program of three major songs for contralto and orchestra and the concert began with Goldmark's "In Springtime" and ended with "The Pines of Rome" by Respighi. It was too long a list but so full of interest that its length was forgotten.

The "Divine Poem," or the third symphony, by Scriabin, should always be played by an orchestra with a "golden tone," such as the Philharmonic of Los Angeles gave forth last night. Silken brass and flowing wood winds blended with the fine essence of strong string sound. Dr. Rodzinski carried his orchestra to heights of passionate ardor, inspiring the players to a realization of the ecstasy of Scriabin's poem and to communicate its beauty to the least imaginative listener.

The work would bear cutting, just as the works of Wagner fare better in this modern day of impatience, if shortened. But there is so much that is uplifhting, so much that is uplifhting, so much that is rightly compelling in it that it is undeniably worth the tremendous effort which Dr. Rodz inski has put into it. There was a genuine ovation for the conductor and the orchestra with especial approval for Sylvain Noack, who played the soli admirably.

Miss Braslau has sung frequently with the Los Angeles Philharmonic and always impresses her hearers with the warmth of her temperament and her vivid imagination. Singing a rae old cantata by Bassani and following it with the Brahms "Zigeunerlieder," Miss Braslau created interesting contrast. The Rachmaninoff "Fate" which she sang here a year or two ago proved the most successful with her audience, partly because the fate theme of Beethoven's fifth symphony upon whic hit is based, is familiar and also because in it the marked dramatic abilit yof the singer is given opportunity. Miss Braslau's intelligence illumines her singing and compensates somewhat for the labored utterance and the limited carrying quality of her voice.

The Goldmark number, "In Springtime," was a good opening number if the intention was to concentrate the attention of the audience. Unfortunately there was little reward for the attention because Goldmark did not apparently have much to say at this time last night and it was said rather noisily.

"The Pines of Rome" was effectively interpreted and it is becoming a favorite with Southern California audiences.

The program is to be repeated this afternoon.

MELODRAMA OF ALASKA UNREELED

"Silver Horde," by Rex Beach, Enacted by Cast of Competent Players

BY MURIEL BABCOCK

That old meanie, the salmon, plays the leading role in "The Silver Horde," which yesterday arrived at the R.-K.-O. Theater with a smart cast of skillful film players, several reels of Alaskan scenery, a good old-fashioned fist fight, and other feature-length film accessories.

"The Silver Horde," in case you are interested (for the title has a most intriguing sound,) is applied to the droves of glistening salmon which annually make their way up river in Alaska for the purpose of spawning. Rex Beach, the novelist, found this annual drama so interesting that he wove a story about it and the competition of men to catch the fish and put them into cans for consumption in the big cities.

Radio Pictures thought the novel would make a good picture. So they chose Evelyn Brent, Louis Wolheim, Joel McCrea, Raymond Hatton, Jean Arthur, Gavin Gordon, Blanche Sweet and some others to enact it under the direction of George Archainbaud.

The result is a pretty fair picture, which at times rises to suspenseful heights and at other moments drops below par. It seems as if there is too much in it to achieve a smoothly flowing, unified whole with punch.

I liked the part that showed the big fishery and cannery under construction, and the salmon rush (if I use my terms correctly.) I liked the dramatic scene where Evelyn Brent, wrathful at a snip of a girl passing out insults, rose to her full stature and snarled, "I am Cherry Malotte. My name is known from Nome to Seattle . . ." She gave an all-around good performance. Sometimes Wolheim and Hatton, as the comedy relief, were hilariously funny. Wolheim, particularly, made everything he did count. Jean Arthur, in an unsympathetic characterization, was good. And there was an excellent, if brief, portrait of a fading dance-hall beauty by Blanche Sweet. There is somebody who knows what it's all about.

Joel McCrea, a big, good-looking lad, appeared in the leading male role and was entirely acceptable in this straight part. He put on a realistic fist fight with Ivan Linow which some people will like. For my part, I couldn't see rhyme or reason for it. William Davidson and Purnell Pratt were others of the cast. Wallace Smith is given credit for the screen play.

The big shot of the week's vaudeville program is Jack Osterman, billed as "Broadway's Playboy" direct from the Palace, New York, to entertain the local variety fans.

Youthful Actor Makes Bid for Film Stardom

Making a bid for stardom in the male lead of "Her Man," opening tomorrow at the Orpheum Theater, is Phillips Holmes, who has stated that a few months ago he had no screen aspirations whatever.

At that time young Holmes was a student at Princeton. He met Director Frank Tuttle and the latter insisted that he take a film test. As a result, he was given the part of Buddy Rogers's room-mate in "Varsity" and signed on a contract.

Holmes later was featured in "Devil's Holiday," and it was this role which caused Tay Garnett, who directed "Her Man," to choose him for the part.

In "Her Man," Holmes plays opposite Helen Twelvetrees, who portrays Frankie, a cabaret coquette. Marjorie Rambeau has the chief character role.

'Sunny' Starts on Two Warner Screens Today

Today both Warner Brothers Downtown and Hollywood theaters will screen Marilyn Miller's latest starring vehicle, "Sunny." Joe Donahue, Lawrence Gray, O. P. Heggie, Barbara Bedford and MacKenzie Ward are in the supporting cast.

William Seiter directed the First National production.

Latin Pictures Open Runs Here

Paramount's Spanish comedy-drama, "Dona Mentiras," produced at the Paris studios of the company, heads the double program at the International California Theater for the week beginning today. The film features a cast of Madrid players, including Carmen Larrabeiti, Carmen Moragas, Felix De Pomes and others.

The other attraction is Hal Roach's Spanish comedy entitled "Una Cana Al Aire," starring Charley Chase. Carmen Guerrerro and Carmen Granada appear in support.

WARNERS BUY SCRIBE'S STORY

Griffith Says Broadway Plays Not Fit for the Screen; Wallis, Back Home, Admits Getting Foreign Stories; Buddy Rogers and Mitzi Green Return

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

It is with pride that we have to announce that newspaper men are making good, more than ever, as writers of plays. Indeed Warner Brothers have just bought a story from a third journalistic writer, this being in response to the word sent out a few weeks ago soliciting stories written by newspaper men.

EVELYN KNAPP

The new yarn is called "Out in a Fog," and the budding writer is Eldon Ottenheimer of the Tacoma Ledger.

Evalyn Knapp is scheduled for the leading feminine role, but no other players have been cast.

GRIFFITH SCORES BROADWAY PLAYS

New York plays now being staged are not clean enough to serve as screen vehicles, declares D. W. Griffith.

D.W. GRIFFITH

Griffith, now in New York looking over the dramas with a view of securing one as the basis of his next United Artists' picture, and who is basking in the glory of his recently released "Abraham Lincoln," has written that he cannot find a single play on Broadway that is not too spicy to put on the screen. So he is still all at sea as to what his next story will be.

In the meantime the director has entirely recovered his health, having spent several weeks in the Adirondacks recuperating from a nervous condition following his work on the Lincoln film.

Paramount Players Home

Buddy Rogers and Mitzi Green are returning to Hollywood. Not together, however.

Buddy and his mother arrived in New York yesterday from Europe on the Ile De France, following a two months' sojourn abroad. The Paramount star is to remain in the East a few weeks in order to make personal appearances at various theaters in the larger cities. A wire received at the studio from Buddy last night informed officials that he was returning two weeks before his scheduled time.

Mitzi Green will arrive in Hollywood today, following a personal appearance trip in the East.

The little actress was most warmly received everywhere, and when she comes home will be informed that she is to appear in one of the most exacting roles ever given a little girl to play, namely, the character comedy role as the daughter of Leon Errol in "The Haddocks," from Donald Ogden Stuart's book concerning the travels of a family.

Travelers Return

Those latest world gadabouts, Hal Wallis, First National executive, and his wife, Louise Fazenda, comedy star, have returned from their trip abroad. They visited France, England, Germany and Holland.

LOUISE FAZENDA

Wallis dusted off his roll-top desk yesterday, and went to work at First National studios, while Miss Fazenda put on the greasepaint and hopped into a Larry Darmour comedy.

The executive admitted that he had purchased a couple of plays and a couple of stories while abroad, and said that announcements of titles will be forthcoming in a few days.

He said that the first German version of a Warner picture, "Those Who Dance," had just arrived in Berlin when he and Miss Fazenda got there, and that it had been previewed and been received with great acclaim. He said that foreign companies are all engaged in making talking pictures and that theaters are rapidly being wired.

Concerning Murnau's Film

Current talk around Hollywood is to the effect that F. W. Murnau's film which the noted director made in the South Seas is to be released by Fox. The picture has been reported as a smash. The director recently returned from the long location trip.

CONTRACT ADDS TO OIL PROFITS

Rio Grande Official Tells Gas Sale Income

Southern Counties Company Takes Elwood Output

Barnsdall Shares Equally in Ten-Year Project

Under the ten-year contract recently signed by Rio Grande Oil Company and Barnsdall Corporation with the Southern Counties Gas Company, a subsidiary of Pacific Lighting Corporation, calling for the delivery of Elwood dry natural gas starting the 14th inst., the two oil companies jointly are assured a minimum of $775,000 during the first three years of the contract, L. M. Lockhart, vice-president of the Rio Grande company, stated yesterday.

Mr. Lockhart estimated the maximum total that may be derived from the gas contract for the first three years at $1,750,000. The two oil companies share equally in the receipts.

The volume of gas to be delivered varies during the first three years from a minimum of approximately 2,590,000,000 cubic feet the first year to 3,178,000,000 the second year and 3,626,000,000 cubic feet the third year and throughout the remainder of the life of the ten-year contract.

At present the gas company is taking the entire gas output which is about 35,000,000 cubic feet daily, Mr. Lockhart said. With a decline indicated in the gas output of the Los Angeles basin fields, the Elwood gas production assumes an increasing importance, the oil executive said.

Under its arrangement with the Shell Oil Company to take the Rio Grande Elwood field surplus crude-oil production, Shell is receiving about 15,000 barrels daily, according to Mr. Lockhart, who explained the amount to be delivered was determined each month.

Rio Grande Oil is continuing expansion of its marketing outlets on a conservative basis through the establishment of its "Hustler" retail service stations in desirable locations, and is obtaining gratifying results, Mr. Lockhart said.

Bolsa Chica Oil Spurt Explained

Activity in the Bolsa Chica Oil Corporation stock on the Los Angeles Stock and Curb exchanges yesterday was attributed to favorable prospects for the company's well now drilling at 3626 feet at Coal Oil Point. At the offices of the company it was stated yesterday that, although oil sand had not been struck at this depth, it was expected a production test could be made around 3900 feet.

The company holds three tideland permits at Coal Oil Point totaling 276 acres and the permit on the acreage on which the initial well is being drilled covers 191 acres, officials of the company said.

Annual Report of Utility Out

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Commonwealth and Southern Corporation and subsidiaries reported today consolidated net income for twelve months ended October 31 of $29,228,611 after all charges, including taxes. No comparison is available for the preceding twelve months.

The net income is equivalent to 63 cents a share on 34,011,010 common shares outstanding after allowing for preferred dividends, including the corporation's preferred stock from April 1, 1930, and prior thereto on preferred stock of subsidiary holding companies which were eliminated by merger pursuant to the plan dated January 7, last.

Copper Price Status Shaky

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—Although the large producers are still holding the price of copper in the domestic market at 12 cents, delivered, it was reported in the trade today one producer had sold a small tonnage of the metal at 10½ cents, delivered.

The domestic price was increased to 12 cents late last week after the metal had held at 9½ cents for several weeks.

BORROWINGS OF BROKERS AT NEW LOW

Decrease of $50,000,000 for Week Marks Smallest Total in Five Years

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Loans to brokers and dealers held by the New York Federal Reserve member banks for the week ended the 19th inst. were announced by the Federal Reserve Board today at $2,185,000,000, representing a decrease of $50,000,000 compared with the preceding week. The loans for the week ending November 20, 1929, were $3,587,000,000.

Detailed distribution of the loans compared with the preceding week follows quoted in hundred thousands:

	Nov. 19.	Nov. 12.
For own account	1,292	1,335
For out-of-town banks	439	451
For account of others	455	449

Demand loans constituted $1,602,000,000 of the total against $1,643,000,000 a week ago. Time loans were $583,000,000, against $592,000,000 at the end of the preceding week.

Brokers' loans announced yesterday by the Federal Reserve Board at $2,185,000,000 as of the 17th inst. represents the lowest total since May, 1925. The decrease for the week is the eighth successive weekly drop, the total decline for the eight weeks aggregating $1,037,000,000, or a fall of more than 32 per cent from September 24 levels. The decrease from the record high of $6,804,000,000, marked October 1, 1929, is $4,619,000,000, or 67 per cent.

Security loans to members of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange were announced yesterday by the exchange at $14,913,954, as of the 17th inst., a decrease for the week of $1,906,843 and a new low figure for the year. The high total for the current year was established March 5 at $29,419,173.

California Ink Tells Earnings for Fiscal Year

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—California Ink Company, Inc., reported today net profits for the fiscal year closed September 30, of $269,416 after all charges, equivalent to $2.47 a share on 108,682 shares of combined Class A and B stock, against $341,883 or $3.45 a share on 98,850 combined shares in the preceding year. Dividends are at the annual rate of $2 a share.

Ratio of current assets to current liabilities on September 30 was 9.5 to 1 against 8.1 to 1 a year ago and 7.7 to 1 two years ago. Cash in banks and on call totaled $372,757, or almost three times current liabilities which amounted to $132,755.

Although $178,963 was transferred from surplus to capital stock last year on payment of a 10 per cent stock dividend, net worth increased approximately $60,000 during the year. Book value of the A stock, however, amounted to $42.50 a share September 30, last, against $52.15 last year. The "A" stock is the only issue outstanding in the hands of the public. This decrease in book value per share is attributed to the larger number of shares of Class A now outstanding.

AUTO SALES GAIN

DETROIT, Nov. 20.—October sales of Studebaker Corporation totaled 4700 cars, against 4600 in October, 1929. This is the first month this year in which sales were higher than the same period a year ago.

LARGE FILM UNITS PROSPER

Estimates Point to 1930 Records for Paramount and Fox; Smaller Companies Lagging

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Fourth quarter profits in the amusement business, usually ranking with the first quarter in total amount, should lift well-rounded companies like Paramount Publix and Fox Film into the record-breaking class for the year as a whole.

This year has contributed its full quota of troubles for the picture business in the shape of an extended heat wave, miniature golf courses and internal technical troubles, but despite these obstacles, it appears that Paramount and Fox, at least, will exceed 1929 performances. Other companies like Warner Brothers, which reported a drop of 51 per cent in net for the fiscal year ended August 28, last, are also expected to harvest much better returns in the final three months of the year.

FOX PROGRESSES

Stock market opinion has been too much concerned with the bearish factors affecting pictures to absorb the constructive information coming out at intervals on the larger units. The other day, for example, Harley L. Clarke, Fox president, said earnings would run better than $4 on the outstanding stock, which is probably conservative in view of the $2.84 earned for the first six months.

Fox Film's profits for the first six months were 40 per cent ahead of the same period in 1929, while at the same time its equity in profits of Loew's, Inc., was equal to about $1 a share on Fox common.

Loew's, controlled by Fox Film, has probably been the most successful unit in the industry this year. The management of this company has turned out more picture successes than any of its competitors, as earnings fully substantiate. Net profits for the fiscal year ended August 31, last, were 21 per cent over the previous year, equal to $9.65 on the outstanding common. The company is only paying $3 and is considered a likely candidate for a dividend increase.

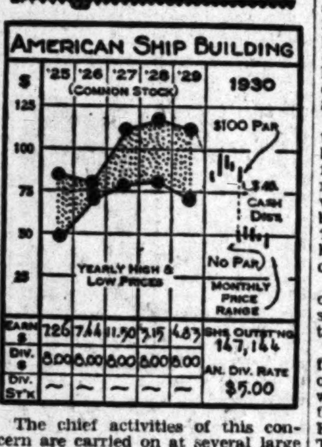
RECORD LIKELY

Paramount-Publix also is heading strongly into the wind and will, unless all indications are wrong, hang up a record in net income. At the rate six months' profits ran, the net for the full year on the capital stock ought to figure better than $5.50 a share.

Net for the first six months was 64 per cent higher than the first half of 1929, or $2.98 a share, compared with $2.31 on a smaller number of shares in the same period of last year.

Smaller picture companies will probably run into more difficulties in the coming year, but units like Paramount, Fox and its subsidiary, Loew's, should override the general list of obstacles. The chief problems are the production of superior pictures commanding box-office success, and the theaters in which to show the pictures. So far the three foregoing companies have successfully negotiated the hurdle from silent to sound pictures and are the leaders in box-office hits. They also control the largest theater chains.

WHAT'S BEHIND YOUR STOCK



The chief activities of this concern are carried on at several large ship construction and repair dock yards on the Great Lakes, plants being maintained at Cleveland and Lorain, O.; Superior, Wis., and also at Chicago and Buffalo. Properties were greatly over extended during the boom war period when operations were highly profitable—making ocean-going cargo ships for the United States Shipping Board. Excess facilities have gradually been liquidated, creating a large surplus and an exceptionally strong current position from which dividends have been paid at the rate of $8 per annum for the past five years despite the fact that current earnings have not covered this figure. Greatest source of revenue is from ship repair work although now ship construction contributes a fair volume.

Earnings gain in fiscal year ended June 30, 1929, over the previous year was explained as the result of the sale of two unprofitable plants. In the year just ended June 30, 1930, a further slight increase has been shown, $5.01 being reported per share as against $4.83 last year. A distribution from surplus of $40 in cash was made to common stockholders early this year and now no par shares issued in place of the old $100 par stock.

EQUITABLE BUILDING DECLARES DIVIDEND

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Equitable Office Building today declared a quarterly dividend of 62½ cents a share, placing the stock on a $2.50 annual basis. In the two preceding quarters 75 cents was paid, or an annual rate of $3. Previously, however, the stock was on the $2.50 annual basis. The dividend is payable January 2 to stock of record December 15.

NEW YORK RATE FIRM

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The Federal Reserve Bank here made no announcement today regarding its rediscount rate of 2½ per cent.

Export Trade in Fresh Fruits Up

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—Exports of fresh fruits from the San Francisco customs district for the nine months ended September 30, last, valued at $1,759,474, showed an increase of 23 per cent over the corresponding period last year, when the total value was $1,429,200.

The Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce points out that this increase is attributable to heavy increases of apple and pear shipments to the United Kingdom.

BANK CREDIT CONTRACTS

Federal Reserve Holdings of Bills and Treasury Notes Also Decline in Week

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—The daily average volume of Federal Reserve Bank credit outstanding during the week ending the 19th inst. as reported by the Federal Reserve banks was $1,027,000,000, a decrease of $6,000,000 compared with the preceding week and of $608,000,000 compared with the corresponding week in 1929.

The Federal Reserve Board said today in its weekly report that on the 19th inst. total Reserve bank credit amounted to $1,003,000,000, a decrease of $32,000,000 for the week. This corresponds with decreases of $41,000,000 in member bank reserves balances and $3,000,000 in unexpended capital funds, etc., and an increase of $7,000,000 in monetary gold stock, offset in part by a decrease of $15,000,000 in Treasury currency and an increase of $5,000,000 in money in circulation.

Holdings of discounted bills increased $13,000,000 during the week, the principal changes being increases of $5,000,000 at the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, $4,000,000 at Richmond and $3,000,000 each at Boston and Cleveland. The system's holdings of bills bought in open market declined $29,000,000 and of treasury notes $25,000,000 while holdings of treasury certificates and bills increased $19,000,000 and of United States bonds $1,000,000.

November 19 totals (in millions of dollars) with changes from a week ago and a year ago follow:

RAIL ISSUE APPROVED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—The Western Pacific Railroad today obtained permission from the Interstate Commerce Commission to sell $5,000,000 in 5 per cent bonds. The proceeds will be available for expenditures on the company's new extensions in California.

NEW ORDERS OF WESTERN PIPE MOUNT

Contract for $300,000 of Car Frames Boosts Total to $2,000,000

Unfilled orders booked in the past few weeks by Western Pipe and Steel Company of California were swelled to a total of more than $2,000,000, with the award yesterday of a contract to manufacture 600 steel underfames for refrigerator cars at a cost of approximately $300,000 for the Pacific Fruit Express Company. Orders in addition to this contract include large steel pipe lines for water systems of the cities of Los Angeles, San Francisco and Seattle.

The Pacific Fruit Express contract is the second large order booked by Western Pipe and Steel for this product within a few months. When the original order, which was for 400 underframes, was booked it represented the first time this class of equipment had ever been built in California, officials of the company stated.

The refrigerator cars are used to carry California perishable products, such as fresh fruits and vegetables, to eastern markets.

The company expects to get into full swing in the fabrication of this order by the first of the year, at which time the large pipe contracts for Seattle, Los Angeles and San Francisco will also be under way. The company anticipates a large volume of business throughout 1931, as a result of the policy of public utility corporations, railroads and municipal and State governments to rush work on all projects as rapidly as possible.

Night Air Mail on West Coast Gains Volume

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—Changing of the Pacific Coast air mail schedule from day to night service has increased volume of mail as much as 50 per cent in some cities, according to Boeing System. Banks, investment houses and insurance firms are the largest users. The company estimates that approximately $25,000,000 a day in canceled checks and interest-bearing securities is sent over the air network.

Under the new Coast schedule on the Seattle-San Diego route, checks passing through Pacific Coast banks can be cleared in cities 1200 miles distant the following morning at the same hour they pass through the local clearinghouses. Interest-bearing documents form a large percentage of the mail.

It is estimated air mail saves banks one to three days' interest on $10,000,000 a year. Some Coast banks send checks by air mail if they total more than $300.

Crosby to Head Bank Credit Men

William J. Crosby, assistant cashier of the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank, has been elected president of the Los Angeles Bank Credit Men's Association. Mr. Crosby recently completed his twentieth year with the Farmers' and Merchants', having entered the service of the bank in 1910, as a clerk.

Paul Griffith, Bank of America, was elected vice-president of the association; J. A. Lombardi, Citizens' National, secretary; L. H. Stuart, Farmers' and Merchants', assistant secretary; J. E. Royall, Jr., California Bank, treasurer; L. Siegel, Union Bank, F. R. Backus, First National of Pasadena, governors.

Foreign Buyers Again on Mart

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—In the past few days European investors again have made their appearance in the local stock market. Toward the close of last week and in the first two days of this week buying orders were placed from abroad for a broad line of prime investment common stocks and as far as can be learned a great majority of orders was executed. Orders at times are said to have reached substantial heights.

Orders for the most part came from Switzerland and Holland. The volume of business done was sufficiently large to account in great part for the persistent weakness in Swiss francs and Dutch guilders in the foreign exchange market recently.

Staats to Have Riverside Unit

William R. Staats Company yesterday announced the opening of a branch office in Riverside under the direction of Arthur A. Culver.

The new unit will be the sixth of its chain of California offices. Others are maintained in Los Angeles, San Francisco, San Diego, Pasadena and Long Beach.

ERIE GIVES LARGE STEEL RAIL ORDER

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Erie Railroad has ordered 41,748 tons of rails for its 1931 requirements. Awards were 21,698 tons to Carnegie Steel, 9650 tons to Illinois Steel, 3200 tons to Inland Steel and 7200 tons to Bethlehem Steel.

EXTRA DECLARED

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Chesebrough Manufacturing Company voted today an extra dividend of $1 a share in addition to the regular quarterly payment of $1. In past quarters the company paid extras of 50 cents a share.

RAIL LABOR PROMISE MADE

Executives of Leading Lines Pledge Every Effort to Keep Men Employed

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

[Copyright, 1930, by the North American Newspaper Alliance]

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—In New York yesterday the railroad executives unanimously indorsed a resolution pledging their undivided efforts to provide work for the greatest possible number of persons this winter. These men represent more than 90 per cent of all the railroad mileage in the United States, and their companies are the greatest employers of labor in the nation.

Present at the meeting were R. H. Aishton, chairman of the Association of Railway Executives, Patrick E. Crowley, president of the New York Central, F. E. Williamson, chairman of the board of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy; H. A. Scandrett, president of the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific; L. W. Baldwin, president of the Missouri Pacific; Hale Holden, chairman of the executive committee of the Southern Pacific Railroad; J. J. Pelley, president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford; C. E. Denney, president of the Erie Railroad; W. R. Cole, president of the Louisville and Nashville; L. F. Loree, president of the Delaware and Hudson, and others equally influential.

These executives pledged themselves to carry on and maintain their properties in a condition necessary to handle effectively the traffic of the companies, and to carry on as far as possible work which may provide employment to the greatest number of people during the coming winter.

"The railway executives continue to have faith in the fairness of the American public and the future of American railways, and in that belief declared this progressive policy for the coming year," said the resolution.

The move is a master stroke—both politically and industrially.

A. F. Hockenbeamer, president of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, writes from San Francisco to say that the gas and electric utility industry for the year 1930 will exceed the record made in the years 1926, '27 and '28, and will not be far from the business done in 1929.

"I believe 1930 will once again illustrate the inherent stability of the gas and electric business," said this western executive.

Upon the much-discussed subject of wages and prices, he says:

"If prices continue to decline, wages cannot be held indefinitely at their present levels, nor would there be any hardship in this unless the decline in wages outruns the increased purchasing power of the dollar.

This public utility operator has no suggestion for arresting or controlling the world-wide drop in commodity prices. He is just old-fashioned enough to believe that "the law of supply and demand will take care of this in time."

Mr. Hockenbeamer does not agree with those present-day leaders advocating the shorter work-day week as a solution for the problem of unemployment. On this subject he says:

"I very much doubt the expediency or efficacy of the universal adoption of a shorter work-day week. Every industry should be allowed to work out this problem for itself, as some have already done. I do not favor an unemployment insurance plan supported by industry and supervised by the State. Employment ordinarily is largely a matter of choice, necessity or will, and anything that tends to weaken these is undesirable."

In the matter of present-day restrictions imposed by the Sherman antitrust legislation, Mr. Hockenbeamer believes that some modification of these laws is necessary, in order "to permit of better adaptation of supply and demand."

CHICAGO EXCHANGE LISTS STUTZ STOCK

Common stock of Stutz Motor Car Company of America, Inc., has been approved for listing and will be called for trading shortly on the Chicago Stock Exchange, the exchange governing board announced yesterday. Stockholders recently approved a plan to obtain additional capital for expansion and a proposal to reduce the outstanding stock for exchanging ten shares held for one new share.

SHORT-TERM HUNGARIAN NOTES SOLD

United States Bankers and Others Purchase Treasury Bills

Leading bankers of the United States and abroad have purchased approximately $15,000,000 one-year treasury bills of the Hungarian government, the proceeds of which are to be used for productive purposes, including expenditures on railways and highways and additional capital for credit institutions.

Speyer & Co., and the National City Company, heading a group which includes the Continental Illinois Company, Bancamerica-Blair Corporation, International Manhattan Company, Inc.; First National Old Colony Corporation, and J. Henry Schroder Banking Corporation have taken $5,000,000 Kingdom of Hungary one-year dollar treasury bills due November 21, 1931. These will be placed privately at 5 3-4 per cent discount.

Of the balance £1,000,000 sterling bills have been taken in London by Messrs. Baring Brothers & Co., Ltd.; N. M. Rothschild & Sons and J. Henry Schroder & Co.; £250,000 by Banca Commerciale Italiana, £200,000 in Holland by Messrs. Hope & Co., and £170,000 in Sweden by Stockholms Enskilda Bank and Swiss francs 12,500,000 bills in Switzerland by Credit Suisse.

The treasury bills are the direct obligation of the Royal Hungarian government which covenants that if at any time while these bills are outstanding it shall issue any loan secured by a lien upon any of its revenues pledged for the time being to secure the 7½ per cent state loan of 1924, it will secure these bills equally and ratably therewith.

Escrow Society to Aid Members

Organization of an employment bureau for the use of its members was authorized last night by the California Escrow Association following its regular monthly meeting and dinner which were held at the Masonic Club. The new bureau in charge of W. P. Llewellyn of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company will be maintained indefinitely for the purpose of assisting unemployed members in securing work, the service being furnished without cost.

Laurence W. Beilenson, attorney, addressed the association last night on construction loan problems. The membership of the association comprises 250 men and women engaged in handling escrows in California financial institutions.

Extra Declared by Dixie Road

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (Exclusive) Alabama Great Southern Railroad Company today declared a special dividend of $6 and an extra dividend of $1.50 on both the ordinary stock and preferred stock in addition to the regular semiannual dividends of $2 on both stocks.

The extra and regular dividends on the ordinary stock are payable December 30 to stockholders of record December 1, and the extra and regular dividends on the preferred stock are payable February 13 to stockholders of record January 9. The special dividend on both stocks is payable December 30 to stock of record December 1.

ILLINOIS POWER & LIGHT

FOR OVER 25 YEARS the companies constituting the Illinois Power & Light system, or their predecessors, have steadily increased in earning power.

Net income for the 12 months ended September 30, 1930, is equivalent to more than 2½ times annual interest requirements on the total mortgage debt.

For conservative investment purposes we recommend the First and Refunding Mortgage 5% Bonds of this Corporation, now available to yield over 5.30 per cent.

May we send you further information regarding this conservative investment.

METAL MARKETS

CLEVELAND (O.) Nov. 20. (Exclusive)—Daily Steel Trade today says: Sheet steel prices are reaffirmed for the first quarter next year with the exception of an increased minimum on black, according to an announcement by a large Chicago district producer. Other makers are expected to follow. At the same time strip steel prices have been extended into the next quarter. This action is in line with expectations and follows the action of heavy steel producers in adopting firm minimums on plates, shapes and bars recently.

RUBBER MARKET

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (Exclusive)—The upward movement in crude rubber prices in the outside market was unchecked today. The average gain of ⅛c was achieved in a session of moderate trading volume. The new price level is the high on the current upswing, which means that it is at a new high for several months. London prices were similarly strong, closing unchanged to 1-16d advance, while Singapore prices also closed unchanged to 1-16d advance.

Further evidence that the statistical position of rubber is improving is afforded in production reports from far eastern plantations. Output on estates of more than 100 acres was 21,475 in October as against 22,172 in September, while production on the smaller estates was 14,845, against 17,772 tons. Estate stock figured 25,665 tons, compared with 26,573 in September, while dealers' stocks stood at 15,350 tons, against 16,116 tons.

WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—Inquiries for the finer grades domestic wools are being received more frequently but sales remain only moderate in volume. Sales include further quantities of original bag French combing territory wools at prices mostly in range of 65 to 68c, scoured basis, depending upon length of staple. An occasional lot of good combing wool brings slightly above this range, while offerings of bulk short French combing and clothing staple are available down to 62 to 63c, scoured basis.

10% MINIMUM RETURN PROTECTED BY $5,000,000 IN TRUST

A reserve fund of $1,000 per unit of Corporate Trust Shares, or over $5,000,000 on the more than 10,000,000 shares now outstanding, is deposited with the Chase National Bank of New York, as trustee, to protect a minimum annual distribution of 70c per share annually.

Based on the present price of $7 per share, this indicates a minimum return of 10% annually. The trustee already has on hand distributions for next January of 40 cents, so the reserve fund will not have to be touched. Interest on this reserve fund accrues to the shareholder. PUBLIC UTILITIES
Again Prove Their Stability

Through good times and bad, revenues of the electric light and power industry have shown a steady increase each year over the preceding year since its inception in 1882. During the first nine months of 1930, the stability of the industry was again demonstrated, with a 3% increase in revenues over the preceding period last year, as compared to a 30% to 60% decrease in revenues for nearly all other industries. For security and income, we suggest the following outstanding public utility bonds:

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—The curb market ran into fresh selling today, as leading shares rose to new high levels for the recovery which began ten days ago, and closing quotations showed a mixture of narrow gains and losses. Transactions totaled 575,300 shares, or only 400 less than yesterday's session.

Electric Bond and Share shot up 2 points to 51, in response to its earnings statement, only to fall back to 48⅝.

A firm feature of the oils was Standard of Kentucky, which advanced more than 2 points on announcement of an extra dividend of 20 cents. Cities Service eased slightly, and Humble and Vacuum lost about a point. Coppers eased further, as custom smelters offered the red metal as low as 10½ cents a pound, or 1½ cents under the larger producers' prices. Newmont and Noranda each lost nearly a point.

Bulova Watch preferred, which lost 4¾ points yesterday on failure of an investment house, rallied 5. Aluminum Company gained 2½, then fell back 2.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low and both low and close when same as the high.

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE

Stock Market Drifts Unevenly on Light Trading; Bolsa Chica Turns Up Sharply

Irregular fluctuations marked an aftermath to the recent sustained improvement when trading was resumed yesterday on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange. With the exception of Bolsa Chica, which scored a sharp advance, net gains and losses, mostly in fractional amounts, were scattered over the board at the close. Trading activity was unusually light.

Bolsa Chica attracted considerable interest on a comparatively rapid turnover when the stock ran up 2 1-8 points to 12 3-4 early in the session. A total of 1300 shares crossed the board before noon and no sales took place in the afternoon. The advance was generally attributed to prospective field developments.

Other oils turned fractionally softer. Union yielded 7-8 to 26 3-4; Union Associates, 5-8 to 25½; Standard of California, 5-8 to 50 5-8; Rio Grande, 1 to 8½; Richfield, 1-8 to 6 3-8 and Richfield preferred, 1-4 to 13. Pacific Western, which has shown a marked inactivity in the past week, was brought out at 9½, a new bottom and representing a drop of 1 point from the last previous sale.

Utilities, which were the feature of the advance on the preceding session, continued in an upward direction in the face of a slackened activity. Southern California Edison firmed up 1-4 to 48 7-8; Pacific Lighting advanced 1 1-4 to 62 1-4 and Pacific Gas and Electric gained another point to hit 50.

Transamerica continued the most active trader on the board and on a turnover of 6200 shares ranged between 15 and 15½ and finished at 15 1-8 for a net loss of 1-4. Security-First National eased ½ to 91 and the other banks held steady.

Claude Neon firmed up ½ to 16 3-4 and Goodyear Tire and Rubber sold down 2 points to mark another new bottom at 82.

Sales totaled 18,639 shares valued at $360,002; previous day 21,031 shares valued at $444,355.

NEW KINNER MOTOR ISSUE ON CURB LIST

Governors of the Los Angeles Curb Exchange have approved the application of Kinner Airplane and Motor Corporation, Ltd., to list 199,934 shares of no par value common stock, effective for trading today, it was announced yesterday by James W. Elliott, secretary and manager of the curb exchange. Stockholders of Kinner Airplane and Motor Corporation recently voted to decrease the authorized number of its shares from 1,999,340 to 199,934, and to exchange one new share of no par value for each ten shares of old $1 par value stock.

PARAFFINE COMPANY PROGRAM APPROVED

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20. (Exclusive)—Paraffine Companies, Inc., have received formal authorization from the California Corporation Department to sell $1,500,000 of five-year 5 per cent convertible gold notes. The previous authorization was tentative only. The company has also been authorized to issue 18,750 shares of common stock for conversion purposes in connection with the convertible provisions of the notes issued.

PRAIRIE PULLS OUT OF PANHANDLE MART

TULSA (Okla.) Nov. 20.—Effective the 27th inst., Prairie Oil and Gas Company will cease purchasing crude oil in the panhandle district of Texas and will withdraw its posted prices for that district on the same date. The action is due to the fact that the market outlet which enabled the company to purchase panhandle oil has ceased to exist. Prairie will continue to restrict its own production in harmony with prorating plans, the company announced.

TRANSAMERICA HELD UNDULY DEFLATED

Real investment and speculative possibilities are offered by Transamerica at its present level, according to Sutro & Co., Pacific Coast brokerage house. "When it is considered that consolidated profits of $2.70 per share on the present stock outstanding were reported in 1929, and semiannual dividend requirements were met in the first half, the stock seems unduly deflated in relation to both its return and possibilities," the report concludes.

TEXAS PACIFIC COAL AND OIL REPORTS

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Texas Pacific Coal and Oil Company reported today, September quarter net profits of $143,146, before depreciation and depletion, against $484,965 a year ago. Nine months net profits amounted to $790,701, against $1,454,620 for the same period a year ago.

OIL NEWS

BY HOWARD KEGLEY

With nine operators still remaining to accept the oil-curtailment agreement being circulated by Umpire Neil H. Anderson and his assistants in the Venice field, approximately 11,000 barrels of daily production still must be signed up to participate in the program that is expected to become effective soon.

Fifty-eight operators have signed up, representing about 30,000 barrels of production daily. Included among the list of reported hold-outs are several companies also operating in other Los Angeles basin fields, but the majority of them are small independent producers.

Daily production at Venice yesterday started to increase with the completion of several new wells. The Beverly Hills Oil Company's No. 2 came in for an initial yield of 500 barrels daily, while Mohawk's J-1, Ed Wolfe's No. 1 and the Tideland Oil Company's No. 1 are flowing by heads, and expected to be on steady production today or tomorrow. The field yesterday put out 41,155 barrels of oil, 26,000 barrels coming from fifty-one upper zone producers and 15,000 barrels of oil from thirty-eight deep-sand projects.

Much of the activity now extends from Thirty-sixth to Fifty-fourth avenues, and takes in about one-third of the Union Oil Company's townsite lease in the extreme southwesterly portion of the field. While the northerly deep-zone producers have had some water difficulties, most of the producing wells in the southerly end are still free from water and have maintained steady production.

Awaiting Results

The Chanslor-Canfield Midway Oil Company plans to wait further development in the Weed Patch district, nine miles southeast of Bakersfield, where the Shell Oil Company recently opened up an entirely new field by completion of Porter-Day No. 1 for a potential of 1200 barrels of 21.6-deg. gravity oil per day from a depth of 5962 feet.

Shell has killed the well and is preparing to deepen. It is expected to land a perforated oil string before recompleting the project.

Chanslor-Canfield, the General Petroleum Corporation, Standard and several other operators have acreage within a short distance of Shell's well, and may stake locations there if the Porter No. 1-1, being drilled by Shell, should come in as another completion. Progress is being watched in the Mohawk Petroleum Company's Wharton No. 1 in that vicinity.

Oil operators expect little difficulty in handling production from the Weed Patch district, because the General Petroleum Corporation's pipe line is within a few miles of it, while Standard, Union and Associated have considerable storage near Kern River, where one of the majors has a refinery.

Project Watched

Drilling progress in the Bolsa Chica Oil Corporation's Tideland Permit No. 191-1 two miles southeast of the Elwood oil field is interesting now that it continues to encounter gas showings, although no oil sand has yet been penetrated. Bottom of the hole is below 3650 feet in a gray, clay shale formation.

Flow Increases

The Pacific Western Oil Company's Tideland Permit No. 92-7 in the Elwood field yesterday was producing at the rate of 8200 barrels of oil a day and indications are that it will increase today. Pacific Western well had been shut in and since an underage had been built up, it was permitted to open.

Sidetracking Past Fish

Some success is being had by the Chanslor-Canfield Midway Oil Company, whose Hobson A-2 southeast of the Seacliff field has been tied up in a fishing job for two months. The project has been milling on iron several weeks and now is sidetracking past fish at 7431 feet, with bottom at 7521 feet.

Joins Field Campaign

I. B. Rankin and R. T. Rankin, part owners of the Marcell Oil and Gas Company, together with Sam M. Brooks and George Hoarde, have just organized the Brooks-Rankin Oil and Gas Company, and acquired the McDonald lease near the corner of Forty-seventh avenue and Ocean Front. Preparation are going ahead to spud in its first project within a week, according to company officials.

Recements Again

Failing to effect a water shut-off, the Barnsdall Oil Company yesterday recemented Trust No. 2 on the Trust lease in the Rosecrans oil field. This undertaking is located about 300 feet south of Trust No. 1, initial producer on the lease.

Flowing by Heads

Two wells in the Los Cerritos field, northwest of the Signal Hill field are expected to be on steady production today. The Ring Oil Company's Sam Johnston No. 1, originally flowing from the shallow zone, and deepened, is endeavoring to recomplete and the K. S. Deeds's No. 6 also in Los Cerritos is flowing by heads.

The Chiksan Oil Company's Robertson No. 3 completed yesterday at the rate of 300 barrels daily, and the James Oil Company's No. 6 started to flow into the sump. Signal Hill yesterday produced 97,000 barrels of oil.

Heavy Gas Troubles

Gas is causing trouble in the Richfield Oil Company's No. 1 in the north Belridge district as it continues to ream preparatory to landing a string of casing with bottom of the hole at 5808 feet. The project is reaming a little below 5400 feet. Considerable oil sand is in evidence.

Drilling Permits

The number of drilling permits issued last week by the State Mining Bureau increased over the preceding week's list. Of the twenty-four permits issued, being eleven more than the other week, ten were for wells at Venice, five at Signal Hill, two in the fields of Kern county, one in Fresno county, one in the Ventura-avenue field, one in the Sespe district, two in Santa Barbara county and one in Kings county.

Following are permits for Venice: Thomas Kelly & Sons' Gage No. 2, Knox-Powell-Stockton's W. G. Davis No. 4, Marcel Oil and Gas Company's Black No. 4, Pacific Shore Oil Company's No. 3, Birch-Royer Oil Company's No. 1, Blue Ridge Oil Company's Stanley No. 3, Beverly Hills Petroleum Corporation's No. 3, Blue Ridge Oil Company's Hertel No. 14, Brooks-Rankin Corporation's No. 1, H. L. Oil Company's No. 2.

Signal Hill permits include Tom J. Cannon's Hall-Webber No. 4, Enid Oil Company's No. 1, El Bar Oil Company's No. 2, Malibu Signal Oil Company's No. 1 and J. Orville Seeple's Sterling No. 1.

C. L. Wood's No. 1 on Sec. 10, 3-14, and San Val Oil Company's No. 1 on Sec. 14, 1-16, both in Los Angeles county; Shell Oil Company's Taylor No. 67 in Ventura-avenue field; Merchants Petroleum Company's No. 5 in Sespe district; Barnsdall-Rio Grande combination's Bishop-Evans No. 1 and Petroleum Finance Corporation's Tideland Permit No. 202-1 in Santa Barbara county; Lake View Oil and Refining Company's P. W. No. 44 in Sunset district; Union Oil Company's Belridge No. 17 in North Belridge district; Thomas H. T. Purman's No. 1 on Sec. 36, 23-17, in Kings county; Standard Oil Company's No. 34 on Sec. 29, 21-17, in Kettleman Hills oil field.

Plan New Meeting

Another operators' meeting is scheduled to be held next week in the Venice field for the purpose of lining up the few remaining hold-outs, who, it is reported, have not yet signed the curtailment agreement being circulated by Umpire Neil H. Anderson and his assistants.

A curtailment of about 27,000 barrels daily has been assured Venice with 80 per cent of the operators signed and a few more will probably join the movement within the next week, is the belief of the operators' committee. Venice production dropped to 39,900 barrels daily recently, having established a peak of 42,500 barrels daily a week ago. Several new wells are expected to be producing steadily today, one being the Venice Oil Syndicate's No. 5 and the Royal Oil Company's No. 5, both of which are flowing into the sump from the deep zone.

Bank Announces New Department

As an outgrowth of the announced policy of the bank to retain all employees of the merged institutions, a department of education has been created within the Bank of America National Trust and Savings Association to develop new opportunities for the advancement of employees, according to an announcement yesterday by E. J. Nolan, chairman of the board. W. R. Williams, vice-president of the bank and former State Superintendent of Banks and State Treasurer of California, heads the new department.

The problems of branch management will be one of the principal studies of the department, which has already undertaken an exhaustive survey of the bank's personnel to determine upon new, present and prospective managerial and other executive timber and to find out how the opportunities for the workers in the bank may be expanded otherwise.

UNION OIL STATUS SHOWS UP BETTER

Having written off more than $100,000,000 in the last ten years, the Union Oil Company of California can afford to be less conservative during this difficult period, states a report issued yesterday by William R. Staats Company. In addition, the company has been buying more oil than formerly and drilling and exploration have been greatly curtailed.

DENBO WILL DIRECT DUNN BANKING UNIT

John M. Denbo has been appointed resident manager of the Los Angeles office of R. L. Dunn, Jr., & Co., Pacific Coast investment banking firm, it was announced yesterday by Ritchie L. Dunn, Jr., head of the company. Mr. Denbo has been connected with local investment banking houses for the past eight years.

McHOSE SPEAKER

John C. McHose, admiralty attorney, associated with Loung, Lillick, Olson, Graham & Kelly, was the principal speaker Wednesday night before members of the Foreign Exchange Club at the Mary Louise Tea room. Mr. McHose's subject was "Bills of Lading." H. K. Rose, assistant cashier of the California Bank, is president of the club.

INITIAL DECLARED

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—Libby, McNeill & Libby declared today an initial semiannual dividend of $3 a share on the $6 second preferred stock and the regular semiannual dividend of $3.50 on the $7 cumulative preferred, both payable January 1 to stockholders of record December 19.

ROYALTY VOTES REGULAR

Calotex Royalties Corporation has voted the regular monthly dividend of 1 per cent payable the 25th inst. to stockholders of record the 1st inst. Earnings are running approximately eleven times dividend requirements, Wright M. Pargellis, president, said.

ECONOMIST TO SPEAK

Dr. Gordon S. Watkins, professor of economics, University of California at Los Angeles, will address a luncheon meeting of the Building-Loan Secretaries' Association of Southern California at the Commercial Club today. His subject will be "Fascism."

EX-HUSBAND ACCUSED OF LIFE THREAT

Former Wife at Custody Hearing Says He Tried to Electrocute Her

During a court hearing yesterday over the custody of their 5-year-old daughter Elaine, Mrs. Mazie Elaine Creighton testified that her former husband, George Bulloch, Jr., a Pasadena electrotherapist, attempted to take her life in an electric chair and that the death of another wife had been caused by a similar method.

Before Superior Judge Price took the case on submission Bulloch testified, however, that the former wife, Gladys Lawton Bulloch, died of hemorrhages and that he had submitted to blood transfusions in an effort to save her life.

Attorney Isador Morris, representing Bulloch, argued to the court that Mrs. Creighton's accusations were the utterances of a victim of hallucinations that every one was trying to harm her. He contended that the mother's words indicated her mental incapacity for the custody of the daughter, Elaine.

Mrs. Creighton testified that Bulloch tried to force her into an electric chair in their home, but she said she struggled sufficiently to prevent him seating her in the chair. She said she was told that the former wife, Gladys Lawton Bulloch, had died in a similar manner.

In further testimony Mrs. Creighton asserted that Bulloch threw her into the surf at Honolulu three times in hope she would be attacked by a shark. Failing in the attempt, she said, he left for China soon after and she did not report the asserted affair because she thought she would never see him again.

Attorney Morris urged the court to place the child in the custody of Bulloch's sister or in a neutral home. Attorney Kellogg pleaded to have the girl left in her mother's care.

According to court records, George Bulloch, Jr., 36 years of age, and Elaine Creighton, 28, were married in Honolulu April 21, 1924.

COMMITTEE FOR FIESTA CONSIDERED

Group Being Selected to Conduct Celebration of Sesquicentennial

Plans for a committee to direct the sesquicentennial celebration next year of the founding of Los Angeles were discussed yesterday at a conference in Mayor Porter's office. Orra E. Monnette, member of the Board of Library Commissioners, acted as temporary chairman. The committee, it is understood, will be announced in the near future.

The affair, it is believed, will be in the nature of a fiesta and will follow out the customs of old California. The program contemplates parades, visits to various landmarks of historical interest, programs in the Coliseum, Hollywood Bowl, the Greek Theater in Griffith Park, and the re-enactment of the Battle of La Mesa.

It is expected that President Hoover, King Alphonso of Spain, the Cardinal of Toledo, Spain, and President Ortiz Rubio of Mexico will attend. It is also planned to restore the old missions as much as possible, so they will play a prominent part.

The 150th anniversary of the founding of the city will be September 4, 1931.

Will Rogers to Appear at Benefit Show

Will Rogers, who receives something like $500 a minute for talking over the radio, will give a talk at the Orpheum Theater tonight for the benefit of unemployed World War veterans.

This was announced yesterday by Harley G. Preston, chairman of the Los Angeles County Council American Legion employment committee, following the humorist's promise to appear. Preston told him of plans to establish a free employment bureau for Legion men and others who are out of work. Rogers, who is engaged on a picture at the Fox studio, held up production for more than an hour to listen.

"Sure, I'll come!" he said, when Preston had concluded his appeal. "How will 9:25 suit you?" "Any time that suits your convenience," Preston replied.

"All right, then. We'll make it at 9:25 p.m."

Transcripts in Keaton's Appeal Filed in Court

Five volumes of clerks' and reporters' transcripts were filed in the Los Angeles office of the State Supreme Court yesterday in the appeal of Frank D. Keaton from a death penalty for the murder in a Los Angeles courtroom of Motley Flint, local banker. Briefs setting forth the grounds of the appeal will be filed shortly.

Keaton was sentenced to hang today, but his execution was automatically postponed with the bringing of an appeal.

Estate of Gartz Goes to Probate

The $1,500,000 estate of the late Adolph Gartz, husband of Kate Crane Gartz, was admitted to probate by Superior Judge Crail yesterday, and Howard W. Wright was appointed administrator.

The will, dated July 29, 1926, gave the widow the home place in Altadena, left a son, Richard Crane Gartz, $10,000, four nephews, Alexander, Walter, Adolph and Gilbert Rupner valuable mining stock, and the residue to two children, Adolph and Gloria Gartz.

MAKE-UP OF STARS MYSTIFY

Secret Remains Hidden Until Unknown Elements Are Discovered, Says Mt. Wilson Scientist

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, Nov. 20.—Possibility that unknown elements may be discovered by astronomers in their efforts to determine what the stars are made of was intimated by Dr. Arthur S. King of Mt. Wilson Observatory in speaking here tonight.

Dr. King, for twenty years superintendent of the physical laboratory at Mt. Wilson Observatory, delivered the first of a series of five lectures presented under the auspices of the observatory and the Astronomical Society of the Pacific in Culbertson Hall, California Institute of Technology.

USE OF SPECTROSCOPE

The speaker explained the use of the spectroscope, which analyzes light into its component wave lengths and then provides scientists with their only clew to the nature of the luminous material from which the light started. "Most elements found on the earth," he said, "are also found in the sun and stars, but in a strange condition due to exceedingly high temperatures, making them almost unrecognizable."

For example the material of the Companion Star of Sirius, he declared, is so heavy that a cubic inch weighs a ton. This may not be due to existence of an unknown element, he said, but may be the result of the fact that the electrons are so hot that the atoms are packed closer together than they can be packed in the laboratory with the use of an electric furnace.

GREEN LINES EXPLAINED

The speaker revealed that platinum and gold, in addition to the common elements, are found in the stars, but radium has not yet been discovered in any of the celestial bodies. Peculiar green lines in the spectra of nebulae indicate the presence of some substance unknown on the earth, or at least never in the same material state on the earth, he declared. A new form of carbon which was discovered on the earth about three years ago, is found in large quantities on some of the stars, Dr. King added.

The speaker was introduced by Dr. Walter S. Adams, Mt. Wilson Observatory director, who characterized the Astronomical Society of the Pacific as a "forty-year-old organization which maintains contact between astronomers and the public."

VOTE TO BE CERTIFIED TOMORROW

County Canvass Clerks Estimate 500,759 Cast Ballots at Election

Complete returns of the last general election in Los Angeles county on the 4th inst. will be certified to the Secretary of State tomorrow, according to an announcement late yesterday of the Board of Supervisors, acting as an official election canvassing board.

Ballots from 159 voters who were absent from the county or in hospitals election day were officially opened and cast yesterday by the canvassing board. Although the final count has not been compiled clerks for the board roughly estimated last night that approximately 500,759 votes were cast in the election as against a registration of 853,676.

It was expected to have the canvass completed yesterday but this was impossible because of the unusual numbers of discrepancies in the figures of numerous election boards in precincts scattered throughout the county which have to be ironed out by the board.

While the mistakes in the tallying of votes were numerous none of them are of sufficient importance to make any material difference in the general result, according to members of the canvassing board.

Michigan Train Kills at Least Three in Auto

DETROIT, Nov. 20. (AP)—At least three and possibly five persons were killed tonight when a Michigan Central passenger train struck an automobile at a crossing in Ecorse, Detroit suburb.

Three bodies were found. Two other bodies are believed to have been carried by the locomotive over a trestle and dropped into Ecorse Creek.

The three found were identified as H. E. Van Canneyt, Mrs. Goldie Flenners, and her son, Bobbie, of Ecorse.

JUVENILE FLYER IN OHIO ON WAY HERE

COLUMBUS (O.) Nov. 20. (AP)—Flying westward in an attempt to establish a new junior transcontinental air-speed record, Gerald Nettleton, 20-year-old Toledo aviator, landed here late today for an overnight stop. He will take off for St. Louis tomorrow morning. His destination is Los Angeles.

BLYTHE HIGHWAY PUT INTO FEDERAL SYSTEM

PHOENIX, Nov. 20. (AP)—H. B. Watkins, general manager of the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce, was advised today that the route from Springerville to Globe, Phoenix, Wickenburg and Blythe, thence to Los Angeles, has been designated a part of United States Highway No. 60.

PROBATION GRANTED OIL FRAUD CASE FIGURE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20. (AP)—James G. Gough, asserted "master mind" of the Golette oil fraud case in Alameda county some years ago, was granted two years' probation by Federal Judge Kerrigan today. Gough was charged with concealment of assets in a bankruptcy action against the company. Last September Gough was sentenced to a ten-year term in San Quentin and today's probation was on that sentence.

MEXICAN ENGINEERS DUE IN CITY

Members of International Water Commission Will Spend Week-end Here

The Mexican section of the International Water Commission, which spent last week with the American section observing international water problems along the Mexican-American line, is due to arrive in Los Angeles over the week-end for several days' visit inspecting near-by dams and the local water conservation program.

The section, headed by J. Vasquez Schiaffino, Undersecretary of the Department of Mexican Foreign Relations, is composed of the most noted engineers of Mexico, who have spent the last several days at the giant Rodriquez Dam near Tia Juana where construction temporarily is being suspended.

During the visit of the Mexican engineers here they will be shown several of the near-by dams by Louis C. Hill, consulting engineer of the American section of the International Water Commission, and will witness night pouring of concrete on the Tujunga project.

Trojan Team and Britons to Debate Here

Whether the principle of democracy is right or wrong will be debated by representatives of the University of Southern California with a team representing Great Britain next Wednesday night at Bovard Auditorium. The debate will start at 8 p.m., according to Bates Booth, varsity debate coach, and will be open to the public.

The British team is composed of D. Hope Elleston of St. John's College, Oxford University, and B. J. Crehan of the University of Liverpool, representing the National Union of Students of England. Ames Crawford and Gregson Bautzer will represent U.S.C.

Bautzer was captain of the Trojan debate squad last year and, as a member of the all-California student debate trio, helped to win thirteen out of fifteen battles of logic.

Crawford has participated in fifteen varsity intercollegiate debates, has won the Bowen and Ames cups in oratorical and extemporaneous speaking contests, and is an advanced student of political science.

The debate was arranged through the co-operation of the National Student Federation of America.

Court Rules on Deportation of Alien Criminals

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20. (AP)—Federal Judge Dickinson ruled here today that foreign-born criminals or other undesirables who are not naturalized may be deported "at any time" for crimes of moral turpitude.

In this class of crimes the court listed "breaking and entering" and "assault with intent to kill."

The decision was in the case of Joseph A. Shladzien, 31 years of age, a convict who has spent all but a few months of his life in this city and who will be deported to Poland, the land of his birth.

Film Directors Named in Liens for Income Tax

An income tax lien was filed yesterday in United States District Court against William Nigh Krushke, known as Bill Nye, a motion-picture director. The lien, which calls for additional taxes of $349.07 for 1926, was filed by the Collector of Internal Revenue.

A lien was also filed against George H. Melford, a motion-picture director, for 1924-25-26, for $12,779.01. Another was filed against John P. Medbury, 1462 Kings Road, for $21.16 for 1925 and $90.87 for 1926.

Air Industry on Sound Basis

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (Exclusive) Denying the existence of depression in the air transport industry and pointing out its steady growth of more than 120 per cent volume each six months, William P. MacCracken, Jr., former assistant Secretary of Commerce for aeronautics, declared tonight that the air transport industry is now in a position to carry industrial freight within the means of modern business.

He spoke at the annual dinner of 500 members of the National Industrial Traffic League in the Hotel New Yorker.

POSTMASTER FORCED TO OPEN STRONGBOX

BORGER (Tex.) Nov. 20. (AP)—Two men tonight invaded the home of Postmaster Harold Rothchild here and while one of them guarded Mrs. Rothchild, the other forced the postmaster to accompany him to the postoffice, where the safe was opened and between $2000 and $4000 taken.

DOCUMENTS INTRODUCED IN OIL TRIAL

Prosecution Expects to Rest in Johnson Fraud Case Within Two Days

After two weeks of hearing testimony, the trial of Gilbert S. Johnson, wealthy Texas and California oil operator, before a jury in United States District Court, is expected to close by Tuesday or Wednesday. The government prosecutors expect to complete their case today or tomorrow and it is stated by David H. Cannon and H. L. Arterberry, defense counsel, that the defense will require only two days to present that side of the case. Johnson is accused of using the mails to defraud in connection with the promotion of various oil companies.

Numerous documents, seized in Johnson's Fort Worth office, were identified yesterday by various witnesses. J. M. Dunn of Graham, Tex., testified he received $25,000 from Johnson for stock in a company organized by himself. Testimony in the case will be resumed today.

Mexico Picture House Opened Via Hollywood

Employing an international telephonic hook-up and radio amplification, Carl Laemmle, president of Universal Pictures Corporation, and a half-dozen Spanish-speaking screen stars of the Universal Studios, last night addressed President Ortiz Rubio and the audience attending the opening of the new Balmori Theater, Mexico City.

"La Voluntad del Muerto," Universal's first Spanish talking picture, was the attraction. Lupita Tovar, featured in the production went from Hollywood to the Mexican capital to attend the premiere.

Participating in addition to Mr. Laemmle were Lupe Velez, Celia Montalvan, Baltasar F. Cue, Spanish journalist and scenarist, Antonio Moreno, Manuel Estrada, Eduardo Arozamena and Director George Melford. Ernest Vilches, Spanish stage and screen actor, introduced the speakers over the telephone.

Utility Concern Shows Increase in Employees

An increase in the number of employees during the current month over November, 1929, was disclosed by the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company in figures made public yesterday. The figures are 3212 against 3192 last year.

H. L. Masser, vice-president and executive engineer, said the policy of the company is to "carry on" despite trying conditions.

"We are making no reductions in salaries, but on the contrary are regularly increasing the wages of many of our employees as they become more experienced and efficient," said Mr. Masser.

ELECTION BILL RENDERED

City Clerk Dominguez yesterday submitted to the City Council a bill for $6449, representing the city's share of the expense incurred by the county at the last general election. The matter was referred to the Finance Committee.

DEATHS LAID TO SUICIDE

Two Bodies Found in Ocean Identified as Sisters; Third One Also Feared Dead in Pact

While the bodies of her two elderly sisters lay in a Sawtelle mortuary following their recovery from the ocean yesterday morning, Santa Monica police last night began a patrol of the beach in a search for Miss Jessie Miller, spinster, who they believe may have joined the [illegible] in a triple suicide pact.

The drowning victims were identified as Mrs. Ada McKeon, [illegible] of age, a widow, and her sister, Abbie Miller, 70, who, together with the missing woman, lived at [illegible] Shenandoah avenue.

Identification was established by Roscoe H. Dow of 1317 [illegible] street, Santa Monica. He gave police the name of a brother, [illegible] Miller of 1221 North Vermont avenue, and the latter confirmed the identification. Miller revealed he had received a letter from his sisters but declined to state its [illegible]. He admitted, however, the communication was couched in despondent terms and contained reference to "poor health."

The bodies of Mrs. McKeon and Miss Abbie Miller were discovered floating side by side about [illegible] beyond the breakers off the [illegible] house Cafe on the Roosevelt [illegible] way. C. W. Strugill of 1227 [illegible] ton Way, Venice, saw them and summoned Jack Green, a [illegible] life guard. The two men [illegible] and brought them to shore. [illegible] were shabbily attired in cheap faded dresses and coats, from [illegible] all marks of identification had [illegible] removed.

Taken to the Price-Daniel mortuary, Sawtelle, the corpses remained unidentified all afternoon until Dow, who announced himself as a family friend, appeared and cleared up the mystery.

When Dow revealed the two women lived with a third sister, [illegible] sought her at the Shenandoah avenue address without success. [illegible] then evolved the theory that [illegible] three, having tired of life [illegible] health, waded to their deaths in the ocean Wednesday night in fulfillment of a suicide pact.

MRS. HOOVER RETURNS TO PASADENA

Wife of President's Son Will Take Children to White House for Holidays

PASADENA, Nov. 20.—Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Jr., returned to her home here today preparatory to taking the three grandchildren of the President to the White House where they will spend Christmas.

Mrs. Hoover, Jr., went to Asheville, N. C., to see her husband, reported to be recovering from a slight tubercular attack, and on her return trip visited her 13-year-old brother in San Francisco, where he is recuperating following amputation of a leg.

"My husband's condition appears improved and we have every reason to hope that he will soon be himself again," she declared.

Within two weeks Mrs. Hoover, Jr., plans to leave for Washington with her children, Peggy Ann, Herbert, Jr., and the baby, Joan.

The President's grandchildren can shout and laugh just as loudly as other children, so their mother has decided it will be better to have them open their stockings in the spacious White House this year than to run any chances of interfering with the quiet ordered for their father.

Special Turkey Menu Arranged by Chef Wyman

Since Thanksgiving is just around the corner, there will be a special program at the Los Angeles Times's Free Cooking School today, devoted to suitable dishes for that feast. Chef Wyman has arranged a complete and unusual Thanksgiving menu, worked out in a holiday color scheme of red and green. As turkey prices are low this year, it will be a turkey dinner with all of the "trimmings." The preparation of a turkey is a task which many housewives dread but Chef Wyman will explain how easily it can be done.

The Times will be glad to have every housewife who is planning a holiday dinner to attend this unusual demonstration which starts promptly at 2 p.m. and is held on the third floor of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

GILDA GRAY REPORTS THEFT OF JEWELRY

Gilda Gray, well-known dancer, told Hollywood police last night she had lost a diamond and ruby pin—and she didn't shake it off, either. While she was away from her apartment at 7006 Hollywood Boulevard yesterday, she said, a sneak thief entered and departed with the trinket valued at $700.

Shortridge Will Be Entertained

United States Senator Shortridge, member of the Senate Finance Committee, will be the guest today at two affairs to be given in his honor at Long Beach. At noon he will take luncheon with a group of officials and friends at the [illegible] Coast Club, and in the evening will attend a dinner at the Breakers Hotel. Tentative plans provide for his departure for San Diego tomorrow. He also expects to make brief stops at El Centro and [illegible] before leaving for Washington.

The Senator yesterday was [illegible] by the Foothills Breakfast Club of Arcadia, being given an honorary membership in the organization.

Insolvency Plea Filed by Broker

A voluntary petition in bankruptcy was filed yesterday in United States District Court on behalf of Earl L. White, Burbank real estate operator. The liabilities are listed as $414,095.31, with assets of $3,589,115.06. Of the latter $[illegible] 866.07 is reported in cash and the balance in open accounts due, real estate and securities.

A voluntary petition was also filed by Percival H. Halley, a broker, who gave his liabilities as [illegible] and his assets as $2854.

EXPANDING WITH THE SOUTHEAST

Whistles of factories . . . skylines of skyscrapers—these are the symbols of the growth of the new industrial Southeast. With its advantages of natural resources, abundant labor and wonderful climate, the southern migration of manufacturing and the development of local industries were inevitable.

Through its utility subsidiaries the Central Public Service Corporation is taking a vital part in the growth of the Southeast—it is already the leading utility system in this territory serving the public with natural gas. The cities it serves—among them Atlanta, Charleston, Montgomery, Mobile, Augusta, Raleigh, Asheville, Lynchburg, and Durham—are the key cities of the Southeastern development.

In the rich Northwest and the progressive Middle West also, this system is building into and with the fastest growing cities and sections of the nation. Its record of assets and earnings multiplied approximately four times in three years is the result of superior utility service in 640 communities here and abroad.

CLINE RITES ANNOUNCED FOR TODAY

Services to Be Conducted This Morning for Gas Company Worker

Funeral services for Horace B. Cline, former treasurer of Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation, and an employee of that company for thirty-seven years, will be conducted at the chapel of the E. Clair Overholtzer Company, 1236 South Grand avenue, at 10 a.m. today.

Mr. Cline, who died early Wednesday morning, was a native of San Francisco, where he was born October 8, 1873. Coming to Los Angeles when a young man, he entered the employ of the utility company as a book-keeper in July, 1891. Nine years later he was made paymaster and then assistant treasurer in 1903. In 1916 Mr. Cline was named treasurer of the corporation. In June, 1928, he resigned from the gas and electric company after having been with the organization thirty-seven years. Since that time he had been executive secretary for W. B. Cline, former president of Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation and now chairman of the board.

Mr. Cline was a resident of Pasadena. He leaves his widow, Mildred Tarble Cline; a son, Walter Cline of Harvard University, and two other children, Katherine and Horace, at the Pasadena home.

PLANS PREPARED FOR PEACE OFFICERS' MEET

Plans for the proposed annual outing of the Los Angeles County Peace Officers' Association were formulated yesterday by Sheriff Traeger, president, and his departmental heads at a meeting in the County Jail. The affair was set tentatively for January 11, 1931. It probably will take the form of a barbecue followed by addresses by ranking peace officials of the county. Another meeting will be held next Wednesday at which an executive committee will be appointed.

TRAFFIC CHANGES URGED

Petitions that arterial stop signals be installed at Rimpau and Washington boulevards and that Los Feliz Boulevard be made an arterial stop between the Southern Pacific tracks and Western avenue were filed with the City Council yesterday. Both were referred to the Police Commission and to the Traffic and Street Lighting Committee.

BOTH SIDES IN DIVORCE ROW LOSE

Court Refuses to Grant Decrees in Court Tilt of Hollywood Pair

Superior Judge Scott late yesterday denied a divorce to either Mrs. Ann Elizabeth Benedict, head of a Hollywood maternity hospital or to Daniel Welch Benedict. The judge's decision concluded a bitterly fought contest which had been before him three days. Mrs. Benedict charged cruelty, and Benedict asserted desertion. The jurist advised counsel for both sides to submit to him a settlement agreement of the $120,000 community property, and for the custody of the children, Betty, 16 years of age; Helen, 15, and Dan, 12.

Benedict testified yesterday that his wife permitted Orville Brown, a Hollywood automobile salesman, to have meals at her hospital for weeks. The husband said he protested to his wife about her association with Brown, and that she promised to end it. Brown admitted on the stand he was in and about the Benedict hospital frequently, doing interior decorating.

When Mrs. Benedict was on the stand, she asserted her husband became intoxicated Christmas night, 1927, and could not be aroused from a stupor.

Attorney Maurice Sparling represented the wife, and Attorney Perry C. Backus, the husband.

Judgment Given Against Broker

An echo of the Julian stock collapse was heard yesterday when Superior Judge Bowron gave M. B. Sheftall, local business man, a judgment for $8496 against J. A. MacDougall, broker. Sheftall asserted that on March 6, 1927, he agreed to sell MacDougall 1000 shares of Julian stock for $8875, but that MacDougall refused to complete the purchase when the stock was offered later.

On November 15, 1928, MacDougall agreed to accept Sunset Pacific Oil Company stock in place of Julian stock, Sheftall added, but this deal also fell through. Sheftall sued, asserting breach of contract.

TESTS OF TRUCK BRAKES MADE ON HIGHWAYS HERE

Stricter legal requirements for brakes on automobiles are the objective of a committee that has been gathering data in the vicinity of Los Angeles for four days on truck brakes. Approximately 400 trucks going in and out of Los Angeles on four sides have been given highway tests of their brakes this week. The results will be tabulated and studied for indications so the committee may have at least the nucleus of scientific information as a basis for campaigning for an amendment "to put more teeth" in the law requiring automobiles to have efficient brakes.

Yesterday afternoon the committee worked on the west side of the city taking a position on Roosevelt Highway near Las Flores Canyon. On other days it worked on San Fernando Road near Burbank, East Ninth street and Telegraph Road and on Truck Boulevard near Compton. With the committee were about fifteen motorcycle officers from the State, county and city highway patrols.

William H. Fairbanks of the Southern California Telephone Company is chairman of the committee and other members are Howard Lang of the Lang Transportation Company, T. E. Marr of the Marr Freight Transit Company, A. S. Hamilton of the Southern California Freight Lines and Felix Geiger of the Geiger Truck Company.

"In the highway safety campaign," Fairbanks said, "one hears lots of talk about truck brakes. Trucks should have good brakes and so should other automobiles. We are out to see what we can learn from tests of about 400 trucks in actual operation. From what we know already it appears that we need an amendment putting more teeth in the law requiring first-class brakes on automobiles."

SHIPPING NEWS AND ACTIVITIES AT LOS ANGELES HARBOR

CUSTOMS GROUP TO CHANGE BASE

Uptown Building Leased for Appraisers' Stores

Pure Food Laboratory Will Also Be Installed

Shift Expected to Expedite Delivery of Imports

BY WAYNE B. CAVE

The Customs Service has closed a lease for the Guasti warehouse on Palmetto street between Fifth and Sixth streets, Los Angeles, and will move the appraisers' stores into it January 1, it was announced yesterday by Louis H. Schwaebe, Collector of Customs.

The structure comprises upward of 100,000 square feet of floor space, into which will be built seizure or strong rooms, clerks' offices, showers and such.

It also was announced appropriations have been obtained for a chemical laboratory for the division of pure food, Department of Agriculture, which will be located in the appraisers' store building and be constructed on a mezzanine floor.

The laboratory, expected to be ready shortly after the first of the year, is the realization of several years of campaigning by shipping men and the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

It is expected to expedite delivery of all merchandise subject to chemists' inspection. In the past samples of such items have been forwarded to San Francisco for examination, entailing material delay. The laboratory will examine tea, supplanting the old tea-tasting expert, and almost countless items of foods, certain textiles and such.

Transfer of the appraisers' stores is necessitated by the taking over by the county of the old location, 343 New High street, on which will be erected county garages.

NEW FAST LINER ON WAYS IN DANISH YARD

Danish East Asiatic Line's second European-Pacific passenger motor liner Canada, now completing at Copenhagen, will have a top speed of eighteen knots—the fastest vessel in the North Pacific trade—it was disclosed yesterday by Capt. S. Kolls, in port with the Danish East Asiatic motorship Chile.

The 17,000-ton Canada, to be commissioned next April, will operate on the European-Pacific run opposite the line's new 16,000-ton motor liner Amerika, which entered the service last June. Tentative plans are being outlined for construction of two more seventeen-knot motor liners for the run as soon as Danish East Asiatic's present $15,000,000 eight-ship building program is completed.

Capt. Kolls said that the Canada will have accommodations for approximately 100 cabin passengers, as compared to the forty-seven carried by the Amerika, which has been filled to capacity every voyage. Numerous refinements over the design of the Amerika, he added, will make the Canada the most luxurious liner in the trade.

Her Diesel engines have already been completed and tested at the Burmeister & Wain factory, said Capt. Kolls, the new power plant being designed to developed 8000 horsepower, with a weight little more than 100 pounds per horsepower.

Henry M. Robinson, chairman of the board of the Newport News (Va.) Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, will head the 250 passengers arriving from New York tomorrow morning aboard the Panama-Pacific electric liner Pennsylvania. Mr. Robinson, accompanied by Mrs. Robinson, is reported to be coming to Los Angeles on business for his firm.

Others to disembark will include Commander R. F. McConnell, U.S.N., here from Washington to become executive officer of the new 10,000-ton cruiser Chicago, nearing completion at the Mare Island navy yard; Sir H. Montague Allen of Montreal, Dr. Eli Long, medical director of the Banker Trust Company, New York, and Charles S. Conklin, president of the Northern Life Insurance Company, New York.

Five hundred football fans, bound for the Stanford-California game at Berkeley tomorrow, will sail from Los Angeles Harbor for San Francisco at 4 p.m. today on the Lassco coastwise liner Yale. The liner will lie over for the post-game celebrations and sail back with the fans Sunday at 1 a.m., arriving at Wilmington that night at 7 o'clock. On account of shortage of hotel accommodations at San Francisco the fans will be allowed to leave their luggage aboard ship. Following the ship's return here she will sail Sunday at midnight for San Diego, for which trip berths will be given travelers without charge.

The Pacific Atlantic Line steamer San Pedro sailed yesterday with a full Pacific Coast cargo for United Kingdom as the fourth of five freighters entering this new service since summer. The San Pedro's odd appearance was explained by E. N. Tormey, local manager, as due to her cut-off masts, required before she could go through the Manchester ship canal. The fifth ship, the San Lucas, will sail east from here December 1. Capt. J. L. Jacobsen, master of the San Pedro, has a wager he will reach the United Kingdom before Capt. R. W. Tillett of the Isthmian steamer Anniston City, departing yesterday at the same hour.

Newly elected officers of the Southern California branch of the National Customs Service Association will assume office tomorrow night at a dinner at the Taix French restaurant, 317 Commercial street. They are: E. R. Brown, president; J. T. Parkinson, vice-president; A. E. Meyer, secretary-treasurer; while the executive committee includes W. F. Mahar, C. E. Bartram, M. W. Malm, C. O. Miller, Mrs. M. R. Seely and E. Strand.

News of Ships and Sailings at Pacific Ports

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20. (AP)—For the first time, the coastwise steamer Humboldt, launched thirty-four years ago, has sailed without Capt. E. G. Baughman on the bridge. The ship's master is taking his first vacation since the Humboldt, christened the "Treasure Ship" during her Klondike service, slid off the ways. Capt. Arne Abbors, regular first officer, is in command.

Capt. Shunji Ito, golfing officer of the Tatsuta Maru, brought his command into port in a hurry today. He was hurried to unload $7,000,000 in gold bullion and silk, to celebrate his birthday and complete a golfing foursome.

Ordered by company doctors to take a rest, Capt. Charles J. Holland remained ashore when the Panama Mail motorship City of Panama sailed today. Capt. William J. Calcutt, youthful commander of the fleet, is in charge of the voyage.

Efforts to float the Richfield Oil tanker Tamiahua, stranded off Pescadero Point, will be made at high tide tomorrow, if the weather is favorable, salvagers announced.

TACOMA, Nov. 20.—Total business for Tacoma Harbor during October was 387,615 tons of cargo, according to figures made known today. This was a gain of 31,856 tons over the previous month. Of the classification foreign imports showed the largest gain, 34,265 tons.

Large cargoes of lumber and wood products are being taken by the W. R. Chamberlin, Jr., and the Mexican of the American-Hawaiian Line. The former is loading 2,250,000 feet and 100 tons of box shooks for Los Angeles. The latter is taking 1,500,000 feet of lumber and approximately 7,000,000 shingles for the Atlantic Coast.

"TIMES" THEATER GUIDE

MOTION PICTURES

[illegible], Eighth, between Broadway and Hill—"Monte Carlo." A delight with Jack Buchanan and Jeanette MacDonald.

[illegible], Washington at Vermont—"Playboy of Paris." An indifferent film despite Maurice Chevalier's appearance.

California, Main and Eighth—"Dona Mentiras" and "Una Cana al Aire." Open today.

Carthay Circle, Carthay Center—"Min and Bill." Reviewed in today's Times.

Chinese, 6925 Hollywood—"The Big Trail." Spectacular in setting and photography, this production demonstrates the power and sweep of Grandeur film.

Criterion, 642 South Grand—"Billy the Kid." An exciting series of escapes intensified by the large film. John Mack Brown.

Filmarte, 1228 North Vine—"The Tiger of Berlin." Opens tonight.

Forum, Pico at Norton—"Girl of the Golden West." The years hang heavily upon this melodrama with music which features Ann Harding.

Loew's State, Broadway at Seventh—"Remote Control." Reviewed in today's Times.

Majestic, Broadway at Ninth—"The Big Fight." A few moments of excitement in the ring. Lola Lane.

Million Dollar, Broadway at Third—"Playboy of Paris."

Pantages, Hollywood at Vine—"Laughter."

Paramount, Hill at Sixth—"Sea Legs." Reviewed in today's Times.

Ritz, Wilshire at La Brea—"Playboy of Paris."

R.K.O., Hill at Eighth—"The Silver Horde." Reviewed in today's Times.

R.K.O. Orpheum, Broadway at Ninth—"Check and Double Check." Amos 'n' Andy bring their droll talk to the screen in an efficient and humorous vehicle.

Tower, Broadway at Eighth—"Sweet Kitty Bellairs." Music and color and if you expect more—there's Perry Askam.

Uptown, Western at Tenth—"Madam Satan." A lot of hocus-pocus by De Mille somewhat redeemed by Kay Johnson.

United Artists, Broadway near Ninth—"Feet First." Laughable and thrilling is this new Harold Lloyd comedy.

Warners' Downtown, Hill at Seventh—"Sunny." Opens today.

Warners' Hollywood, Hollywood Blvd. at Wilcox—"Sunny." Opens today.

Wilshire, 8440 Wilshire Boulevard—"Laughter." One of the best comedies, with Nancy Carroll.

STAGE

Belasco, Hill at 11th—"The Bird of Flame." The exotic tropics and that charming vampire, Dorothy Burgess.

El Capitan, Hollyw'd Blvd. nr. Highland—"Parlor, Bedroom and Bath." Charlotte Greenwood strides onto the stage, and the play matters not at all. Destined for a healthy and wealthy run.

Hollywood Playhouse, Vine near Hollywood Blvd.—"Mister Antonio." The favorite Leo Carrillo returns in an ancient vehicle that creaks.

Music Box, Hollywood Blvd., nr. Gower—"The Apple Cart." George Bernard Shaw's prediction of the future is ably portrayed by Alan Mowbray and fellow-actors.

Vine St., Vine near Hollywood Blvd.—"The Green Bottle." Clutching hands and other things that go into a mystery play formula are here in profusion. Oscar Apfel is the featured player.

BURLESQUE

Follies, Main at Fourth—Burlesque.

Twins Separated by Auto Fatality

WENATCHEE (Wash.) Nov. 20. (AP)—Chauncey and Charles Caines, 64-year-old twins, who had never been apart more than a day in their lives, were separated today by death. Chauncey was killed yesterday, when a tractor used by them to haul firewood to their Wenatchee Heights home overturned and crushed him.

The brothers have mined gold together in Alaska and Bolivia and operated shingle mills at Van Horn, Skagit county, Washington and Seattle. They resembled each other so closely friends had difficulty in distinguishing them.

MISSING MERCHANT FOUND BEATEN UP

SAN JOSE, Nov. 20. (AP)—William McIlwain, retired San Jose business man, who disappeared from Los Gatos recently after an automobile accident in the Santa Cruz Mountains, was found in the Southern Pacific station here today apparently beaten and robbed. His watch and money were missing. He was taken to the County Hospital.

Levine Facing Austrian Trial on Coin Plot

VIENNA (Austria) Nov. 20. (AP)—Charles A. Levine, American aviation enthusiast and partner in Clarence Chamberlin's flight to Germany, today was given in charge of the public prosecutor's department for trial on charges of intention to counterfeit French coins.

Dr. Moyzich, who has gained a reputation for a strict exacting of the law's requirements, has been appointed as judge for trial of Levine.

The authorities are reported to be investigating Levine's financial means abroad.

MONEY AVAILABLE FOR VETERANS' USE

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 20. (Exclusive)—More than $200,000 will be available between now and next February for the purchase of homes and farms for war veterans, George M. Stout, secretary of the Veterans' Welfare Board, announced today. Stout said the money is income from payments on homes and farms and it will permit the board to carry on its program until the first $4,000,000 of the $20,000,000 bond issue approved at the last election becomes available in February. There are 10,000 applications on file with the board.

MAYORS COMMUNICATE VIA PIGEONGRAMS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20. (AP)—"Pigeongrams" were exchanged by two California mayors today. Mayor Mark De Witt of Porterville sent a message by carrier pigeon to Mayor James Rolph, Jr., urging him to work for speedy solution of the San Joaquin Valley water problem when he becomes Governor. A pigeon carried a message back saying the Governor-elect is already considering the matter.

COAST PAIR TO TAKE TEST AT WEST POINT

SACRAMENTO Nov. 20. (Exclusive)—Adjt.-Gen. R. E. Mittelstaedt today announced that Edward M. Harris of Los Angeles and George Ruhlen of San Francisco have been selected to take the West Point entrance examination next March. Both took the competitive examination given to National Guardsmen.

NOTICIAS MUNDIALES DE ULTIMA HORA

NOTAS TELEGRAFICAS

Los Patronos de Valencia Piden Ayuda al Gobierno

MADRID, Noviembre 20.—Ocho mil patronos de Valencia han enviado hoy una delegación a esta capital para que pida protección al gobierno contra un "reinado del terror" que han creado en Valencia las facciones antagónicas de las uniones obreras. De otros lugares, a los que se había propagado la huelga general de la semana próximo pasada, llegan noticias de que la tirantez de la situación ha aflojado ligeramente.

La delegación valenciana echa la culpa al Sidicato Unico de muchos de los recientes disturbios y de la intolerable presión ejercida sobre los obreros de Valencia para que abandonen sus empleos. Se les ha amenazado con medidas de violencia contra las cuales no tienen armas eficaces las autoridades de la ciudad.

En Barcelona hubo hoy desórdenes de menor cuantía. En un combate callejero, fue desmontado de su caballo un policía montado, y cargó sobre él la muchedumbre de huelguistas antes de que pudiera ser dispersada.

Hubo nuevos desórdenes escolares en Albacete, Huelva y Cuenca, y han sido clausuradas la mayor parte de las universidades importantes del reino.

Fue suspendido por cinco días el Heraldo de Madrid por haber publicado un artículo en defensa de la huelga general, y el articulista ha sido preso.

Los Legitimistas Húngaros Honran al Príncipe Otto

BUDAPEST (Hungría), Noviembre 20.—Hoy han celebrado los legitimistas húngaros el décimo octavo natalicio y la mayora de edad del príncipe Otto, último de la línea directa masculina de los Hapsburgos y pretendiente al trono de este país.

La alta aristocracia húngara se reunió esta mañana en la iglesia basílica para oír misa pontifical que se cantó en honor del mencionado aniversario. El atrio de la iglesia, lleno de curiosos de Budapest, lucía guirnaldas y otros adornos alusivos a la ocasión y costeados por los legitimistas.

Es de notarse que en la ceremonia brillaba por su ausencia el príncipe Otto, que se está educando en una escuela de Steenockerzeel (Bélgica), y no había un solo representante del gobierno. Oficialmente, no se hizo ningún caso de la ceremonia.

El Oeste Central Azotado por la Cellisca

KANSAS CITY, Noviembre 20.—Una tormenta invernal, que se dirige a las Roquenas hacia el este ha hecho marañas con los hilos telegráficos y telefónicos y paralizado el tráfico en vías férreas y carreteras. Este temporal ha venido a la zaga de los tornados que soplaron ayer en el oeste arrebatando la vida de veintiún personas y lesionado a ciento más en Oklahoma, Kansas y Arkansas.

La tormenta ha venido acompañada de nieve, aguanieve, lluvia y fuertes descensos de temperatura.

El servicio telegráfico a la costa del Pacífico ha quedado muy desorganizada, pues en toda la región de llanuras los alambres se partían por el peso del hielo que los cubría y la fuerza del viento que soplaba.

Los trenes de viajeros del oeste están corriendo con grandes retrasos, y las carreteras se hallan obstruídas en muchos tramos. Nueva desgracia personal hay que añadir a las que lleva causadas la cellisca que se ha desatado en las Rocallosas. Guy D. Miner, boticario de Des Moines (Nuevo Méjico), fue hallado muerto de frío cerca de Mt. Dora (Nuevo Méjico). Sucumbió a la intemperie caminando en busca de auxilio después de que su auto se había quedado atascado entre la nieve. Un anciano llamado Whitehead, de Amarillo (Tejas), a quien dejó Miner en su coche, fue hallado inconsciente y quizá fallezca.

La "Chef" Wyman Prepara una Minuta Especial para el Día de Gracias

Como ya está en puerta el Día de Gracias, se ha organizado para hoy un programa especial en la Escuela Libre de Cocina de Los Angeles Times. Se dedicará la clase a la preparación de platos adecuados para fiesta tan solemne. La maestra Wyman tiene arreglada una minuta original y completa, que se ejustará a dos colores: rojo y verde. En vista de que han bajado este año los precios de los pavos, figurará esta ave en la minuta con todos sus oderezos. Muchas amas de casa experimentan cierto temor cuando se trata de guisar un pavo como se debe; pero las explicaciones de la maestra Wyman les enseñarán cuán fácilmente puede realizarse la operación cuando se procede en la forma debida.

Tendría The Times positivo gusto en que acudieran las amas de casa que vayan a tomer comida de Día de Gracias a la clase especial de la "chef" Wyman, que comenzará hoy a las dos de la tarde en el tercer piso del Southwest Building, 130 So. Broadway.

Papá Longfellow era también algo estricto. Noche con noche, cuando se habían llevado de la mesa del comedor las tasas de leche con pan, y habían sido prendidas las lámparas, los nueve pequeños Longfellows tenían que sentarse en rueda con sus cuadernos, aritméticas y pizarras, y estudiar hasta que el coche correo de las nueve pasaba ruidosamente frente a las ventanas tocando el cuerno. Era hora entonces de coger las velas y decir buenas noches (The Longfellow father was also rather strict. Every evening, after the bread-and-milk bowls had been cleared from the dining-room table and the lamps had been lighted, the nine young Longfellows had to gather around with their copy-books and arithmetics and slates, and study until the nine o'clock mail rattled by the windows, tooting its horn. Then it was time for candles and good nights).

"Doña Mentiras", una gran alta comedia con Carmen Larrabeiti y espléndido reparto de actores españoles, y Charley Chase, Carmen Guerrero y Carmen Granada en "Una Cana al Aire", dos films parlantes en español, son el programa del Teatro California Internacional durante la semana que empieza hoy a las 11 a.m.

FLAGPOLE AND PIPE SHIPPERS WIN CASE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20. (AP)—Manufacturers of "long and bulky" articles, such as flagpoles and pipe, may rejoice today, because the State Railroad Commission refused to increase the freight rate on such articles. F. W. Gomph, agent for California railroads that are members of the Freight Traffic Bureau, sought increases of from 200 to 300 per cent on rates for "long and bulky" articles on the ground they are a nuisance. The Railroad Commission declined to grant permission for such a change on the ground it would constitute an "abnormal" increase.

A Supreme Tribute

PROSPERITY ACCLAIMED IN PASADENA

"Old Man Depression" Ejected in Parade and City Hall Mass Meeting

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, Nov. 20.—"Old Man Depression," in the guise of an unnamed Community Playhouse actor, was "run out of town" as an undesirable citizen today, his place being taken by "Miss Prosperity," known to her intimates as Miss Erlyne Cooper of 1544 Whitfield Road.

The return of prosperity to this city was celebrated by a parade which wound up in a mass meeting in front of the City Hall where Miss Prosperity received the keys to Pasadena from R. L. Daugherty, chairman of the Board of City Directors.

"Prosperity Day" was sponsored by the Pasadena Junior Chamber of Commerce, which has been conducting a campaign in the belief that increased optimism on the part of the public at this time is in order.

The parade, headed by the fire department's band and made up of floats depicting the return of "good times," and automobiles and trucks of local commercial firms, proceeded from Lake avenue along Colorado street to Garfield avenue, where it was routed north to the City Hall steps.

At the City Hall the Citizens' Committee of One Hundred, appointed to provide additional employment here, took charge of the program. John W. Eberle, chairman of this committee, presided.

Frank C. McDonald, president of the State Federated Building Trades Council, was the principal speaker at the Prosperity Mass Meeting.

As the representative of Gov.-elect Rolph he described successful methods taken in San Francisco to improve employment conditions.

"To make an effective campaign," he asserted, "a committee and subcommittees were appointed. The subcommittees were composed of a clergyman, labor representative and Junior Chamber of Commerce member. These trios spoke before all representative organizations in San Francisco, giving their honest views on the situation.

"The result is that millions of dollars of work was provided that otherwise would not have been offered."

The Pasadena committee will announce its plans for a "Fix-up, Paint-up and Clean-up" campaign on Monday.

AIR TRAGEDY CAUSE CITED

Inquest Witnesses Explain Crash That Killed Three

Spiral to Get Bearings in Blinding Snow Blamed

Cargo Valued at $200,000 Proceeds to Destination

Spiraling earthward through a blinding snowstorm in an attempt to determine his position early Tuesday morning caused Pilot F. A. Donaldson to hook a wing in the sandy slope of an Antelope Valley mesa and crash a second later, killing himself, Miss Katherine Jean Schmidt, a passenger, and George A. Rogers, mechanic. This was brought out at a coroner's inquest conducted yesterday at Bakersfield. A verdict of accidental death for the three victims was returned by the jury.

C. Eugene Johnson, Pacific Coast operations director of Pacific Air Transport, who directed the mountain search that resulted in finding the crashed air mail-passenger biplane late Wednesday, told of the spiral.

"I believe Donaldson, lost above the snow clouds in darkness, may have seen a break in the storm layer and dropped down to gain a view of the ground," Johnson testified. "In doing so he came too close and as he swung the ship into a vertical bank to turn scraped a wing, causing the plane to bounce out of control and fall."

DEATHS INSTANTANEOUS

It was found at the inquest that Miss Schmidt suffered a broken neck, Donaldson died of a fractured skull and crushed chest and Rogers received a fractured skull. Injuries to all three must have caused instant death, it was stated.

When the single-motored transport left United Airport, Burbank, at 11:49 p.m. Monday, bound for Bakersfield and Oakland, it was a veritable flying bank, Federal postal authorities revealed in Bakersfield when a check was made of the 319-pound mail cargo.

One torn package was found to contain $75,000 in loose jewels and another registered parcel held bonds worth several thousand dollars. It was reported unofficially the cargo was valued at $200,000. All letters and packages placed aboard here and at San Diego were recovered and placed aboard trains at Bakersfield yesterday for their destinations.

No funeral arrangements for the three victims had been announced here last night.

ON BIRTHDAY TRIP

Miss Schmidt, who registered at San Diego for a flight to Portland, Or., under the name of Jean Markow, was making the trip via air as part of celebration of her eighteenth birthday anniversary, it was testified at the inquest by a friend, Arnold Hagenbach, 703 South Ardmore avenue. The girl bought her ticket under the assumed name to keep her trip a secret from her mother, Mrs. M. L. Schmidt, 905 South Normandie avenue, Hagenbach said.

A wedding band was found on the third finger of Miss Schmidt's left hand. Hagenbach said he did not believe she was married. It previously had been reported at United Airport that Miss Schmidt was flying to Portland to be married.

Confirmation yesterday that an air-mail signal beacon, located at Antelope Valley emergency landing field, a mile on an air line from the spot where the plane crashed, was blinking during the time Donaldson was lost in the storm overhead, lent more credence to the explanation made by Johnson at the hearing.

SEEKING BEARINGS

It is probable, pilots said, that Donaldson, catching a glimpse of the flashing light, was circling to get his bearings and possibly intended to land at the emergency port.

Other flyers adhered to the theory that ice formed on the plane's wings, disrupting the flow of air over them that forms a vacuum and holds a ship in the air. The weight of the ice itself in such a case is negligible, the flyers pointed out, but a thin ice coating shoots the air off at a distorted angle and causes a plane to settle.

Ed Newson, cattle rancher, who discovered the wrecked plane about 3 p.m. Tuesday, will receive the $1000 posted four hours previously by Thomas F. Hamilton, president of United Airport, it was stated last night in Bakersfield.

SEARCHERS THANKED

Hamilton, who went to Lebec to direct the ground and air search, in which approximately fifty planes of the Army, Navy and Marine Corps, commercial organizations and private flyers participated, last night voiced his thanks to pilots and or-

STREETS BEING DECORATED

Transformation of Downtown Area Into Christmas Fairyland Begun Last Night

Emissaries of Santa Claus got busy in the downtown district last night, stringing electrical wires as the first step in transforming the area into a gorgeous Christmasland. According to E. C. Mitchell, secretary of the Retail Dry Goods Merchants Association, in charge of the work, all decorations will be installed by Thanksgiving Day.

Two hundred Douglas fir trees, each thirty feet high and with a spread of twelve feet, set in standards of an Egyptian-urn design, will be placed on Broadway between First and Twelfth streets; on Seventh street between Broadway and Figueroa street, and on Hill street between Fourth and Ninth streets.

In addition, each of the four corner electroliers in the same area will be handsomely ornamented with a star-burst embellishment, a huge candle, bells and a holly wreath.

"The ornamentation promises to be highly effective in maintaining the reputation Los Angeles has earned for originality and beauty in downtown holiday activity," said J. A. Biggam, who is directing the installation. Mr. Biggam last year was in charge of the same work, together with the construction of floats and other details connected with the children's holiday parade which created nation-wide interest.

"The Christmas decorations are financed by the stores, property owners in the district ornamented and other business interests desirous of beautifying the city, and in

WEDDING ALTAR REACHES TO KANSAS

Bride Here and Bridegroom in Midwest Wed by Phone

Grandparents Celebrate at "Long Distance" Marriage

Miss Thelma Lee Passwaters says "I do" over long-distance telephone as her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Stewart, who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, look on.

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

SANTA MONICA, Nov. 20.—With bride and bridegroom standing 1478 miles apart, each at a telephone instrument, responses were said and a marriage ceremony was performed at 6 p.m., Pacific time, today in a "long-distance wedding" made possible by modern science.

"I do," promised Miss Thelma Lee Passwaters, the bride, at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Stewart, 1436 Centinella Boulevard, West Los Angeles. "I do," promised the bridegroom, Gordon S. White, at the other end of the line almost halfway across the continent in Kinsley, Kan., where Probate Judge Beasley performed the marriage ceremony.

Twenty-two guests "listened in" at an amplifier installed for the occasion. And as though to shorten the miles separating bride and bridegroom the former's grandparents added to the day's sentimental significance by commemorating their own golden wedding. The Stewarts were married in Yates Center, Kan., on November 20, 1880. They recalled that on that day the guests arrived in sleighs driven through a Kansas blizzard. The Stewarts came to California eight years ago. Stewart and his two sons are in the live stock business in Los Angeles.

Standing with the bride at the telephone were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Shannon. Her father placed the wedding ring, which fifty years ago had been her grandmother's engagement ring, on her finger. The bridegroom is cashier of a bank in Lewis, Kan., and at his end of the miles of intervening wire he was accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan White, also of Lewis.

A large family dinner followed the ceremony here. The guests included Mrs. Ellen Richardson and Miss Adeline Stewart, sisters of the bride's grandfather, who were at the latter's wedding fifty years ago. All six of the Stewarts children were present, including Mrs. A. B. Knight of Hollywood, accompanied by her husband and two sons, Berto and Stewart; R. O. Stewart, Beverly Hills, his wife and son Roscoe, and two daughters, Betty Mae and Jean. Others in the family party were Donald and Mary Addie Shannon, all from Fellsburg, Kan.; Mrs. J. S. Olsen, Lewis, Kan.; Mrs. Frances McConnell, her daughter Betty and D. W. Stewart.

The bride wore a chiffon wedding gown of pale pink and carried a bouquet of orange blossoms and lilies of the valley.

Immediately following the dinner she left for Lewis, Kan., where she will join her husband at their home. All legal phases of the mar-

STUDENT FREEDOM LAUDED

Local Educators Praise Chicago University Plan as Presaging Educational Advance

Great interest was displayed yesterday by executives of local colleges and universities in the news, as told in The Times, of the radical change in educational method which is to be tried by the University of Chicago, and in every case the expression of interest was accompanied by a warm tribute to the Chicago institution for its pioneering courage in attempting the experiment.

Freedom of the exceptional student from the rigid formalities of the present-day system of American college education and the diversion of educational emphasis from the mass to the individual, which are the primary objects of the Chicago experiment, are ideals which all progressive educators now share, the local commentators pointed out.

They added that the comprehensive plan announced by the University of Chicago is but the fruition of various more tentative experiments in the same direction which have been started at numerous smaller institutions within the past decade. The Chicago plan, however, is not only more complete and final than any of the others, they pointed out, but it gains an even greater importance by virtue of the prestige of the University of Chicago.

Rufus B. Von KleinSmid, president of the University of Southern California, said when asked his views:

DR. R.B. VON KLEINSMID

"We shall watch with keen interest the development of the new plan to be inaugurated at the University of Chicago and shall hail with delight that serious experiment in the organization, administration, and content of higher education which promises to give direction and purpose to what nowadays too often seems general and without objective in our educational institutions.

"While experiments of narrower

WEEK-END TO BE FAIR AND MILD

Thermometer Goes Up to 70 Deg. and Sun Shines Every Possible Minute

Fair weather and moderate temperatures over the week-end were forecast by the local station of the United States Weather Bureau yesterday, following a week which lowest occurred at an early morning hour at 46 deg. A moderate wind prevailed and the sun shone every brought fall popularity to topcoats, mittens and rain-gear.

The highest temperature registered 70 deg. shortly after midday, the second of its allotted time of ten hours and sixteen minutes, according to the official report.

No rainfall was noted for the Los Angeles area and the precipitation figures for the season stand at 1.06 inches. Last season to date the figure was .32 of an inch and the normal fall to date is 1.57 inches.

ALTADENA RESIDENT VICTIM OF FLAMES

Burned yesterday morning when his sleeping garments became ignited from a gas heater, Jesse Crouse, 73 years of age, 138 West Harriett street, Altadena, was removed to the Physicians' and Surgeons' Hospital in Pasadena in a serious condition, according to a Sheriff's office report. Crouse received second and third-degree burns over one-half the surface of his body.

WARNER LOTS TO GET BUSY

Production Head Announces Seventy-Picture Program With Schedule Opening December 15

Bringing back word that Warner Brothers Pictures, Inc., and First National jointly will produce for the 1930-31 season a total of seventy pictures, the largest program outlined in the history of those organizations, Jack L. Warner, vice-president in charge of production at Warner Brothers, returned to Hollywood yesterday from a business trip to New York.

At the same time Warner set at rest reports concerning to what use the Sunset Boulevard studio will be put following the removal of all executive offices and cutting rooms to the First National lot at Burbank during the coming month for concentration of all executive work.

The Sunset plant will be used for production activities, as will the Vitagraph lot and the Warner ranch. It had been reported Warners planned on leasing the Sunset lot to a local producer.

Warner announced no changes are contemplated in personnel and that production activities will commence about a month in advance of the original schedule, or about December 15.

"Motion pictures and the industry are facing a year of prosperity," he said, "and I believe they will lead the business world back to a normal state. With successful vehicles now being shown to record-breaking audiences it is evident the public is really anxious for pictures and that our busness is rapidly regaining its former prosperity."

Warner declined to comment on reports Fox West Coast Theaters is dickering for the Warner chain on the Coast, stating all theater matters are handled in the East.

JURY EXPECTED TO INDICT TRIO

Action in Municipal Affairs Inquiry Imminent

Central-Avenue Conditions Linked to Higher-ups

Four Charges of Felonious Conspiracy Considered

Rumored to name three defendants and to assert four instances of felonious conspiracy, an indictment was drawn by the county grand jury late yesterday as a result of its recently instituted investigation of municipal affairs, it was learned from authentic sources last night.

The grand jury is scheduled to reconvene in special session again this morning, at which time it is expected the indictment will be voted and returned in Superior Court, and the inquisitorial body then plunge into another phase of the inquiry into city affairs.

TRIO IN JAIL

As the indictment was being drawn yesterday it was not denied that it revolved around conditions in the Central-avenue colored belt, and that George Brown, colored politician, and B. G. Kelso and Ruben Scott, Negro police officers, arrested Wednesday evening on charges of conspiracy to violate the Wright Act, figured in the testimony that resulted in the indictment being drawn.

Brown, Scott and Kelso were held incommunicado in the City Jail yesterday and it was learned that a committee from the grand jury personally visited the police station and registered a protest when they learned that Hugh Macbeth, colored politician and attorney, had been allowed to interview Brown as the prisoner's attorney.

BROWN INTERVIEWED

Shortly after adjourning yesterday afternoon several members of the grand jury, together with Chief Deputy District-Attorney Stewart and Dep. Dist.-Atty. Hammon, appeared at Central Police Station and Brown was brought down for questioning. The party occupied one of the narcotic squad rooms for nearly an hour, but refused to divulge what questions were asked the Negro or what his answers were.

A few minutes later, Brown, accompanied by a squad of police officers, was taken away from the police station and up to a late hour last night had not been returned to his cell. Two members of the grand jury party, Roy Donnelly and George Moreland returned to the police station later with a well-known underworld character frequently seen in the Central-avenue district, and remained closeted with him for nearly two hours. No comment was forthcoming on this conference, either.

LINKS HIGHER-UPS

Ramifications of the asserted conspiracy that led to the arrest of the three colored men are declared to reach into places of authority in the City Hall, it leaked out coincident with the jurors' visit to the City Jail.

Kelso and Scott, originally assigned to Hollenbeck Heights police station, were shifted to Newton division, patrolling Central avenue, upon the request of Brown and Macbeth, it was learned from Chief of Police Steckel, who was also called as a witness before the grand jury yesterday.

"It was represented to me that Kelso and Scott were wanted in the colored district to clean up conditions there," said the Chief of Police. "I finally agreed that they be shifted to Newton division, but took steps to keep an eye on their activities."

BUSY AT CITY HALL

While the grand jury and the police were at work, considerable activity was noted in political circles about the City Hall. Macbeth was seen to enter Mayor Porter's office early in the day, and he denied that he had interceded in having the two colored patrolmen moved to Central avenue. While he was talking, W. J. Mosher, confidential secretary to the Mayor, came in the room and he and Macbeth eventually left, walking arm-in-arm.

The Mayor, himself, denied that he had heard reports that officers called before the grand jury had been told to "lay down" in their testimony, and asserted that he wanted the "whole business" sifted to the bottom.

PURPORTED PLOT

Although every effort was made by the grand jury to keep the details of the testimony unfolded before them secret, an inkling on what went on was gleaned from outside sources. This, in substance,

EVEN Mayor Porter seems weary at last of "government-by-tattle-tales." He says the snoopers are to be sent back to the police department and put to real work.

ONLY ONE BOSS

A police force is essentially a military organization. To get results the chief must be an absolute czar, with power to promote, demote, hire, fire and run the works—or he is a miserable failure.

BUSY-BODYING

During the first part of the Civil War Congress and the politicians tried to butt in and interfere with the military command—just as our .22-shorts on the Police Commission interfere with our police force.

It was not until Lincoln handed the tiller to Gen. Grant and told him to run the war as he pleased that the Union Army began to get anywhere. And all during Grant's campaign of the Wilderness and the struggle for the envelopment of Richmond the Bob Shulers of that day kept up a raucous scream of protest. But Lincoln closed his ears and let the heathen rage.

In the Apache days Maj. Chaffee (who afterward became commander-in-chief of the United States Army) always sent out a squad of cavalry to start every campaign by cutting all the telegraph wires. Thereby cutting off all orders.

THE OUTDOOR PLAYS

Riverside county seems to realize the possibilities of putting charm into the life of California better than any other section I know.

The series of pageants given in that county is the most interesting idea that has come into California during my time.

The Desert Play at Palm Springs, the Ramona Pageant at Hemet, the pageant at Perris, the Feast of the Chrysanthemums at Beaumont and Banning . . .

A NEW ONE

In Riverside itself they are planning a pageant to commemorate the arrival of Capt. Juan Bautista de Anza with his expedition of settlers—the first to cross the plains—on their way to found the city of San Francisco. To my mind De Anza is the greatest character in the history of our Southwest. His name was unstained by the blood of conquest.

A REAL SPORT

Taking his discipline on the chin like a true sport, Joe Savoldi says he will not spoil his football career by turning professional.

There is too much talk about money in football, as it is. It seems that we in America can't be content with doing anything for honor and glory without trying to make money out of it.

TOO MUCH MONEY

No industry in the world has ever turned out the enormous profits in the same space of time as football. A stadium selling 80,000 tickets at $3 to $5 a shot produces money in sums that make you dizzy.

A winning football team is a gluttonous meal ticket for any university—new buildings, improvements, student associations rolling in wealth. The temptations involved in collecting a team that is sure to win are altogether too glowing. Football may be honest now in the matter of "inducements" to husky high school play-

THREE KILLED IN TRAFFIC

Others Injured in Day's Series of Accidents and Two of Victims May Succumb

Two women and a man were added yesterday to the list of traffic dead. Two other men victims are expected to die.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gray of 170 West Avenue 79, pedestrian, tried to cross Pasadena avenue at Avenue 33. She was struck and killed by an automobile which had no license plates, according to witnesses, and the driver of which dragged her lifeless body to one side of the road and then sped off.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Maher of 326 North Avenue 50 were eyewitnesses. They told Lincoln Heights police the motorist disappeared while they were telephoning for an ambulance.

WOMAN DIES

Mrs. Elma Miller, 60 years of age, of 4216 West Adams street died of injuries received when she was struck by an automobile driven by Harry Knadle of 2618 Dunsmuir avenue at Adams street and Thirteenth avenue, according to a police report. The inquest will be at 2 p.m. today.

Merritt Gatewood of 1243 West Forty-seventh Place died at the General Hospital several hours after his automobile collided with a street car at Vernon and Van Ness avenues. An inquest will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. today at the Coroner's office.

BANDIT SHOOTS AT SPECTATORS

Even Dozen Robberies Added to Crime List

Woman Drives Car for Pair in Store Hold-Up

Clerks of Two Hotels Forced to Turn Over Cash

A city fireman and his son narrowly missed being killed in one of an even dozen robberies perpetrated between 9 p.m. Wednesday and 9 a. m. yesterday. Six before midnight augmented this month's total to the unprecedented figure of 162, while six more after midnight swelled the same total to 168. An indication of the increase in crime is shown in a comparison with a total of seventy-one robberies during the first nineteen days of October. Burglaries for the same period stood at 258 while this month they have reached 369.

The near tragedy occurred while Aaron Firestone was being held up by two bandits in his grocery at 927 North Alvarado street. The bandits had taken $35 in cash and a number of cartons of cigarettes and boxes of cigars. As they backed out of the store Henry Clayborne a city fireman and his son of 1027 North Coronado Terrace, who had been helpless witnesses of the robbery, stood at one side.

FIRES AT PAIR

"One word out of you yaps and I'll blow your guts out," warned one of the bandits. He dropped one of the cartons of cigarettes.

"Hey! you dropped something," said Clayborne. Enraged at the remark the bandit whirled toward Clayborne and his son and fired two shots in quick succession. The bullets whizzed by the heads of the Claybornes and imbedded themselves in the shelves behind them.

"Another yap like that," cried the bandit, "and I'll not miss." He and his partner then fled in an automobile.

Using a woman confederate to drive their car two bandits held up Charles M. Myazi in his fish market at 1414 Trolley Way and obtained $19.

Concealing a revolver under a handkerchief, a bandit threatened Miss Peggy Conley, cashier in the Chotiner's Theater at 233 North Vermont avenue, and took $100.

W. H. Bozard was held up in his service station at 4997 Huntington Drive by two bandits and robbed of $20.

PEDESTRIAN ROBBED

As he walked near his home at 425 West Twelfth street, San Pedro, J. B. Jamison was stopped by a bandit who threatened to shoot him. He lost $42.

Clerks of two hotels were victims of early morning robberies yesterday. The same pair of bandits were believed responsible for both jobs. In the Morgan Hotel at 629 West Eighth street L. D. Blair handed over $44, and in the Monarch Hotel at 905 West Fifth street, H. N. Willey was robbed of $25. Both bandits carried automatic pistols of large caliber.

Two taxi-cab drivers were victims also of early morning robberies. O. B. Ragan was held up by a negro bandit at Fifteenth and Hoover streets and robbed of $5. Frank Westover, after being confronted with guns in the hands of two bandits at Commercial and First streets, was forced to lie down in the back of the cab while the bandits used the machine to make what the cab driver believed was a delivery of two cases of liquor. They gave him back his cap and cab at Rowen and Brooklyn avenues.

STOREKEEPER HELD-UP

Two bandits who levelled revolvers at J. D. Kaufner in his clothing store at 2414½ North Broadway filled their arms full of sweaters and shirts when they fled to their automobile left parked at the curb.

Just after she had alighted from a street car at Seventh and Bixel streets Miss Harriet Friedell was held up by an armed bandit and robbed of her purse containing $2.50.

Another early morning robbery took place at Melrose avenue and Harvard Boulevard, where J. F. Kraus of 803 North Harvard Boulevard was robbed of $4 by a lone bandit.

Three women were victims of purse snatchers. In one case Miss Wanda Lynn of 729 South Burlington avenue was knocked to the pavement by two youths when they took her purse containing $10.50. Miss Sarah Maler lost $8 to one man at Fourteenth street and Union avenue, and Mrs. Margaret Contrell of 227½ South Western avenue was robbed of her purse containing nothing of value at Third street and Gramercy Place.

Capture of a burglar was effected by Officers Asbill, Witt and Smith of the Lincoln Heights division through the presence of mind of Mrs. John Teran of 724 Lamar street. Mrs. Teran returned home at a late hour Wednesday night and discovered two men ransacking her house. Making as little noise as possible she retraced her steps from her doorway and hurried to a neighbor's where she called the police.

When the officers arrived the burglars were just leaving. One of them escaped. The other was held and gave his name as Andrew Martinez.

AUTO PARTY ROBBED

Harry Friedman, iron and steel manufacturer of Cleveland, O., his wife and E. Kaufman, of 364 North Gardner avenue, were startled last night when an armed bandit forced entrance to their automobile which had drawn up in front of 808 South Hobart Boulevard where the Friedmans are winter tenants.

"Drive where I tell you," the gangster directed E. Kaufman, who had called to give the Friedmans, old friends, a ride.

Kaufman drove to Ninth and Serrano streets on the bandit's orders, where the latter took $100 from the two men and a $35 ring from Mrs. Friedman, stepped out of the car and disappeared.

The Modern Craft Laundry, 3283 West Pico street, was held up last night by an armed bandit who took $30 after cowing Miss Helen Rogers, cashier, with a revolver.

Two men held up the U. S. Grill at 1014 West Sixth street, last night, taking $100 from P. J. Anderson, proprietor, and two men diners.

SHE WAS IDEAL MOTHER-IN-LAW

Woman Mortgaged Home to Pay Son-in-Law's Gambling Debts, Says Wife

What a mother-in-law! She mortgaged her home to pay her son-in-law's gambling debts, it was asserted yesterday by the man's wife, Mrs. Marjory Smith, when she divorced Robert S. Smith.

"My husband started staying out night after night in 1924, gambling." Mrs. Smith told Superior Judge Hahn. "One day he told me he had lost $8000. I got my mother to mortgage her home to raise money to pay off his gambling debts. I was forced to work and take in boarders."

Judge Hahn granted her a divorce. The Smiths married December 1, 1920, at Greenville, and separated November 24, 1929.

"Huh? Who Said Indictment?"

Politician Involved in Investigation

George Brown, known as the "King of Central Avenue," as he appeared when surprised by a cameraman yesterday.

it is declared, is the story unfolded to the jurors:

That a plan was formed by various strong influences in the Central-avenue district to gain a practical monopoly upon bootleg joints and other places of vice. With this in mind, the leaders of the movement sought to control the Newton-street police station. It was planned, it was asserted, to drive all other bootleggers out of the district by hi-jacking their warehouses and arresting the bootleggers and other resort operators. To gain these ends, it was recounted, two ranking police officers and three vice squad men at Newton-street station were approached. Seemingly receptive to the plan, it was further declared, the police officers were able to acquire accurate stenographic and dictaphone reports of the law violators making their proposals to the policemen. In another instance, it was also declared, they were able to trace the disposition of hi-jacked liquor.

The dictaphone conversations were declared to have taken place in the Newton-street police station and to have been listened to by four police officers as well as the court reporter that recorded the conversation. A Federal prohibition agent was called into the investigation of the hi-jacked liquor to insure future corroboration of the police investigation.

In addition to Chief Steckel, those who testified before the grand jury yesterday included George Reynolds, Federal prohibition agent; Louise Moeler, court reporter; Dep. Dist.-Attys. Beecher and McKay, both of whom have handled recent court cases involving colored policemen; Capts. Jack Trainor and Harry Hager, in charge of personnel at Newton-street station, and Officers Bergman, Howard and Light of the Central-avenue vice squad. A colored man by the name of Smith was also questioned by the jurors.

POINTS TO BOMBING

Macbeth in talking to newspaper men yesterday made no secret of a long-standing friendship with Brown. He said that he believed his friend is the victim of a "frame-up" and announced his decision to defend Brown to the last. He pointed to a recent explosion, asserted to have been caused by a bomb, that recently wrecked a portion of Brown's house, as corroboration of his assertion that Brown had enemies that wished his undoing.

Brown has frequently been called the "king of Central avenue," and has been credited with a strong influence in swinging the usually solid colored vote. Macbeth recently described himself as a "missionary" to Central avenue, interested mainly in keeping the colored belt clean morally.

135 South Main street when he was struck by an automobile at First and Main streets early yesterday morning. After receiving emergency treatment at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, he was transferred to the General Hospital.

In attempting to avoid a collision with another machine, Andrew Warren Guthrie, 26, of 629 West Vernon avenue swerved his automobile into a telephone pole at Avalon Boulevard and Slauson avenue and suffered internal injuries which may prove fatal. He was also taken to the General Hospital after treatment at the Receiving Hospital.

WOMAN SAVES BABY

Barbara Lou Switzer, 21 months of age, was in an automobile with her mother, Mrs. A. O. Switzer, and a family friend, Mrs. Frank Emigh, all of Santa Barbara, when it left the Roosevelt Coast Highway near the Ventura county line yesterday and started on a 100-foot plunge down an embankment.

Without thought of self, Mrs. Emigh, holding Barbara Lou on her lap while Mrs. Switzer was driving, wrapped the baby in a heavy coat trimmed with fur.

In consequence, Barbara Lou was her usual happy self last night, with only a slight scratch on her face.

Mrs. Emigh may have a broken back and Mrs. Switzer suffered a dangerous gash in the right leg.

MERCY MURDER TRIAL BEGINS

Mrs. Ruth Weimer Hopes for Freedom on Insanity Plea

Selection of Jury Expected to Occupy Court Today

Both State and Defendant Will Employ Alienists

Accused of the "mercy murder" of her sister, Mrs. Mabel Steele, in her home at 418 East Thirty-seventh street on September 14, Mrs. Ruth Weimer went to trial late yesterday afternoon in Superior Judge Fricke's court.

Selection of the jury probably will require the entire time of the court today, according to George Stahlman, deputy District Attorney prosecuting the case.

Mrs. Weimer, through her attorney, Nathan O. Freedman, has pleaded not guilty by reason of insanity. Consequently the trial will be a contest between prosecution and defense alienists.

The woman told officers shortly after her arrest that she yielded to a sudden and irresistible impulse to kill her sister after Mrs. Steele had prayed for death for days because of grief for the loss of her two children who had been taken away by her estranged husband.

the employees of the Department of Water and Power.

The money is to be expended through the Social Service Commission. Scott wishes to put about 500 men to work on firebreaks. Van Norman said work on reservoirs in the San Fernando Valley and in Boquet Canyon may employ another 500.

The men chosen to do the work, so far as is possible, will be worthy persons with families to support, it was stated. It is hoped to pay them $4 a day for a three-day week.

City Health Officer Parrish suggested a bond issue of $1,000,000.

Citizens and industrial leaders already have sent in checks to the fund, the Mayor said. He declared the money will not be used for charitable purposes, leaving that angle to the Community Chest, the purpose of the Municipal Unemployment Relief Committee being to provide work for needy men.

"Despite the fact that we have economized by using much of the material from last year's installation, we have endeavored to give employment to as many people as possible. With this in mind, we have had a crew of more than thirty men and women at work for the last two months.

"Use of Christmas trees for decorative purposes should not be misconstrued. Experts on forestry say that removal of these firs does no damage to the dense forests from which they are taken, since surrounding trees require more space for growth.

The downtown decorations will be illuminated for the first time next Friday evening, accompanied by ceremonies.

ganizations that aided in the widespread search.

"The co-operation we received from the Federal services, private flyers and residents of the Lebec district was remarkable," Hamilton said. "I wish to thank the men who took to the air in the hunt and those who trudged over the mountains from Lebec, Gorman and Antelope Valley."

Donaldson, 31 years of age, resided at 1027 North Alameda street, Burbank. He was a veteran army and commercial pilot and leaves his widow and his mother there; a brother, Grant, who is a pilot for P.A.T. between Oakland and San Jose and who joined the air search, and two brothers at Milford, Iowa.

Rogers, also 31, leaves his widow and 5-year-old daughter, Joyce, at the family residence, 839 North Frederick avenue, Burbank. He was chief mechanic here for P.A.T. and was in the cabin with Miss Schmidt as a passenger, en route to Oakland on company business.

CHICAGO PLAN GIVEN PRAISE

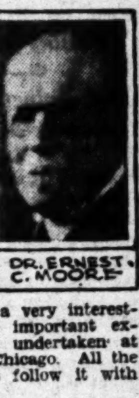
scope than that set forth in the report of the University of Chicago plan are now in process at a number of colleges, it is most promising and commendable that an institution of the standing and character of the University of Chicago can gather up many of these and carry them out in a progressive way. More strength to the arm of that progressive leadership."

NEW COURAGE, SAYS MOORE

Dr. Ernest C. Moore, director of the University of California at Los Angeles, said that not only he but many other members of his faculty and administrative staff had been deeply interested in the Chicago report.



DR. ERNEST C. MOORE

"I don't feel free to comment on the plan at length until I have studied it in greater detail," he added, "but from what I read in this morning's Times it is evident that a very interesting and obviously important experiment is to be undertaken at the University of Chicago. All the world is bound to follow it with keen interest.

"The hope which underlies the experiment is not a new one, but the courage to attempt the realization of that hope at such a large institution is new."

Dr. Remsen D. Bird, president of Occidental College, confessed that the news of the Chicago plan had given him a distinct thrill. He has been keenly interested in the development of the educational idea which underlies it, he said, and has closely followed the beginnings made at smaller institutions toward realizing that idea.

DR. REMSEN D. BIRD

There may be many colleges which desire to put similar plans into effect, he said, but the matter of expense has kept them from doing so, as it requires a larger teaching staff than the present college system and more extensive facilities than most colleges possess. Probably the first sponsor in this country of the idea is Dr. Frank Aydelotte, president of Swarthmore College, who was a Rhodes scholar and brought with him from Oxford University an enthusiasm for the Oxford system of "reading for honors," which seems to be one of the foundations of the Chicago plan.

EXPERIMENT SUCCESSFUL

Swarthmore College has been for several years allowing students the freedom from classroom routine incident to the "reading for honors" system and the cost of the experiment has been donated by the Rockefeller General Education Board, Dr. Bird said. Since the University of Chicago is endowed mainly with Rockefeller donations, he pointed out, it is evident that the Swarthmore experiment is regarded as successful to the extent that it has gone.

"Since certain items of the plan have already been given a trial," Dr. Bird said, "it is the fact that an institution of the caliber of the University of Chicago is putting such a plan into effect that impresses me most.

"The University of Chicago is looked upon as one of the most significant and progressive educational institutions in America. With its high standards and magnificent equipment, it is in a position to carry on its experiment in a manner that will have an enormous influence on education throughout the country. I believe it is decidedly a step in the right direction."

CHARGE IN HULME CASE DISMISSED

Court Orders Hit-and-Run Count in Auto Death Trial of Realty Man Dropped

Dismissal of a charge of failure to stop and render aid after an automobile accident, was ordered by Superior Judge Schauer yesterday at the trial of Phillip D. Hulme, Alhambra real estate man, who is being tried on a manslaughter charge as the result of a fatal automobile accident. David R. Thomas, victim of the accident, was run down and killed on the Seventh-street bridge August 10, last.

The prosecution charges that Hulme drove the death car because his hat was found in the vicinity of the accident.

Presentation of evidence was finished by the State yesterday afternoon and the defense opened by calling a number of character witnesses. They were followed by several physicians who testified that any statements made by Hulme immediately after the accident might have been influenced by reason of the fact that he was suffering from a head injury.

Earlier in the trial the prosecution charged that Hulme had admitted to police that he had had an accident on the Seventh-street bridge and that he saw a body lying in the street.

Court Guards Man's Right to Tip Barber

When a man gets to be 86 years of age and his face gets tender instead of tough, and shaving scratches, he is not mentally incompetent if he tips a barber $5 for a smooth shave, Superior Judge Crail decided yesterday in the case of Frederick I. Whitaker.

Washington Turner, a friend of Whitaker, came into court on a request to be appointed the elderly man's guardian, on the ground that he was squandering his savings. For instance, it was asserted, he tipped barbers as much as $5.

"If a smooth shave is worth $5 to me, and I have the $5, I don't see why I shouldn't spend my money that way," said Whitaker. "I probably haven't got much longer to live, and I don't see why I shouldn't be comfortable while I last."

Judge Crail assented to this philosophical logic, and adjudged the respondent mentally sound.

ANGELENOS PREFER DIAMONDS

Paris Pearl Merchant Disapproves

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Grillon

If PEARLS typify culture, Los Angeles still is largely in the savage state, according to G. L. Grillon, pearl merchant of Paris, who returned from a disappointing buying trip to pearl fisheries of Mazatlan yesterday on the Panama Mail liner El Salvador.

"Los Angeles, and particularly Hollywood, prefers diamonds," he said. "Perhaps it is just the theatrical bent," he explained. "I do not indict you people because you don't buy pearls. But I do think what pearls you buy you ought to buy of your own merchants, not from New York."

Paris still is the world's clearing-house for pearls, into which are introduced $20,000,000 to $30,000,000 of new discoveries yearly, he said.

Mazatlan pearls lack an inner shiny quality and never will be great, he said. Mr. Grillon is accompanied by his wife. They continued on the ship last night to San Francisco, whence they will return to New York and Paris.

Wife, Parted From Husband, Ends Her Life

Carrying out a threat made frequently since she separated from her husband a year ago, Mrs. Margaret Irwin, 18 years of age, yesterday ended her life, according to the theory of Sheriff's officers. She was found dead in her mother's home at 12212 South Alpine street, Lynwood.

Returning from an errand the mother, Mrs. Edward H. Schuster, discovered her daughter's body on the bathroom floor. She ran from the house and collapsed on the lawn. A passerby, O. D. Deirkens, 924 North Hicks street, revived her and called Dr. H. V. Chrisman, who in turned summoned Deputy Sheriffs Gompert and Cloud. They found in the bathroom a china cup containing crystals which analysis later showed to be poison.

The body is at the Limber mortuary, Lynwood.

Pacific Lodge Anniversary Banquet Set

Featuring a remarkable growth from a small beginning to an institution free of debt valued at $190,000, Pacific Lodge Boys' Home at Girard will celebrate its eighth anniversary with a banquet Monday evening at the First Methodist Church, Los Angeles. Dr. Robert Freeman of Pasadena, one of those responsible for the founding of the institution, is to deliver the chief address. Frank Tyrell, Los Angeles attorney, will be toastmaster.

The United Church Brotherhoods, long closely identified with Pacific Lodge, are uniting with the Protestant Welfare Association, which administers the affairs of the lodge, in holding this annual celebration.

IMPROVEMENT OF GIFT LOTS GIVEN APPROVAL

Improvement of nineteen lots of Alma Park at Twenty-first and Meyler streets, San Pedro, which were donated to the city several years ago by George H. Peck, San Pedro realty dealer, was approved by the Park Commission yesterday after former Councilman Colden had appeared before the board in behalf of the plan. The property consisting of a canyon split by Twenty-first street, is to have lawns, walks and a series of connected pools constructed at an estimated cost of $5500.

BOARDS OF EDUCATION TO PLAN LEGISLATION

The Los Angeles Board of Education will be represented at a conference of members of school boards of the metropolitan district which has been arranged by L. E. Olson of the Glendale board for the purpose of discussing legislation covering school topics which may be suggested to the next session of the State Legislature. The meeting will be held at the board room of the Glendale board on December 5 at 8 p.m.

CAMPAIGN FOR CHEST NEARS END

Workers Believe Tardy Subscribers Will Respond to Fund Deficit Drive

With 75 per cent of the Community Chest campaign fund of $3,200,000 now in hand, leaving an unsubscribed balance of $800,000 yet to be accounted for, the army of volunteer workers are now covering the last stretch of the community-wide solicitation of donations needed to finance the maintenance expense of the 124 welfare and relief agencies during the coming year. The team workers will meet to make reports of additional subscriptions at a luncheon in the Biltmore at noon today.

Substantial reports are expected, according to Campaign Chairman J. A. H. Kerr, from the business and industrial divisions. Central division committeemen, who have yet to report on cards of prospective donors that should aggregate an additional $200,000 or $300,000, are exerting themselves to produce their full quotas.

The Mayor's "Million Dollar Committee," with its two groups of business and financial leaders, headed by Harry Chandler and Russell H. Ballard, is rapidly nearing its goal of $1,150,000.

The fact that there are more than 37,000 subscribers to last year's campaign whose renewals have not yet been received, is serving as an impetus to the workers to carry on to a successful finish.

Flood Control Quiz Broadened

Broadening its investigation of flood control matters to embrace virtually all dam projects in Los Angeles county, the county grand jury yesterday subpoenaed minutes from the Board of Supervisors concerning meetings held between February 7 and 10, last, when the site for the Big Tujunga Dam site was purchased.

Although no one would comment upon the nature of the inquiry, it was reported that the investigation is intended to ascertain whether or not the county was charged an exhorbitant price for the dam site.

AWARD OF DAMAGES TO NURSE AFFIRMED

An award by the Industrial Accident Commission to Bessie Halperin, formerly a nurse in the Los Angeles County Hospital, who suffered injuries to her back and one hip when she fell on a cement floor, was affirmed yesterday by Division Two, District Court of Appeal. The nurse was adjudged entitled to reasonable medical expenses and payments for about six months. Justice Thompson wrote the decision, which was concurred in by Justice Craig and Justice Archbald, pro tem.

JUDGMENT FOR BEETSON AGAINST CLUB AFFIRMED

Finding that an inference of negligence was well nigh irresistible, Division One, District Court of Appeal, yesterday affirmed a Superior Court judgment, with a slight modification, in an action brought by Fred W. Beetson against the Hollywood Athletic Club for damages asserted to have been suffered in connection with the theft of an automobile left in the club's parking station.

The Superior Court awarded Beetson damages in the sum of $1044.55. This amount was reduced $153 on the ground that the plaintiff had failed to provide proof that certain expenses incurred in prosecuting a search for the machine were necessary and reasonable. Certain other minor matters figured in the deduction.

The opinion, written by Pro Tem Justice Hollzer and concurred in by Presiding Justice Conrey and Associate Justice Houser, recited that Beetson left the machine with a club parking station attendant on the night of March 1, 1925. An hour later the machine was gone and the station was unattended. The attendant had not taken the keys from the parked machines and turned them over to club officials, it was further pointed out.

The court recites that the club agreed to use "due caution in its protection of automobiles left in its care." It found that the club had not exercised such caution. The machine was recovered later in Texas.

NEW YORK ENGINEER DUE HERE

Eastern Water Expert to Arrive Tomorrow to Aid Aqueduct Route Survey

Thaddeus Merriman, chief engineer of the waterworks department of New York City, will arrive in Los Angeles tomorrow to take up his duties as member of the consulting board of engineers who will investigate and pass upon the tentative selection of the Parker route for the Colorado River aqueduct, it was stated yesterday. The two other members of the board who have been in the city some days studying the plans are A. J. Wiley of Boise, Idaho, and Richard R. Lyman of Salt Lake City.

The consulting board will formally receive the plans and a letter of instuctions on procedure to be followed at a meeting of the board of directors of the Metropolitan District next Tuesday. The selection of the Parker route was announced last week by Chief Engineer Weymouth. Although no official statement was made as to how long the consulting board will require to reach a conclusion on the data assembled by Weymouth and his assistants, it is thought that the final selection may be made before the end of next month.

NEWS OF THE CAFES

Having made its debut last night at a premiere attended by many of Hollywood's foremost celebrities, the new Roosevelt Orchestra is playing nightly in the Blossom Room of the Roosevelt Hotel. With the advent of the new dance music group in the supper room, "special nights" will be featured each week. Friday will be "Collegiate Night," the first of these events to take place this evening, and Monday will be "Celebrity Night," featuring a headline entertainment program and other attractions. The smart tea dansant will take place in the Blossom Room on Sturday afternoons and on Saturday evenings "Carnival Night" will be the attraction. Appearing nightly with the new Roosevelt Orchestra will be a number of headline entertainers, including Johnny Murray, "the personality boy," and the Hollywood Starlets Trio, a group of pretty girls who can sing.

OPENING POSTPONED

Owing to the fact that more time is required by Jack Schultze, studio art director and designer, for completion of the elaborate interior of Al Levy's Tavern, new restaurant on Vine street between Hollywood Boulevard and Selma avenue, postponement of the date of opening from December 1 to on or about December 15, is announced. The Tavern, which will be operated by Levy, veteran Los Angeles restauranteur, and John Mann will represent an investment of more than $200,000 when completed and is to cater to the most discriminating patronage. Its opening will be marked by special features, including lights, music and other attractions. Reservations for the event now are being received at Levy's Grill on Spring street, which is also operated by Al Levy and Mann, his business associate.

CHINESE COOKING FEATURED

Lem's Chinese Cafe, located in the heart of Chinatown, is said to be one of the oldest of its kind in the Chinese and Japanese quarters. George Lem, proprietor, is one of the real old-timers of the city and has so arranged his cafe that one may dine and not only obtain real Chinese cooking but also enjoy a distinct Chinese atmosphere. Service is available at all hours and there is music.

NOTABLES AT LUNCHEON

The Hollywood Plaza Pig'n Whistle presented quite an animated scene on Wednesday, with a crowd of pre-Christmas shoppers lunching at its cosy tables. Frank Averill, manager, was quite a busy host. One noticed among those present Mildred Harris, Eric Mayne. Al Martin was host to six men guests and received congratulations from others on the success of his book, "Dog Gone Hollywood. Franklin Pangborn was the center of a party, Gabriel Ravenelle of another. Jason Robards and Ivan Lebedeff also were hosts.

MERCHANT ACCUSED OF MISTREATING GIRLS

Two charges of abusing minor children yesterday were filed against Glenn Gilmore, prominent Santa Monica candy manufacturer, in a complaint issued by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Ferguson. Gilmore is accused of mistreating Birdalee McCoy, 10 years of age, and Betty Jeanne Towlerton, 9, who also live in Santa Monica.

LITTER REPORT ADOPTED

Inasmuch as the political campaign is over and done with, the Police and Fire Committee reported to the City Council that nothing be done about complaints of citizens against the indiscriminate tossing of campaign literature upon doorsteps and lawns. The Council adopted the report.

OKLAHOMA PICNIC SET

The Oklahoma State Society will hold its midwinter picnic January 18, 1931, at Bixby Park, Long Beach, Miller K. Hinds, president, announced yesterday.

DRAGNET TRAPS EASTERN GANG

Terror Band Seized in Raids on Hideouts

Twelve Men and Woman Taken Prisoner

Robberies and Kidnapings Laid to Suspects

Coincident with the dragnet arrests of twelve men and a woman, seized in surprise raids on four "hideout" apartments in various parts of the city, Captain of Detectives Chitwood of the narcotic squad announced yesterday he is convinced police have in custody the "terror band" of kidnapers reported through underworld sources to have come to Los Angeles from eastern points several weeks ago.

Capt. Chitwood not only credited the band with scores of hold-ups and robberies in the current crime wave in Los Angeles, but added he has reliable information that descending on this city, as a lucrative field for their operations, they have kidnaped two persons of wealth if not prominence.

DEATH THREATENED

These kidnapings had not been reported by the victims, but it is a peculiarity of the methods employed by the "terror band" that those abducted refrain from calling in the police for fear they will meet death at the hands of the narcotic-fortified kidnapers and killers, according to the information received by Chitwood.

Today full descriptions of the twelve men and the woman, are on their way to Chicago, Kansas City and New York whence the members of the band are said to have been recruited, before coming together at East St. Louis from which city they made their journey to Los Angeles, says Capt. Chitwood.

Tomorrow the thirteen prisoners will be viewed at a public showing at Central Station by scores of victims in recent robberies and hold-ups and Capt. Chitwood says he is convinced positive identifications will result. Meanwhile, only one general charge has been lodged against those taken in the raids, suspicion of violation of the narcotic law.

TIP FROM UNDERWORLD

The raids yesterday resulted from information Chitwood says he received through underworld sources, and from investigation which was said to have disclosed that whereas the accused lived at widely separated points they were all known to each other and frequently held secret meetings.

With Chitwood yesterday when the round-up was started were ten members of the police narcotic squad and two investigators from the State narcotic division.

They went first to 664 East Adams street where they took into custody three suspects who described themselves as Albert Kemps, 22 years of age, Harold J. Stansberry, 31, both living in the East Adams street apartment, and Sam Strong, 35, who gave his address as 2024 South Dunsmuir avenue.

Swiftly the three other asserted "hideout" apartments were visited.

WOMAN AMONG FOUR

At 637 North Bronson avenue were found four additional suspects, one of them a woman, describing themselves as Margaret Bryce, 25, living at the scene of the raid; Howard J. Smith, 37, of 5213 Monte Vista street; George Scott, 29, of 1716 West Thirty-ninth street and Ernest Stocker, 38, of 6171 St. Albons street.

At 536 North Juanita avenue were arrested George S. Wilson, alias George S. Kerr, 41, of 460 South Burlington avenue; Tony Long, alias Tony Latronica, 32, of 4258 Budlong avenue; Jack McNeil, 37, of 8421 Clinton street; Ray Sealock, 26, of 1869 North Los Angeles street; Ben Nicholes, alias George Patterson, 38, of 536 North Juanita avenue.

And at 6518 Third avenue the raiders found and took into custody Paul Cook, 32, who said he lived at that address.

In the apartment at 536 North Juanita avenue the raiders charge they found four "bindles" of morphine and a large supply of hypodermic needles.

The twelve men and the woman were taken to Central Station and new details of men went in search of what Chitwood says he was told is a cache of arms established by the reputed terror kidnap band.

In all cases where underworld mobsmen operate on an extensive scale in co-operation with each other, the modern practice, tried out first in Chicago and then extended to other cities, is to maintain an arsenal at some point well removed from the habitations of the criminals or their known haunts.

The revolvers, automatics, machine guns and other weapons are housed in the care of a custodian, and only dealt out when some "job" is to be undertaken by the gang.

Chitwood says he was told by agents in the underworld that such a cache of arms had been established here, and added he is certain it will soon be found.

FINGERPRINTS TAKEN

He stated that in addition to their other crime activities the band operated extensively at hijacking, according to what he had been told, but that the victims, as in the kidnaping cases, refrained from making known their losses for fear of such punishment as gangland since going into big business has learned how to inflict.

Chitwood said he expected, through the descriptions sent to Chicago, Kansas City, New York, East St. Louis and other cities, to obtain a complete check-up on the operations of the suspects, the majority of whom, the head of the narcotic detail said, have police records.

Fingerprints were taken yesterday of the thirteen and sent with the other data to the police of the eastern cities.

Finally, Chitwood says, his men learned the band had obtained possession of a police captain's badge, a police sergeant's badge and a Federal officer's badge in Los Angeles to aid them in their asserted criminal operations.

Today's Bible Text

Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God, and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not, knoweth not God; for God is love.—I John iv:7, 8.

PROMISING FUTURE

Manufactured products pass the billion mark in Los Angeles county. And the Colorado River water hasn't even started this way.

SEEING THROUGH THE FOG

Evidently the wet victories in certain States didn't have the effect of dazzling the Hoover commission so that it couldn't see the difference between right and wrong.

RIDING ROUGHSHOD

It is to be hoped that Clyde Plummer will live up to the handle tacked to his name by an evening newspaper. The Chicago brand of gangster is not the kind to handle with kid gloves.

WOULD HELP SOME

Without holding any envy for the farmers, a lot of other producers wish right now there was some kind of a national board to buy up their goods. Let us hope that the speeding of big public jobs will act as a substitute.

SMALL POTATOES

Obeying literally the Biblical command, "despise not the day of small things," a native of Los Angeles has made a success in life by discovering a unique manner in which to use those traditionally despised objects, "small potatoes." He cans them.

PREVENTION BETTER THAN CURE

The predatory gangs running loose in Los Angeles seem to be working in accord. When the rackets become so profitable that the leaders start fighting among themselves and the "rides" become a marked feature of the daily news, then the City of Our Lady, Queen of the Angels, may become known as "the Chicago of the Pacific Coast."

AUK-WARD FOR BIRD

The skeleton of the great auk which has just been sent to the museum at the University of California has brought to light the fact that though the bird had wings it could not use them for flying. That perhaps accounts for these birds becoming extinct when natives tried to drive them from their habitat. Evidently they did not choose to run.

A REGRETTABLE LOSS

All true sportsmen among the football fans of Southern California will regret the loss to Notre Dame of the great back, Savoldi. They would like to see the best team that Rockne has been able to put forth this season pitted against the Trojans. The effect, now, will be the same as if Howard Jones had "spotted" the Irish coach a Duffield or a Mohler.

THE CALL TO ARMS

Men and women respond readily to the call to arms in time of war, but true patriotism can be demonstrated just as vigorously now by taking a stand for the ideals of decency and democracy, the principles upon which the stability of this country was founded. And only by being armed with knowledge of the real conditions can the situation be met.

READING THE NEWS

Once in a while one hears an individual boast of not reading the newspapers and this leads one to speculate on whether or not the people who buy gold bricks, the women who are fleeced by knave and charlatan, the girls who are taken in by quack advertisements, are among that same class who are not informed as to the wily ways of the shark and shyster.

CHICKEN SURGERY

The fact that a chicken's life was saved by surgery at Beaverton, Or., seemed of such importance that a wire story was sent out regarding it. Such operations are performed in Los Angeles every day by a bird surgeon, who operates on canaries, parrots, chickens and other winged creatures. The surgeon is a woman and she sometimes has as many as fifteen broken bird legs a day to set and she has never lost a case in her emergency hospital for birds, where she cares for all wild birds free of charge.

HOOVER ON CHILDREN

In directing attention to the fact that childhood is, after all, the fundamental national problem, President Hoover has done more than merely given a temporary boost to the child-welfare movement. He has set people to thinking, and made a probably permanent impression upon the national consciousness, which never again will be able to forget his vivid presentation and summation, not alone of the problem itself, but of its importance to society, present and future. The child is the point where present and future meet.

The statistical form in which the President cast the outline of the problem makes it easily comprehensible. Of 45,000,000 children, he said, 35,000,000 will be normal or supernormal, while 10,000,000 will be defective in some respect—6,000,000 improperly nourished, 1,000,000 with defective speech, 1,000,000 with weak or damaged hearts, 675,000 presenting behavior problems, 450,000 mentally retarded, 382,000 are tuberculous, 342,000 have impaired hearing, 18,000 are totally deaf, 300,000 are crippled, 50,000 are partially blind, 14,000 wholly so, 200,000 are delinquent and 500,000 are dependent.

Of these 10,000,000 some 8,000,000 are not receiving proper attention, though experience has proved that many if not most could be restored to approximate normality. The ranks of criminals and ne'er-do-wells are recruited, in the main, from these 8,000,000.

The brighter side of the picture is the 35,000,000 healthy, happy youngsters, of whom 1,500,000 will be supernormal or specially gifted. These furnish backbone and leadership to future civilization. But these 35,000,000 are not less a problem because of their normality.

They must be adjusted to an increasingly complex civilization, a mechanized, urban age. "In the last half a century," said the President, "we have herded 50,000,000 more human beings into cities and towns where the whole setting is new to the race. We have created highly congested areas with a thousand changes resulting in the swift transition from a rural and agrarian people to an urban, industrial nation. . . . Nor is our problem only with the city child. We have grave responsibilities with the rural child. . . . Since science discovered the cause of communicable disease, protection from these diseases is as much an obligation to them as to the child of the city. The child of the country is handicapped by lack of some cultural influences extended by the city. We must find ways and means of extending these influences. Some of the natural advantages of the country child must somehow be given back to the city child—more space in which to play, contact with nature and natural processes. . . . Architectural wizardry and artistic skill are transforming our cities into wonderlands of beauty, but we must also preserve in them for our children the yet more beautiful art of living."

Radical changes in the home have taken place and accentuated the problem, the President pointed out. This once fine training school for adolescents has largely given way to outside influences, at a time when the need for training is increasingly great. "Our children," he continued, "must be prepared to meet entirely new contacts and new forces. They must be physically strong and mentally placed to stand up under the increasing pressure of life. Their problem, the President pointed out. This once but of mental, emotional and spiritual health.

"These are a part of the problems that I charge you to answer. The task you have come here to perform has never been done before."

In his peroration the President pointed out that child betterment is really the original impulse which inspired the foundation of the nation.

"It burns as a flame in us as a people," he went on. "Kindled in our country by our first pioneers, who came here to better the opportunities for their children rather than themselves, passed on from one generation to the next, it has never dimmed nor died.

"Indeed, human progress marches only when children excel their parents."

This child welfare conference was set in motion by President Hoover a year ago, during which an intensive study of various phases has been going on. The study and the work will continue and are expected to accomplish co-ordination and extension of existing child welfare agencies, with the setting up of such new agencies as seem to be needed.

OH, SUGAR!

"Oh, sugar!" is more than just a mild expression of the safety valve. Prof. Donald A. Laird, director of the laboratory of Colgate University, reports certain findings in the Review of Reviews.

Sugar has long been regarded as a source of energy; however, few definite experiments have been made to reduce it to a science. Teams have been given sugar during contests and soldiers have been fed on it before and after forced marches with notable results. But it seems to have remained for Colgate to work out a formula.

Twelve subjects for test were chosen and divided into two squads, A and B. Six young men in squad A were treated and watched six days. The first three days they were given 2.3 ounces of sweets in solution with lemon forty minutes before exercising. The last three days they were given a sugarless combination flavored with lemon so that the mind might not be influenced.

The other six subjects constituting squad B were given a sugarless solution and served only the first three days of the experiment.

Squad A, having sugar, had a gain in speed of 3.7 per cent. The sugarless squad B had a loss of 2.1 per cent. Squad A, which had a test both with and without sugar, had a gain as already noted of 3.7 per cent; but a loss of 5.2 per cent the last three days without sugar.

Up to the present time we have employed sugar to stimulate participants in endurance contests in love making on the sofa. They often lasted far into the night. Now the dub may use the same means to strengthen him to endure eighteen holes. Football elevens between halves may build up their morale by passing a box of chocolates.

Once athletes thought alcohol turned the trick. But long since booze has been taboo on the athletic field. Now the innocent cube of sugar has come into its own.

And when the gentlemanly golfer in the rough chirps, "Oh, sugar!" he is calling for help that is real.

THE EDISON BUDGET

Expenditure of more than $28,000,000 in extensions and improvements is budgeted by the Southern California Edison Company for next year. Not only does this show faith in the future of this region, but it will aid materially in making business hum in 1931. The expenditures amount to $2,330,000 a month, much of which will go into pay rolls. There will be an increase of the company's electric output of 7 to 10 per cent, meaning an enormous block of power to turn the wheels of industry.

The budget provides for enlarging the steam plant at Long Beach by adding another huge turbo-generator of 135,000 horsepower, to cost with fuel equipment $8,620,000. There also will be vast additions to the distributing system and the company's new building at Fifth street and Grand avenue will be completed. About 5100 employees will be maintained on the pay roll thoughout the year.

THE MACHINE AGE

Another cause of unemployment is the machine age. We have a machine that opens the bedroom window at night and closes it in the morning. We have a machine that blows wind into our homes and offices and another that sucks the old air out. They all but breathe for us.

A machine stokes the furnace and carries out the ashes. Another contrivance furnishes music while we sit in the boudoir and by a twist of the wrist turns into a minister and preaches a sermon. One contraption does the milking and another churns the butter. And now we have an invention that shuffles and deals the deck of cards.

Like Tom Sawyer we work everybody and everybody in sight to do our working for us:

While nothing has yet been invented to drive off the tee and do our swearing in rough for us, yet this will doubtless come in time. Even our bread now comes already sliced to save us the arduous toil.

We even outsail Thomas Lipton by means of mechanical gadgets. We no longer need to count; the adding machine does it for us. Nor is there great necessity for a chauffeur; the radio beacon controls the car. We have ceased singing "Work for the night is coming," and just push a button. We sew and rip by machinery and a couple recently got married by telegraph. The time is not far off when we shall be born in an incubator and we have already started dying by machinery.

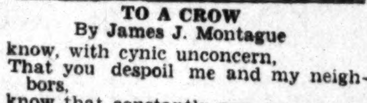
It is all a mistake to say that this unemployment is among the poor. The rich suffer more from it than the poor. It is found more in the palaces than in the hovels. We are losing the use of our limbs and faculties by unemployment. It is debilitating in the extreme and filling the world with ennui.

It looks as though the only cure for the unemployment of the age would be to scrap all our machines and go primitive again.

FRATERNIZING

Hawaii and the Trojan University played together in the Coliseum. Mexico came and wrestled with Occidental on the gridiron. Nothing has bound Japan and the United States together like the Trojan baseball team playing in Japan a season or so ago.

Even the East is coming to have high regard for the West by virtue of our prowess on the gridiron. They laughed at our boastings and receive our publicity coldly. But when they are thrown for a fifteen-yard loss, they take time out to rub their eyes. When St. Mary's goes back East and knocks the daylight out of Fordham, a new respect for the West springs up. Eleven wriggling, twisting, plunging, trampling masses of California sunshine on an eastern gridiron back up publicity with a touchdown or two to make it stick.



TO A CROW

By James J. Montague

I know, with cynic unconcern,
That you despoil me and my neighbors,
I know that constantly you spurn
All useful, necessary labors,
And when I loll beneath the sky
And gentle slumber overtakes me,
The minute that I nod, your cry
Awakes me.

You're conscienceless and bold and rude,
It's your delight to play the dickens
When you go forth in search of food.
To terrorize defenseless chickens.
The partridge, filled with awful fears,
Alarms the woodside with its drumming
And hides its children when it hears
You coming.

I'm told you have no honest trait,
No kindly or redeeming features,
And that you well have earned the hate
Of all your feathered fellow-creatures.
I'm sure that you would steal or kill
Should any evil fancy strike you,
I know you have no heart, but still
I like you.

Your attitude toward all mankind
Is one of insolent derision,
But you are skillfully designed,
And highly pleasing to the vision.
I can endure your lofty scorn,
But that is merely incidental,
I like you just because you're orn-Amental.

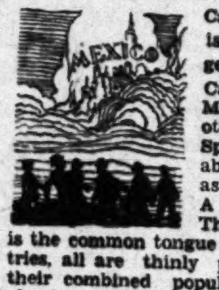
DE TODOS MODOS EL IDIOMA ES HERMOSO

Harelip Spanish

Ever since talking pictures came in the producers have been worrying over what kind of Spanish to use in Spanish talkies. Senor A. A. Loyo, teacher of Spanish and leading spirit in a group in which Americans who speak Spanish and people from many Spanish-speaking countries are represented, assures us that the pure Castilian Spanish most favored in American high schools and universities is spoken by less than 10 per cent of the Spanish-speaking people of the world and by only about one-third of the people of Spain.

"The reason why the people of South America, Central America, Mexico and the Philippines speak 'Mexican' Spanish rather than Castilian Spanish," he says, "is that the Spaniards who settled those countries did not speak with the Castilian lisp. The story is that once there was a Prince of Castile who had a harelip. To put him at ease, the nobility began speaking with a lisp, and eventually it became the court language. But the adventurers who went out and conquered most of the world for Spain were not courtiers. They were soldiers and sailors and priests who spoke the language of the majority of the Spanish people and in the new countries the affected lisp never took root. In Spain today Castilian Spanish is spoken generally only in Castile and in Madrid. In the other provinces Spanish is spoken about the same as it is in Latin America. Though Spanish is the common tongue of many countries, all are thinly populated and their combined population is only about 90,000,000. Of that total only about 8,000,000 speak Castilian Spanish."



Turning Toward Mexico

Senor Loyo also informs us that a great many young Angelenos now are preparing to go to Mexico. "The fact that new jobs are not so plentiful here just now," he says, "naturally makes young men and women just out of school think of going to other countries, and as South American affairs are unsettled they are especially interested in Mexico. Lately I have had to adapt the standard American shorthand courses to fit the Spanish language, for the benefit of students who plan to go to Mexico in secretarial positions. It is a historic fact that whenever there is business depression in populous areas adventurous and restless spirits move to 'new country' in which opportunities are greater for the simple reason that there are fewer people to take advantage of them. When this depression is only dimly remembered we may find that because of it Mexico and the United States are bound together by thousands of new ties of association and friendship."

He Who Gets Slapped

Leeside: Your story about the efficiency expert who put a time clock in his kitchen for his wife to punch struck me as conveying such a good idea that I tried it on my wife. I hope to be able to be about again in another week. Next time you have a bright idea on how to run a household will you kindly draw your friends aside and whisper it to them softly, but not print it? Remember this is the age of the suffragette and the farmerette, but not of the etiquette, and it isn't always the clock which gets punched.—A. E. K.

Thanks for trying out the idea and letting us know, A. E. K. We had suspected that suggesting it to some one else might be safer than trying it ourself.

Red-Haired Negroes

The oddest thing we saw as we strolled about town yesterday was a red-haired negro. The traffic cop at First and Main pointed him out to us. "There are two or three of them here," he said, "and there is also one red-haired Japanese."

LESSON OF THE SOUTH AMERICAN REVOLUTIONS

BY J. L. TEJADA

II

[This is last of two articles by Mr. Tejada on South American affairs.]

President Irigoyen returned to the Presidency of the Argentine Republic in 1928, chosen by the will of the Argentine people in a free election. Revolution has, therefore, deprived him of a legitimate and legal title, which has not happened in the cases of Peru and Bolivia, where the people simply threw out of the house of government citizens who absolutely lacked a legal title to preside over the executive functions.

The origins of the governments lately overthrown were, therefore, as is seen, entirely different, but their effects are characterized by violence and administrative disorder, which thus have come to be the common denominator of the three fallen administrations. Their conduct has been lamentable for the respective countries. Outside of the normal undervaluation of law, and of the arbitrary cancellation of individual guaranties, neglect and peculation have permitted great inroads into the public treasury; all the personal attachments were obtained and maintained at the cost of the public treasury; through the medium of bounties, contracts, or subventions the public works represented a tremendously rich mine for the favorites of the governments and the official functions degenerated into agencies of bribery and of oppression. The internal and external public debt has reached extraordinary levels in the three countries, and they are not found to be represented by works or investments that justify the debts.

And this whole situation has continued for years. The peoples affected by it were finding themselves practically hopeless because of the notorious and inopportune attacks of the disease, and physically impotent to repel by force the force by which the government had been surrounded in order to subjugate them, but they never for a moment lost faith in their hope of redemption.

Democracy, meanwhile, like the light, like the life-giving atmosphere, opened a path for itself in the middle of the shadows cast by dictatorship. While in Bolivia, Peru and Argentina the despots were not discouraged in their determination to distort the popular will other nations of the continent were developing by their example great moral forces. President Basquez of Santo Domingo, following the same inspirations as those that moved Presidents Leguia and Siles, resolved last February to extend his term by the medium of a "re-election." The civic forces of Santo Domingo rose up in wrath and in a magnificent gesture of social defense invaded the capital and obliged the President not only to abandon his plans, but also to definitely renounce his office.

Colombia, likewise depressed by a great economic crisis, complicated by grave symptoms of misgovernment, gave to the peoples of America a valiant and opportune example of a governmental change made during the early part of this year in an open and democratic struggle. The Conservative party, for many years enthroned in government, recognized through the medium of its President, Abadias Mendez, the legitimacy of the popular triumph of his political adversary, Senor Olaya Herrera, a Liberal chosen by popular vote, who took over the office.

Finally, Mexico and Brazil also changed their governments during the early part of the year through the medium of regular elections. The opportune and repeated example of all those nations was not lost for the cause of democracy, and fell on a fertile and prepared soil south of the equatorial line. The university youth of Bolivia, Peru and Argentina, that had already accepted the challenge of autocracy, zealously applied itself to the task of defending the law.

The university youth of Bolivia initiated the movement. That country in the month of June was commemorating the centenary of the death of Gen. Sucre, founder of the republic, and one of the most outstanding apostles of democracy in America. The autocratic government of Bolivia convened the schools and universities to render homage to his memory. The university students assisted, but when the official representatives were waiting to hear from their lips only words of praise to the memory of the national hero, their inspired and ardent words indicated that the only dignified way of remembering Sucre was to combat dictatorship and avoid by force the illegal re-election of President Siles. The call of rebellion sounded in all parts of the country and abroad and caused as a reaction the overthrow of despotism. The student outbreaks meanwhile noisily and effectively succeeded. The students were without arms, but they never hesitated to oppose with the shield of their valor the attacks of authority that had lost all moral ascendancy because it was being extra legally employed. Bolivian students were sacrificed in the streets, but their spilt blood overcame the apparent indifference or vacillation of the people, and in a few hours a regime of illegality and opprobium was overthrown and destroyed.

Peruvian youth equally maintained their moral integrity during the regime of dictatorship, and in the disaster of all the institutions profaned by autocracy the university was only saved by the resolute and undefiled character of youth. The call of rebellion also sallied forth from the university cloisters and it was students who gave the cry of combat. Many died on different occasions at the foot of their standards, but their blood was as a sacred seed of legality that quickly germinated and bore fruit, assuring the triumph of law and saving Peruvian institutions.

Argentine youth was also a most impregnable bulwark against the overthrown despotism. It, like the others, saw its ranks thinned by the attacks of power, but it stood firm on the side of right and in defense of the basic principles of democracy.

Here, therefore, is the historical significance of the late South American revolutions and here, also, arises a great hope for the future of democratic institutions in this part of the world. The struggle was planted in the land where democracy's principles had been grossly tarnished. The standard of rebellion was not in the hands of professional leaders or agitators, nor was it profaned by ambition, by personal or class greed. It blazed in the hands of university youth and was fanned by the breezes of triumph, without which it would have fallen on the mire of ignoble passions.

The intervention of the army in the late revolutions of South America makes necessary some comment. There still remains in the world a memory of those times when the barracks were the fountain of government in those countries and when the army and its chiefs frequently overcame the popular will by audacity and violence. In the late revolutionary movements in Bolivia, Peru and Argentina the army has been the final agent bringing about the political changes produced and military councils have provisionally taken over the tasks of government. Such a circumstance has surely caused many persons to think that South America has returned to the now distant and gloomy times of the "pronunciamientos." Nothing, nevertheless, could be more incorrect than to confound the late revolutions with those movements and nothing more unjust to the armies of those countries than to place their late intervention on such a plane.

In the three revolutions of Bolivia, Peru and Argentina, the students and the people could only present their unprotected selves and raise their open arms against despotism. Despotism answered through the medium of its police using machine guns against the defenseless masses, and it is in response to the request of the sacrificed people that the army has intervened in the struggle, placing its power at the service of law and order to allow the free election of new governments by public opinion.

Without doubt a singular anomaly. The people of Bolivia, Peru and Argentina, who saw their rights sequestered by the civil elements and in some cases by governments headed by those having the titles of men of law, have seen their rights recognized and protected by the representatives of force who have helped the people to exercise such rights.

It is certain meanwhile that the immediate and final result will be highly beneficial to the political prestige of America and for the cause of democracy on the continent. The three military chiefs who now preside over the governments in those countries have started to declare that none of them will figure as a candidate for the Presidency and this declaration already marks the difference between these and other revolutions with which the history of America is full. The Bolivian military council that was in point of time the first to assume power has already called the peoples to elections and has allowed political parties their complete freedom to name candidates. It is indicated that the same action will be taken by the military governments of Peru and the Argentine Republic, and it is safe to believe that normalcy will very soon return to guide the development of those peoples, who, with just pride, conserve among their most notable civic traditions the fall of dictatorship in 1930.

The revolutions to which these comments refer have not yet, however, completely cleared the war clouds from the political horizon of America. By one faction or another the virility and tolerance of different peoples are set up as the best evidence, seeing perhaps in the example of Bolivia, Peru and Argentina, the way for putting an end to their political misfortunes. The lesson meanwhile has been so potent that perhaps good sense opens up a passage for the play of legal methods to modify the arrogance of force, without obliging the people to spill more blood in defense of their liberties.

NEW COLLEGE KINKS

One college is trying to allow students to see themselves as others see them by taking motion pictures for self study. Another requires the student to rate himself in various traits, then to have five other students impartially rate him and at the end of the term have a rerating to see if improvement has been made. Now these may be steps in the right direction, but it might seem to an educator of the old school that the student already rates himself far too high in the scale of importance and that his time might be better employed in considering the really great things of the world and cultivating a becoming humility—such a humility as inspired the words: "When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained, What is man, that thou art mindful of him?" JELLIED CHICKEN

T. J. A., Los Angeles, Cal.—Two level tablespoonfuls of gelatin, one-third of a cupful of cold water, or chicken stock, three cupfuls of chicken stock, three-fourths of a teaspoonful of salt, two cupfuls of vegetables, such as cooked peas, asparagus, string beans or carrots, one pimiento. Soak the gelatin in cold water, and dissolve in the hot stock, add the salt, and allow to cool. Rinse out a mold in cold water, place a small layer of the gelatin in it, and run it around the sides of the mold. Garnish the sides of the mold and the bottom with slices of hard-boiled eggs, in between the slices of egg, place some of the vegetables, on top of this add a layer of very thinly sliced chicken, pour over another layer of the jelly, allow that to harden, add a layer of the vegetables, another layer of the chicken and another layer of the jelly, allowing each layer to harden before adding another one. Continue until the mold is filled, unmold on a bed of lettuce leaves, garnish with parsley and salad dressing.

JELLIED CUCUMBER RELISH

One tablespoonful of gelatin, one-fourth of a cupful of cold water, one cupful of boiling water, one-half a cupful of mild vinegar, one tablespoonful of sugar, one-half teaspoonful of salt, one large cucumber, cut in dice; the grated pulp and juice of one small onion, one tablespoonful of finely chopped green pepper. Soak the gelatin in cold water about five minutes, and dissolve in the boiling water, add the vinegar, seasonings, and when it begins to thicken, add the cucumber and pepper. The mold may be garnished with slices of hard-boiled eggs, and a little horseradish may be added to the mixture. Unmold on shredded lettuce and serve with a boiled salad dressing.

BREAD BOX

The bread loaf which you speak of is made by taking a sandwich loaf, cutting off a slice from the top, after the crust has been removed from the entire loaf, hollowing out the center, leaving a wall about half an inch thick. Brush inside and out with melted butter, place in the oven and allow to slowly brown. Then it is filled with almost any kind of a creamed meat mixture, using such as lamb, pork, veal or chicken, to which has been added pimientos, cooked peas and a cream sauce. Placed back in the oven, allowed to reheat and served.

MARRONS AROMA

M. N., Los Angeles, Cal.: Cover one pound of chestnuts with boiling water and boil for fifteen minutes, drain, split in quarters and peel. Be sure to remove all of the brown coating. Place in a double boiler, cover with one cupful of milk and cook until they are soft enough to mash through a fine sieve. Butter a pudding mold and cover the sides and bottom with a layer of the chestnut paste, pare and core six medium-sized tart apples, cut in quarters, place in a steamer and steam until soft. Sweeten to taste and press through a sieve, add two well-beaten eggs and one tablespoonful of melted butter, color the apple sauce a bright pink, place a thick layer of the sauce on the bottom of the chestnut-lined mold, over it place a thick layer of the chestnut mixture and make a top layer of the apple sauce. Sprinkle a tablespoonful of lemon juice over the top, place in a moderate oven and bake for twenty-five minutes.

POUND CAKE

M. J., Van Nuys, Cal.: I think your trouble has been that in making your pound cake you have beaten it too much. It needs a certain amount of beating, but the more you beat it the tougher it will be. You can get the sherry wine flavoring and use that or leave it out.

To make two loaves of old-fashioned pound cake beat to a cream two cupfuls of butter and gradually beat into it, beating constantly, and adding it a little at a time, one and one-quarter cupfuls of sugar. Beat ten eggs until light and creamy and add to them a little at a time one cupful of sugar. Combine the two mixtures and beat for five minutes, sift four cupfuls of sifted flour three times with one level teaspoonful of mace, and gradually beat into the mixture with one-half a cupful of strained orange juice, or half a cupful of the sherry flavoring. After all the flour has been beaten in, beat it for five minutes. Line bread pans with two thicknesses of paper that has been oiled, place the mixture in the tins and when a crust is formed on top cover with a double thickness of paper and bake in a slow oven.

Two Succumb; Poison Liquor Believed Cause

Poison liquor is believed by police to have caused the death of two men yesterday.

Mike Gonzales, 46 years of age, of 1015½ Temple street, was found in an unconscious condition at 340 North Main street. He died shortly afterward at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital.

P. M. Dyer, believed to have resided at the St. Charles Hotel, was found in a room at 314 North Main street, in the same block, in a similar condition. He also died at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital.

Police surgeons declared their examination indicated the men had died of alcoholic poisoning. Autopsies will be performed at the County Morgue to definitely determine the cause of death in each instance.

SAN CLEMENTE PLANE CRASH LEADS TO SUIT

Another suit growing out of an airplane accident near San Clemente January 19, last, was filed yesterday when Isabel Squibb, administratrix of the estate of Elizabeth Squibb, sued for $10,000. The defendant named is the Maddux Air Lines Company, at that time operator of the Los Angeles-Agua Caliente line, a ship of which crashed in the fog with the loss of all on board.

Of Interest to Women

Society

by JUANA NEAL LEVY

One of the most interesting events of the week will be the doll show and pageant tea to be given tomorrow afternoon at Girls' Collegiate School in Glendora, the doll party having been arranged by Miss Lois Mills, faculty director, and two marvelously interesting and ancient dolls are to act as hostesses, both of them more than seventy-five years of age, dressed in the costumes of their day, crinolines and hoops, and treasured by the school as having been played with by the founder of the Girls' Collegiate, the late Miss Alice Parsons, and her sister, Miss Emmie Parsons, when they were children.

Girls' Collegiate School was founded thirty-eight years ago by Miss Alice Parsons and Miss Jeanne Dennen, both of whom have died, but their work continues. Miss Carol Mills came several years ago from Boston to join the faculty and is now carrying on as principal of the school.

In spite of the modernity of the flapper age girl, each of the students has been able to produce a doll of her own to attend the reception and many of these are beautiful costume dolls. The reception is to be given in the study hall of the beautiful campus, and besides the dolls there will be a lovely doll village made by Mrs. E. C. Wright, mother of Cynthia Hobart, a Collegiate sophomore. The study hall is decorated with posters made by the students under Miss Edith Hynes, art director, while Miss Priscilla Metcalf is chairman of the adornment committee and Mrs. Charles Hill will assist her daughter, Miss Carol Mills, at the tea urn.

An enjoyable program is also arranged by the glee club. Costumed as dolls the sub-freshmen will do Mother Goose rhymes in pantomime, and a piano duet by Dorothy Lyman and Kathleen Kelley and songs by Susan Luckie are on the program. A letter will be read by Miss Juanita Lewis from Miss Emmie Parsons, who is in New York, telling all about the doll hostesses and how she and her sister played with them.

Tea will follow the program, and all friends of Girls' Collegiate are being bidden and will be given a hearty welcome.

Here and There

Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Friend, who have recently returned from Europe, have been entertaining with a series of small dinner parties in the Pompeian Room of the Arcady.

Dinner and dancing were enjoyed recently by the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Sill at the Town House. Among those bidden were Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Erle Leaf, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Warmington, Mr. and Mrs. William Counselman, Miss Evelyn Pope and Jim Gonaty.

Angelenos who were recent guests at the Clift, San Francisco, are Joseph Juneman, Jr., R. J. Geimer, H. G. Laycock, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. White and F. E. Angove.

The Danny Hall Hacienda, 221 South El Camino Drive, Beverly Hills, was the scene of an attractively arranged bridge luncheon the 18th inst., when Mrs. Hall entertained Mmes. John Young, Edwin Hutchins, Reggie Lanning, Harold Edwards, Frank Grant, Barbara Swope and Sarah Pierson.

Mr. and Mrs. Coy Burnett, who are passing several weeks at the Ambassador, New York city, gave a farewell dinner party in their apartment recently for a number of friends who sailed on the Bremen. Among those present were Peter Arnstedt, Danish Minister to Egypt; Dr. and Mrs. Pohl Larsen, Mr. and Mrs. Grunnar Larsen, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Lindhard, Mr. and Mrs. Knute Englestedt, Miss Velma Sutton, Miss Nina Brydegaar, Miss Karen Anderson, Miss Elizabeth Lindhard, Axel Box-Hansen, Einar Rolme, C. F. Roder and C. H. Alumnae Dance

Zeta Tau Alpha alumnae chapter will combine with the University of California at Los Angeles chapter tonight in its traditional alumnae dance at the sorority house, 720 Hilgard avenue. Patronesses of the affair are Miss Grace Harper of the alumnae group and Miss Lois Watson, chapter president. The Misses Betty Luhlow and Dorothy Millspaugh who are in charge will decorate the house in the sorority colors of turquoise blue and steel gray.

Betrothal Announcement

Miss Evelyn Edlund recently announced her engagement to Lawrence L. Willson at an evening bridge party given in honor of Miss Mildred Willson of Fresno, bride-elect of Morris Swan of Sacramento.

The guests were told of Miss Edlund's betrothal as they entered the Edlund home. Little Miss Mary McBride presented each guest with a yellow rosebud to which was tied a scroll bearing the names of the betrothed. Huge baskets of yellow and orchid chrysanthemums were effectively used in the decorations.

Miss Edlund is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Edlund, 1014 South Burnside avenue. Mr. Willson, formerly of Fresno, is the son of Dr. and Mrs. L. R. Willson of Fresno. Mrs. Willson, Miss Belle Millward and Miss Mildred Willson motored down from Fresno to attend the affair.

Mrs. James A. Scarfe and Miss Jane McNaghten assisted the hostess and the other guests were Mrs. M. J. Cramer of Altadena, Mrs. S. D. McNaghten, Mrs. L. R. Willson, Miss Belle Millward, Mrs. C. A. Larson of Beverly Hills, Mrs. John Button of Altadena, Mrs. William Fredericks, Miss Elizabeth Neilson, Miss Clemma Gragg, Mrs. C. P. Moores, Mrs. Arthur Gripp of Santa Monica, Mrs. Thatcher Balch, Miss Christine Anderbern of Santa Monica, Mrs. A. G. Edlund, Mrs. William Lewis, Miss Mildred Willson, Miss Bertha Wilson of Santa Monica, Miss Marion Ruth Edlund and Miss Bernice Edlund.

Winter Home

Mr. and Mrs. Don Marquis (Marjorie Vonnegut,) who are in Beverly Hills for the winter and who have placed their children, Ruth and Walter Vonnegut and Barbara Marquis, in school, received a few friends at tea last Sunday evening as a housewarming for their new temporary home in Crestview avenue. Their drawing-room resembled a bit of transplanted New York, many of the guests being identified with the literary or dramatic life of that place. These included George Middleton, the playwright; his wife, Fola LaFollette; her brother Philip, Governor-elect of Wisconsin; O. P. Heggie, the actor; Mrs. and Miss Heggie, Edward Goodman, the drama producer; his wife, Lucy Huffaker, a newspaper writer; Samuel Hoffenstein, famed as the author of "Poems in Praise of Practically Nothing," and other humorous verse; Mrs. Hoffenstein, Frederick Salathe, Mr. and Mrs. William Kappes, Mr. and Mrs. Thomasset, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Croy, Maj. Rupert Hughes, Frank Pope, newspaper editor; Mrs. Pope, Miss Nancy Pope, Miss Neeta Marquis, Mrs. George McDaniel, Miss Mildred Falkenburg, Miss Patricia Owen, Mr. Lincoln and Dr. Bruce McDaniel.

SCHOOL TO HOLD DOLL SHOW

Toys of Childhood Days on Parade

[Witzel studios]

Miss Valerie Laurie holding the doll with which the late Miss Alice Parsons played when a little girl.

ONE of the most interesting events of the week will be the doll show and pageant tomorrow afternoon at Girls' Collegiate School, Glendora. A reception will be given in the study hall on the campus followed by a program of music and later a tea. Girls' Collegiate School was established in Los Angeles thirty-eight years ago by Miss Alice Parsons and Miss Jeanne Dennen, in the old Casa de las Rosas, Hoover street at West Adams and has held an enviable position in educational circles since its first inception.

Both Miss Parsons and Miss Dennen have passed on and Miss Carol Mills came out from Boston to assume the principalship of the institution. She will be assisted at the tea tables tomorrow by her mother, Mrs. Charles Mills.

CHEF WYMAN'S RECIPES

Every Friday at 2 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cookery in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

WHITE FRUIT CAKE

Cream one cupful of butter and gradually cream into it two cupfuls of sugar, adding the sugar a little at a time and creaming thoroughly after each addition. Have ready one pound of sultana raisins, bleached raisins, one-half a pound of finely chopped candied orange peel, one-half a pound of finely chopped candied cherries, one-half a pound of finely chopped candied pineapple, one-fourth of a pound of finely chopped citron, one cupful of finely chopped blanched almonds, one cupful of shredded cocoanut. Sift four cupfuls of sifted flour with four level teaspoonfuls of baking powder, and mix with fruit thoroughly with the flour. Then add the flour mixture to the butter mixture alternately with two cupfuls of milk, beating well between each addition, then fold in the stiffly beaten whites of twelve eggs and flavor with a teaspoonful and one-half of either almond or orange extract. Oil a large tube tin, cover with two thicknesses of white paper and oil the paper, fill three-quarters full of the batter and place in a very moderate oven. When the cake begins to form a crust on top cover with two thicknesses of oiled paper and continue the baking in a slow oven. When done, turn out on a rack and when it is thoroughly cold wrap in several thicknesses of waxed paper and place in an air-tight tin box. This will make one large and one small cake or several small ones can be made.

GRAPE FRUIT JELLY SALAD

Two level tablespoonfuls of gelatine, one-third of a cupful of cold water, one cupful of boiling water, one-half a cupful of sugar, one-half a cupful of grapefruit juice, one-fourth of a cupful of lemon juice, one-half a cupful of grapefruit pulp. Soak the gelatin in the cold water for five minutes, add the boiling water and stir until the gelatin is dissolved, add the sugar, grapefruit juice and lemon juice; when cold and beginning to set, add the grapefruit pulp. Pour the mixture into a ring mold and allow to become solid. Unmold on a bed of lettuce leaves, fill the center of the mold with a cheese salad mixture and serve with mayonnaise.

APPLE BATTER PUDDING

Peel four tart apples, core, and cut in slices crosswise, place them in a pudding dish, add about one-fourth of a cupful of sugar, the amount depending on the acidity of the apples, dot with three tablespoonfuls of butter, sprinkle over half a teaspoonful of cinnamon and then add one-fourth of a cupful of hot water. Make a batter as follows: Beat one egg light, add to it one-half a cupful of sugar, and one tablespoonful of melted butter, sift one-half a cupful of flour, with one-half a level teaspoonful of baking powder, add four tablespoonfuls of milk, spread this over the apples dot with bits of butter, and bake in a medium hot oven until the apples are soft. Serve with cream.

WHEN it comes to making claims for goodness, Hills Bros. Coffee has one no other coffee can make. It is the only coffee roasted a few pounds at a time by the patented, continuous process—Controlled Roasting. The distinctive, delicious flavor created by this process cannot be equaled by bulk-roasting methods.

When you open a can of Hills Bros. Coffee it is just as fresh as when it came from the roasters. Air, which "flattens" the flavor of coffee, is completely removed and kept out of the can by Hills Bros.' vacuum packing process. No coffee packed in a so-called air-tight tin will ever remain fresh.

Make up your mind to try Hills Bros. Coffee. Ask for it by name and look for the Arab on the can. Sold by grocers everywhere.

Court Appeals to Science to Fix Paternity

Science was called on to unravel a paternity dispute in Superior Judge Westover's court yesterday when the judge ordered a medical examination of Michael McElligott, 70-year-old Redondo Beach resident, to determine whether he is the father of Eleanor Fothergill's child, for whose support the mother is suing McElligott.

Miss Fothergill, 15 years of age, through her aunt-guardian, Ellen Frances Brown, asked the courts to compel McElligott to pay $10,000 for the support of the child, born July 22, 1930.

McElligott answered that the two women had conspired to "cheat, wrong and defraud" him, asserting that he had resided with his family for twenty years, that there was no blemish on his character, and that it was physically impossible for him to be guilty of the offense asserted.

Theresa McElligott, the accused man's daughter, denied the charge that property had been placed in her name by her father to avoid responsibility of supporting Miss Fothergill's child.

Traffic Outlet Plan Approved

The modified assessment district map for the opening and widening of Beachwood Drive between Franklin avenue and Hollywood Boulevard was approved yesterday by the City Council upon recommendation of the Street Opening and Widening Committee. The revised map eliminates a small area west of Gower street.

The project will break the traffic bottleneck at Franklin avenue and Beachwood Drive.

WHEN THE SANDMAN COMES

by THORNTON W. BURGESS

PETER HAS HIS TURN

Even he whom you may spurn
In course of time may have his turn.
—Peter Rabbit.

Peter had been laughed at and made fun of and teased until it was a wonder his disposition was not wholly spoiled. It was all because he had insisted that one night over in the Green Forest he had heard a new song. Anyway, it was new to him, for he had never heard it before. He hadn't seen the singer and when he had told his friends about that song and asked them if they had seen a feathered stranger in the Green Forest they had made fun of him and insisted that he had been dreaming. Peter had had to stand a great deal, but now it was his turn.

The very ones who had done most of the teasing were now over in the Green Forest near the big old stump where Peter had first heard that song. Their curiosity had been aroused and they had followed Peter over there early this morning pretending that they had just happened around that way. And just when they had about made up their minds that they had just wasted their time and followed Peter for nothing, there came a pretty little warbling song from among some bushes growing around and nearly hiding an old stump.

Every one stopped what he happened to be doing that he might listen. Blacky the Crow sat like a black image in the top of a tall pine tree. Sammy Jay didn't move a feather. Drummer the Woodpecker clung to the side of the old stump as if he were a part of it. Yank Yank the Nuthatch, who had been coming head first down the trunk of a tree, stopped right where he was, head down. Tommy Tit the Chickadee, who is a little feathered acrobat, clung motionless upside down to the tip of a hemlock branch.

For two or three minutes no one moved. Then Peter Rabbit grinned. "Well," said he, "did you all hear it or did you all dream that you heard it?"

Before any one could find his tongue to reply the song was heard again. This time it seemed to come from back of a little hemlock tree. Sammy Jay came to life abruptly. Hardly had that song ended when Sammy darted down to that little hemlock tree to find that singer. There are no sharper, quicker eyes in all the Green Forest than those of Sammy Jay. He hadn't a doubt that he would find that singer. You can guess his surprise and chagrin when he failed to find any one but Whitefoot the Wood Mouse, and Whitefoot was running along one of his private little paths and whisked out of sight in a hole in the ground.

"There is no one here," declared Sammy.

"Well," said he, "did you all hear it, or did you all dream that you heard it?"

At once the others flew over to aid in the search. They looked high and low and for a considerable distance around, but they found no one. In the midst of their searching that same little song was heard once more. It seemed to come from the big, old stump. There was a rush to get there first, but when they did get there only Whitefoot was to be seen and he was carefully making his toilet.

"Who was that singing over here? demanded Sammy Jay.

There was a look of surprise on Whitefoot's face as he asked innocently. "Was some one singing?"

"You must have been dreaming, Sammy Jay. You must have dreamed that you heard some one singing," spoke up Peter Rabbit, and turned his head to hide a grin.

"He didn't, for I heard it," cried Tommy Tit the Chickadee.

"And I," declared Drummer the Woodpecker.

"And I," added Yank Yank the Nuthatch.

"Dear me, could it be that you all were asleep and had the same dream?" asked Peter. Peter was having his turn at teasing now and he was making the most of it. Yes, indeed, Peter was having his turn.

Have the oven very hot, about 400 deg., and place the fish on the broiler rack, skin side down. Lower heat after about five minutes to a point where the fish will cook through without burning the outside. This will require about twenty minutes or more, according to the thickness of the fish. When done, remove to hot platter, season with a little parsley butter, and garnish with some crisp raw vegetable. Slices of lemon may be used when the meal does not contain other fruit acids or starches.

Vagrant Carries Bird Shot Marks

Carl Edward Sampson, 20 years of age, is on his way back to Niagara Falls with his body marked by bird shot.

Arriving here on a brake beam, Sampson was arrested as a vagrant and ordered to leave. He started to beat his way back, and on account of cold left the train at Chatsworth, where he built a fire in a field to warm himself. The owner of the farm peppered him with bird shot.

The case was reported to Van Nuys police as a mysterious shooting but, the facts were cleared up and Sampson continued his journey.

COUNCIL DENIES PROTESTS

Protests against the improvement of streets in the Wilmington Boulevard and L street district were denied yesterday by the City Council. The hearing of protests against the improvement of Ridge Way between Douglas street and Laveta Terrace was continued until June 17, 1931, and the hearing of protests against the lighting of Main street between One Hundred Eighth street and One Hundred Twelfth street was continued until June 10, 1931.

Council Refuses Street Change

Monkeying with the official name of Broadway in behalf of a drive for funds by a veterans' organization appeared displeasing to the City Council yesterday, which declined to adopt a report of its Public Welfare Committee "designating" Broadway between Temple and Pico streets as "Forget-Me-Not Drive," December 18 to 21, inclusive. At that time the Disabled American Veterans of the World War plan to put on a tagging campaign.

The report was revised to read that the Council "can see no harm" in the street being so called "for publicity purposes." In this form the report was adopted.

SON AND WIDOW GET ESTATE OF ROBERTS

William A. Roberts, former member of the City Council and the State Assembly, left a $22,000 estate, according to the petition to probate his will, on file yesterday. It was directed that the estate be divided between a son, Harold Roberts, band leader, and the widow, Mrs. Hattie M. Roberts, 835 West Thirty-seventh Place. Another son, Russell B. Roberts, was given $1, it being explained he had already received a share.

"FIRST" HUSBAND FINDS HE'S ACTUALLY FIFTH

L. E. Borchers learned some time after his marriage, he declares in a divorce suit on file yesterday, that he was Mrs. Elvera Irene Borchers's fifth husband. Previously he had thought himself her first, he asserts, having taken her word for her marital status. A further act of cruelty asserted by the plaintiff comprised the action of his daughter-in-law in ordering him out of the house he had purchased for her.

HUMANE SOCIETY PLANS EXPANSION

One humane association in every county is the aim of the State Humane Association of California as the result of an address by Mrs. Francis H. Weldon, president, at the monthly meeting of the board of directors. At present, according to Mrs. Weldon, there are only twenty-two active societies throughout the State. The meeting was held in Long Beach.

A blue ribbon for blue gingham

THOUSANDS have been the Judges!

More than a hundred thousand women in this territory decide daily which bread leads in quality. And when they, through their purchases, judge one loaf to be better than all the others, that decision comes from the highest court.

Yesterday, today, every day, this enormous jury buys more Weber's Bread than any other.

The blue ribbon for leadership in sales comes only through blue-ribbon quality in the loaf. Pure, wholesome ingredients that your grandmother would have been glad to use . . . equipment better than she ever dreamed of having . . . bakers with far more experience than hers . . . these are the reasons for the day-after-day leadership of Weber's, the bread that is gingham wrapped.

Goodness, freshness, purity, dependability . . . all these are symbolized by the gingham blue and gingham brown which enfold Weber loaves. Gingham blue for white bread, sliced or unsliced. Gingham brown for whole wheat, also sliced or unsliced.

WONDER FIFF-TEENS

are here!

You have served delicious rolls like these—but you had to bake them yourself. Now you can get them at your grocer's fresh-baked! Serve 'em hot! . . . Serve 'em often!

Appetites, attention! Here's the best news that ever followed dinner call. Real, old-fashioned rolls. Light as summer clouds. With the tenderest of crust. Just be patient while that lump of butter melts and then — um-um-m!

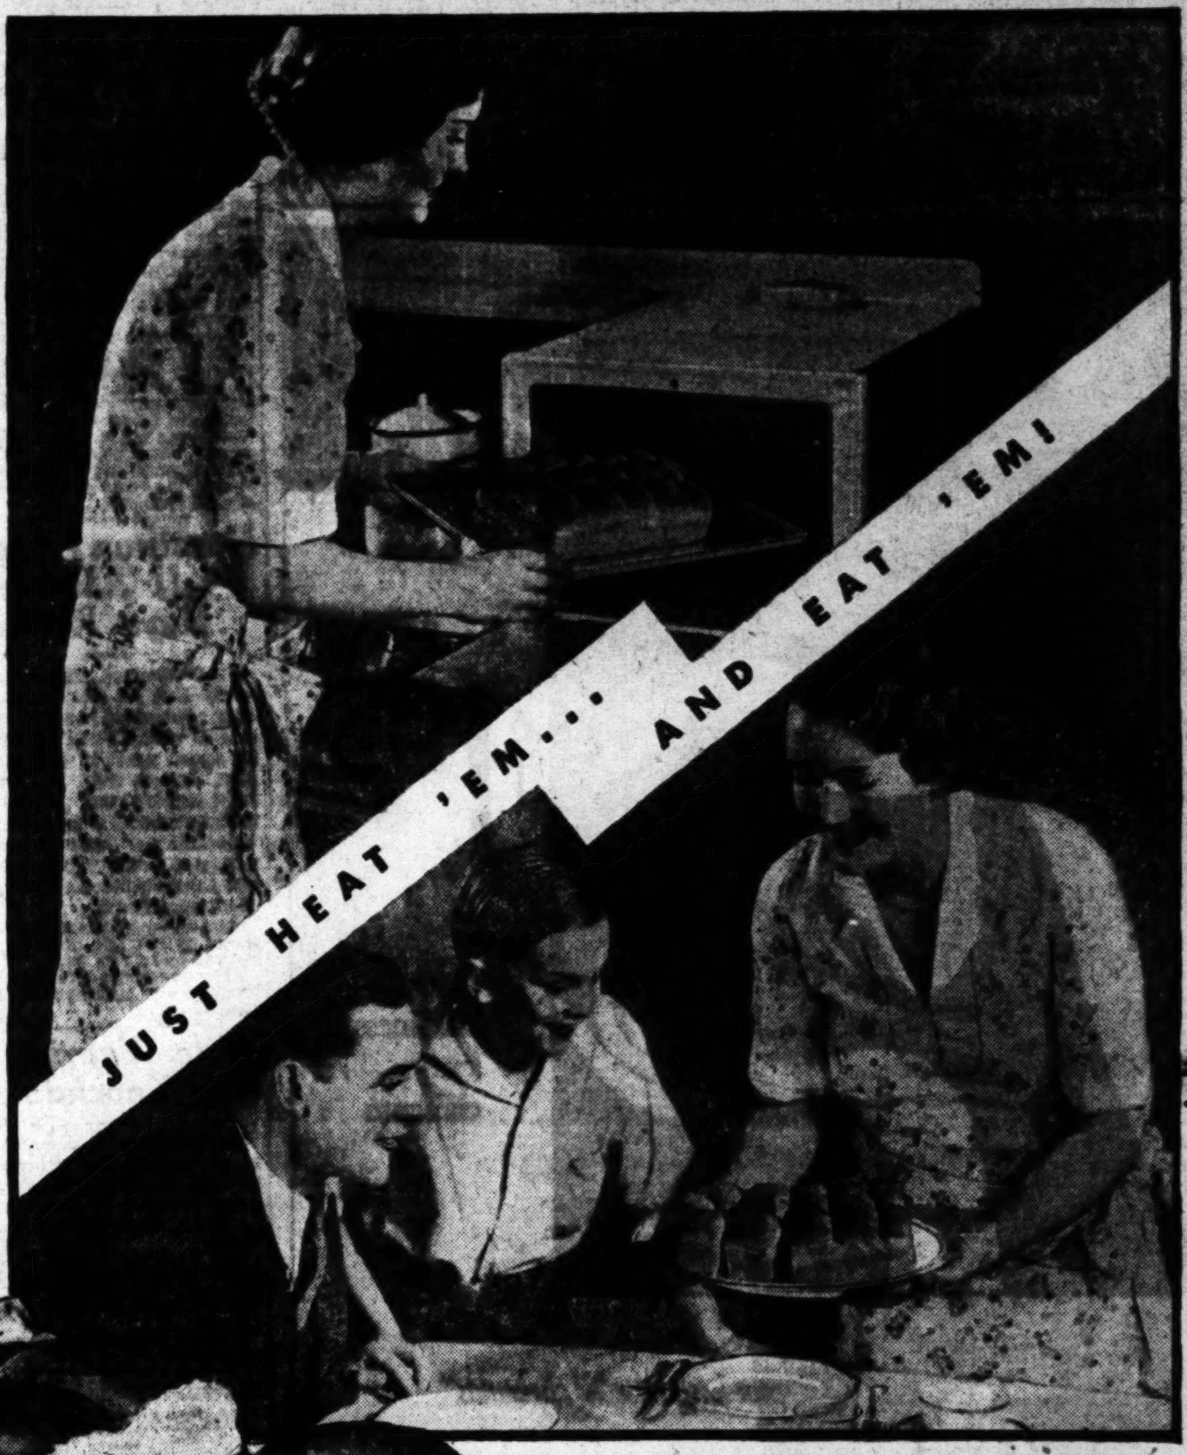
Eat all you want, too. For the Wonder Baker's dozen is fifteen—three more than twelve. Yes, fifteen taste-tempting rolls in every Wonder package. That's why they are called "Wonder Fiff-teens."

And are they good! To the last crumb. Happy Wonder Bakers see to that. Only the finest ingredients, only the most careful baking will satisfy the bakers of the famous Wonder Bread.

You'll discover many ways to serve Wonder Fiff-teens. A quick heating in your own oven will give you a new treat for tomorrow's breakfast. Spread them liberally with butter and sprinkle with cinnamon and sugar. Or serve them with jams, conserves, fresh stewed fruits. They're simply grand with apple butter!

Or toast them for tea and smother them with strained honey . . . or orange or tangerine marmalade . . . or blackberry jam . . . currant jelly . . . or anything else you can think of and like. And let's not forget that after-school raid on the pantry—for Wonder Fiff-teens are just the right size for generous fillings of peanut butter.

Remember, Wonder Fiff-teens are as fine a product as the famous slo-baked Wonder Bread. They come fifteen to a specially protected package. They're based on the good old-fashioned way to make what grandmother called "light biscuits." Enough inducement, don't you think, for you to treat your family to Wonder Fiff-teens?



JUST HEAT 'EM . . . AND EAT 'EM!

DE VOE THEFT COMPLAINT DUE

Thirty-nine Counts Will Be Listed in Document

Papers Against Clara Bow's ex-Aide Slated Today

Controversy Involves Safe Deposit Box Contents

Preparation of a complaint containing thirty-nine counts of grand theft is to be completed today in the case of Miss Daisy De Voe, discharged secretary to Clara Bow, motion-picture actress, William McKay, chief of the District Attorney's complaint department, announced last night.

McKay said the complaint would have been issued yesterday but due to the number of counts involved Dep. Dist.-Atty. Smith, assigned to the task, is unable to complete the document until 2 p.m. today.

SAFETY BOX SEIZED

The controversy between the actress and her secretary dates back for more than a fortnight. It began with the technical arrest of Miss De Voe by District Attorney's investigators and the seizure of the contents of a safety-deposit box which she had rented.

Miss De Voe then retained Nathan O. Freedman as her attorney and made a demand upon the District Attorney for the return of certain articles in the safety box which she asserted are her personal property. Miss Bow charged that a large portion of the contents belonged to her.

When the District Attorney refused to return the articles claimed by Miss De Voe the secretary filed a civil suit demanding $7200 damages.

ORDER COUNTERMANDED

Dist.-Atty. Fitts then announced that a complaint will be filed against the girl charging grand theft. An hour later the order was countermanded and the matter referred to the grand jury. Yesterday the grand jury inquiry order was nullified and the matter was again referred to the complaint department with the statement that a complaint will be filed today.

Earlier in the day Miss De Voe and Attorney Freedman appeared at the office of Blayney Matthews and renewed her request for the return of some of the articles taken from her safety deposit vault. Matthews refused to return them, asserting that a complaint had been ordered and that the articles are being held as evidence.

The girl eventually obtained the return of a small package left in the District Attorney's office after her arrest, containing night clothes and a toothbrush. She then left.

Trouble Over School Closing Avoided Here

Los Angeles settled without any difficulty the same type of situation that caused a "school strike" in Oklahoma City, it was pointed out by Superintendent of Schools Bouelle at yesterday's meeting of the Board of Education.

In Oklahoma City students and parents objected to the closing of a school adjacent to a new oil field, even though the step was taken because the lives of students were believed to be in danger due to the proximity of the school to the new wells. Students and parents riotously invaded the school building and demanded that it be reopened.

Recently the local school board decided to close the Florence Nightingale School in Venice because it is located in the new Venice oil field. Supt. Bouelle pointed out this step had met with the approval of students and parents.

BONFILS TO GET LESSON IN BOOSTING

Denver Publisher on Visit to Southland Says Method Here Worth Emulating

Southern California's progressive methods are worthy of emulation, none other than that ardent booster of Colorado, Fred G. Bonfils, owner and publisher of the Denver Post, declared yesterday on arrival on the Los Angeles Limited. Here for two weeks with his friend and traveling companion, John Morton, the Denver publisher admitted to "just having to come out to Los Angeles every so often to get new ideas on how to boost for my own State."

Mr. Bonfils claimed Denver as the present most prosperous of cities with Colorado benefiting from a record sugar beet crop and confident of the future.

"There will not be any modification of the prohibition law," he amplified an emphatic "never" to a question on the time when there might be a change. "We do have bootleggers in Colorado but pre-prohibition days were worse with the problem of the drunken worker. Now this same worker owns a home, an automobile and has a savings account and he isn't going to trade them back for liquor.

"Colorado is normally a dry and a Republican State and Coloradoans are going to stay that way. In 1932 the nation will return the Republican party to power with a President and Congress because most people, even though in trouble, prefer a tried horse to an untried one."

Mr. Bonfils and Mr. Morton went on to San Diego to spend a few days before returning to Los Angeles for a more extended visit.

Girls Missing; Search Asked

Financed by a single $1 bill borrowed from a friend, two Los Angeles girls, Jesse Lewis, 15 years of age, and Gladys Jones, 13, of 157 East Seventy-fourth street, are seeing the world.

Their parents fear they may have encountered trouble, and yesterday asked police to send out a general alarm.

Last Friday evening Jesse invited Gladys, long her chum, to spend the night with her. The next morning both left, visited the girl friend in the neighborhood from whom they borrowed the $1, and have not been heard from by their relatives and friends since.

STILL ABLE TO DRAW CROWD

Veteran Pitchman Convention's Host

"Silk Hat Harry" Downey

IT WAS evident that there were no towners at that convention of the National Association of Pitchmen, at 425 South Main street, yesterday. It was distinctly professional, that gathering.

Strong men, magicians, entertainers, soap salesmen and medicine men from all over America were there and made a pitch at the hall yesterday, but for once did not try to sell anything.

Doc Lonsdale, who made a pitch one time alongside a young chap in Indianapolis who was selling detachable buttons, also was there. He asked the rather discouraged young salesman what his "monniker" was and was told that it was James Whitcomb Riley. That was years ago. Lonsdale wondered for many years as to the why of the Whitcomb.

"Silk Hat Harry" Downey was out with the old stove-pipe or opera tilted at the ultra smart angle and dealing the pasteboards off the elbow as of old. He was a medicine man for years and drew his crowd with tricks of magic. He now lives at 518 Towne avenue, where he is host to hundreds of visiting pitchmen when they come to Los Angeles. He started his career when 13 years of age by selling soap. He lathered his head with the soap for so many years that he was threatened with baldness. He then changed his line to hair tonics.

Matters pertaining to the good of the order were discussed yesterday, the last day of the convention. Reports were heard from the other five lodges in America showing that they are prospering. One hundred and forty-five delegates registered for the convention, traveling from as far east as Boston. Dapper Dan Woods, cane concessionnaire and razor specialist, honked his old flivver on Main street yesterday morning as a signal of his safe transit across the desert from the Athens of America.

At the final session of the convention last night the following supreme officers were named:

President, Dr. J. Stanley Howard, Sunland; Vice-President Jack Alpert, Los Angeles and elsewhere; Secretary Dr. H. J. Lonsdale, Los Angeles and the United States-at-large; Treasurer, George Silver, Los Angeles, and National Organizer, Charles Orr, now of Los Angeles.

JURY PICKED FOR TRIAL OF GIRNAU

State Will Present Case Today on Libel Charges; Mayor Porter Subpoenaed

A jury to try Fredric H. Girnau, publisher of a political pamphlet, on charges of criminally libeling Carlin G. Smith, former candidate for Mayor, and Charles Burke, private detective, was selected late yesterday in Municipal Judge Bogue's court.

The jury consists of eleven women and one man, and was sworn in after Deputy City Prosecutor Lindley had exercised seven of his ten peremptory challenges. Paul Hornaday, defense attorney, did not challenge, agreeing to accept the first twelve talesmen to enter the jury box.

Judge Bogue read the complaint against Girnau, which contains the assertedly libelous article, referring to what it terms the "Baby Milk Fund Racket," which it accuses Smith and Burke of promoting. The State's case will be presented today. Among other witnesses Hornaday has subpoenaed Mayor Porter, Chief Steckel, the Police Commission and Rev. R. P. Shuler.

Hamilton Pays Full Alimony, Says Receiver

Lloyd Hamilton, film comedian, has kept up his $250 monthly alimony payments to Mrs. Ethel Hamilton, it was set forth yesterday in the second report of Clarence W. Horn, receiver, filed in Superior Judge Guerin's court. Judge Guerin continued until December 1 hearing on the recommendations of the receiver to modify payments to pro rate payments based on the comedian's employment.

Since March 30, last, Hamilton has earned $27,328, and disbursed $27,544, the report sets forth.

Attorney Griffith Jones represents Hamilton and Attorney R. L. Hogan Mrs. Hamilton.

Wife Wearies of Knockdowns

Knockdowns which weren't for the motion pictures wearied her of her husband, complained Mrs. Eve Le Claire yesterday in divorcing Bert Le Claire, Universal studio employee.

"He knocked me down on January 1, February 15 and July 15, of this year," testified Mrs. Le Claire, who complained of cruelty and nonsupport.

Superior Judge Keetch granted her a divorce.

FILM ACTRESS TO BE OPERATED ON TODAY

Suffering from a spinal injury received in a slight fall ata her home more than three months ago, Viola Stahlman, motion-picture actress and wife of George Stahlman, deputy District Attorney, tomorrow is expected to undergo a major operation at Hollywood Hospital. According to Mr. Stahlman, his wife slipped on the floor of her home and fell, causing a spinal injury which resulted in a spinal tumor.

Actress Wins in Suit Against Victor H. Levy

Judgment for $8000 yesterday was awarded Evelyn Stark, motion picture actress, by a jury in Superior Judge Craig's court where her suit for $50,650 against Victor H. Levy, linen merchant, was heard. Miss Stark complained her picture career was impaired by the loss of ten teeth in an automobile accident involving a parked car which coasted downgrade.

The actress testified she entered Levy's parked car on the night of May 22; 1929, at his invitation, expecting to drive to a studio for work. She asserted the brakes were not adjusted, and that the automobile coasted down Camrose avenue, crashing into a tree and throwing her face forward against the steering wheel, loosening ten teeth. Levy denied inviting her into the car.

Attorney Joseph L. Fainer represented Miss Stark.

WILKINS TO SPEAK

Newly developed scientific apparatus to equip the submarine in which he expects to make his next Arctic exploration from Spitzbergen to the Bering Sea, including a huge "eye" that will enable him to "see" the thickness of the ice overhead, will be described by Sir Hubert Wilkins, scientist and explorer, in his lecture before the Jewish Institute Forum at the Wilshire-Ebell Theater Monday evening. The lecture is open to the public.

COURT MAKES LITTLE OF "INC." AFTER NAME

The importance of "Inc." after a firm name is minimized by Division One, District Court of Appeal, in a decison handed down yesterday.

The decsion is on an appeal by the Title Insurance and Trust Company in an action against the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors over the building of a road in Las Flores Canyon from Malibu Road to a point approximately a mile southeast of what is known as Saddle Peak.

One of the arguments advanced in the appeal was that in the notice of final hearing before the Board of Supervisors the name of the contractor was given as Francisco & Ellington instead of Francisco & Ellington, Inc.

The court found that the notice of final hearing was drawn in compliance with State regulations, regardless of the absence of the "Inc."

It was also contended that the effect of the taxes levied for the payment of the improvement will exceed the benefits accruing to the property of the plaintiff, as well as the value of the property itself.

Justice Houser wrote the opinion, in which Presiding Justice Conrey and Justice York concurred.

EDUCATOR IN EARLY DAYS DIES HERE

Mrs. Mary Burns Tuttle, Mother of Mrs. R. L. Craig and V. H. Tuttle Expires

Death came yesterday to Mrs. Mary Ellen Burns Tuttle, 94 years of age, accorded by friends to have been one of California's earliest woman educators and a colorful figure in the pioneer days of the West. Mrs. Tuttle, who was the mother of Mrs. R. L. Craig, president of the R. L. Craig Wholesale Grocery Company, died at her daughter's home, 700 South Berendo street.

She had made her home in Watsonville on the ranch settled by her late husband, Owen Tuttle, in 1873. She was in Los Angeles on a visit in her daughter's home when she became ill several weeks ago. Mrs. Tuttle, whose maiden name was Burns, had been in good health until her last illness. She was born in Franklin, Pa., and when a baby her parents moved to Iowa.

She was married to Owen Tuttle and they remained there until eight children were born. In 1873 the family came to California and settled on the ranch in Watsonville. Mrs. Tuttle was devoted to the development of educational facilities and was one of the founders of a library system there.

She read constantly and until several days before her death she had surrounded her bed with books and magazines. Besides her daughter, she leaves two sons, M. D. Tuttle of Watsonville, and Victor H. Tuttle, vice-president of the wholesale grocery company. The funeral will be in Watsonville Monday.

DR. BAXTER TO SPEAK

Marty, of course, is Marty Brill, flashy halfback of Rockne's wonder team of 1930, who came into his own on Franklin Field, Philadelphia, on the afternoon of the 8th inst. You see, Brill had been a student at Penn three and four years ago and wanted to make the football team. Tried out for it, but got nowhere.

Line Coach Lud Wray, so the story goes, took a dislike to him and told Brill's dad, a millionaire streetcar manufacturer, that the lad just didn't "play the kind of football we play at Penn." That remark rankled Brill, Sr., and he said something like "Well, then, I'll send him to a

L. A. High Favored to Beat Tiger Eleven in Feature Game of City League Final Round

BY IRVING ECKHOFF

Bringing to a close one of the most hectic football seasons in prep history, the L. A. High Romans and the Lincoln Tigers tangle this afternoon at Housh Field in the feature game of the final round of play.

Should Coach Jim Tunney's Tigers win today's struggle, they will finish in a tie for the City League championship. Just who will be deadlocked with the Tigers depends on the outcome of three other games, Garfield at Manual Arts, Fremont at Fairfax and Hollywood vs. Roosevelt at Wrigley Field.

COACH HORACE BRESEE

At present four schools are tied for first place, Lincoln, Fremont, Hollywood and Manual Arts all having a perfect right to the top spot in the standings.

However, it is very unlikely that all four will win their games today, only Manual and Fremont having easy pickings. Jim Blewett's Toilers should win in a walk over Garfield, while George Dirckx's Pathfinders with Walt Clark in the line-up are heavy favorites over Fairfax.

Hollywood is very liable to be knocked over by Roosevelt, while the

McLARNIN 3-1 FAVORITE IN PETROLLE GO TONIGHT

BY EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—The Indian sign of an underdog, a powerful influence in recent matches in Madison Square Garden, will hang over Jimmy McLarnin tomorrow night in the belting Irishman's ten-round battle with Billy Petrolle, "Fargo Express," now fighting out of Duluth.

JIMMY McLARNIN.

Kid Chocolate, the battling bon bon, went to the post a 4-to-1 favorite over Fidel La Barba, dogged young Pacific Coast featherweight, and wound up running second to the great disgust of the ring worms. Then a few days later Al Singer, the lightweight champion, carried his crown and a 3-to-1 advantage into the same ring with Tony Canzoneri and lost both in a single round. Now McLarnin is a hot 3-to-1 favorite to whip Petrolle and the superstitious ones are shaking their heads.

McLarnin, one of the greatest fighters at any weight campaigning today, has marched steadily through all the opposition he has been called upon to face here since he lost a decision to Sammy Mandell in a lightweight title go two years ago. He bounced over Singer in three rounds. He has knocked out a half-dozen other highly touted lightweights.

Trojans May Have to Secure Somebody Else

BY BRAVEN DYER

St. Mary's College of Moraga will decide today whether to accept the invitation of the University of Southern California to play a charity game in the Coliseum on December 20. This was the word received at the Trojan institution yesterday from Louis Lefebre, graduate manager at St. Mary's.

"SLIP" MADIGAN.

Slip Madigan and his Galloping Gaels return to the Bay region today following their sensational victory over Fordham in New York and Lefebre explained that he preferred to withhold his decision until given an opportunity to talk with Madigan.

Lefebre's reply to the invitation sent by Willis O. Hunter, director of intercollegiate athletics, is as follows:

"Many thanks for your invitation. Assure you that board of athletic control will give invitation earnest consideration. Mr. Madigan does not return from New York until Friday and if possible I would like time to confer with him before answering."

Those "in the know" say that if St. Mary's accepts Troy's invitation the Gaels will find a place on Southern California's regular schedule next year, while rejecting the bid might result in the Trojans failing to arrange such a contest.

Madigan, quoted at various cities along the route home from New York, is supposed to have said his team would prefer to meet Utah or Stanford than Southern California. Believe that one if you want to but if you do you then have to explain why the Gaels have been trying their level best to arrange a game with the Trojans for the past two years. Slip isn't afraid of any team in the country and he knows that if he beats the Trojans he will get a whole lot more credit than if he

Trojan Athletic Officials Decline to Forfeit Games in Which Self-Confessed "Ringer" Participated; Head of Washington School Denies Responsibility

The University of Southern California feels that there is no need for further action in the case of Spencer Purvis, alias George Kirkwood, sub halfback, who was expelled from the institution Wednesday because he entered under an assumed name and with false credentials. The following statement was issued by Willis O. Hunter, director of intercollegiate athletics at S.C., in response to inquiries as to whether the Trojans intended offering to forfeit the games in which "Kirkwood" had played:

BILL HUNTER.

Statement of the general athletic committee in the Kirkwood case:

In the opinion of the General Athletic Committee and the athletic staff, there is no element in the Kirkwood situation which calls for any further action on the part of the University of Southern California.

Statement of Willis O. Hunter, director of athletics, in the Kirkwood case:

In the case of George Kirkwood, administration and athletic officials have made every effort to see that justice has been meted out swiftly and thoroughly in accordance with Pacific Coast Conference regulations.

All facts that we have been able to obtain in the matter have already been given to the press. Kirkwood, or Spencer Kirkwood Purvis, which he now admits to be his real name, has confessed that he entered the university under an assumed name and with false credentials

STUDENTS ASK REFERENDUM ON BEAR EDITOR'S OUSTING

BERKELEY, Nov. 20. (AP)—Students of the University of California today circulated a petition demanding a referendum on the executive committee's action in dismissing Arthur Arlett, editor of the Daily Californian, student daily newspaper.

Arlett was removed after his series of editorials criticising the football situation in Pacific Coast colleges nearly caused a breach of relations between U. C. and the University of Southern California.

To obtain a referendum vote on the issue, about 900 signatures were said to be necessary. Sponsors of the petition said tonight they had about 1500 signatures.

Choice Seats Are Left for Husky Battle

Choice tickets for the University of Southern California game with Washington on Thanksgiving Day, next Thursday, at the Los Angeles Coliseum are still available to the general public at the B. H. Tickets are priced at $3 and fans are urged by Eddy to make purchase of their seats immediately as the supply of good seats is expected to be exhausted in a few days.

PORTLAND (Or.) Nov. 20. (AP)—National golfing figures began arriving in Portland today for the Oregon State open championship which starts at the Columbia Country Club tomorrow.

Horton Smith returned to the scene of his last year's triumph yesterday ready to defend his title. Leo Diegel, Frank Walsh, Craig Wood, Abe Espinosa and Al Espinosa also arrived in Portland. Gene Sarazen and Ed Dudley arrived in Seattle yesterday, where they stopped for an exhibition match. Dudley will arrive here today, but Sarazen has an exhibition match in Tocamo today with Leo Diegel. It is the third visit to Portland for Sarazen and Diegel.

Los Angeles' 1930 city women's championship reverted to normal yesterday when Miss Bea Gottlieb of Rancho defeated Mrs. E. C. Berg of Oakmont, conqueror of Mrs. Gregg Lifur, 4 and 3, in a second-round match at Griffith Park.

MISS BEA GOTTLIEB

Mrs. Berg, who dashed into the limelight on Wednesday with a sensational twenty-one-hole victory over Mrs. Lifur, played heads-up golf against Miss Gottlieb for ten holes yesterday and then hit a putting slump that cost her four of the next five holes and the match. She seemed hardly to care whether she won or lost, which can probably be attributed to the reaction after her grueling match of the day before.

Occidental and Pomona Ready for Traditional Football Clash Tomorrow in Rose Bo

BOTH ELEVENS END DRILL FOR ANNUAL "BIG GAME"

Sagehens Hope to Upset Dope in Grudge Tilt

CLAREMONT, Nov. 20.—Final preparations to build up an offense strong enough to stop the powerful running attack of their rivals occupied the Pomona College Sagehens today, and will be the order in tomorrow's scrimmage session, as the historic Pomona-Occidental grid classic, Saturday at the Rose Bowl, approaches.

The Sagehens, hoping to take advantage of a fighting chance to win, will rest today to be in the best possible shape for the tussle. Minor injuries will take their toll when the Hens go on the field, but every man will be able to play.

Coach Eugene Nixon has worked his men hard this week, and scrimmage sessions have been a daily feature. The Sagehens have shown much more dash in their recent workouts than previously. They should enter the annual fracas ready to play fighting ball against their rivals.

George Warmer, strong end, reported for drill today after a week's lay-off due to minor injuries. Warmer is a strong man, and he probably will alternate with Steve Wykoff at one flank, teaming with Stew Hagestad. Jack Witherspoon husky guard, is the only man on the hospital list now. Witherspoon is recovering from a cut chin received in training recently.

The remainder of the squad is in fairly good shape, except for minor injuries. Capt. Al Putnam and Bob Baynham are recovering from the effects of early season injuries, and they may be in condition to play their best at the Bowl.

Putnam will lead the Sagehens for the last time Saturday, closing a rather hectic grid career. In his sophomore year the Blue skipper was considered the hardest-hitting halfback in the Southern Conference, but since then injuries have put him on the shelf much of the time. Last year he was a consistent gainer, but the Hens lost him for most of the Oxy tussle when he was injured on the second play of the game. He is looking forward to another crack at the Bengals.

Six other seniors will wind up their collegiate play against the Bengals. They are Don Murdy, Bob Baynham and George Stancer, halfbacks; Stew Hagestad, end; Curt Inman, tackle, and Nip Walker, guard. All of these men are lettermen, and with the exception of Stancer they are regulars. Stancer is an outstanding reserve man.

The Sagehens are in good mental condition for the tussle. Fired by the conviction they can make up for their poor showing to date by handing the Bengals a setback, the Hens are doped to carry the battle to their opponents. The Blue defense, which has shown to be powerful, is expected to offer Glover, Reed and Johnston, Oxy ball packers, a stubborn resistance, and the Sagehen offense may click for the first time. If anything can make the Hens play over the heads, this ancient rivalry will do it.

A tricky freshman eleven figures to offer the Oxy Babes a tough time in the preliminary. The Sagechicks are set to win their fourth consecutive first-year crown, by keeping their slate clean.

RAMBLER OUTFIT TO FACE TARTARS

Considerable action is again promised at the Hollywood Polo and Hunt Club Sunday afternoon, when Buddy Du Brock leads his Rambler polo four against the Tartars in a special contest. The U.C.L.A. polo team is now using the Movie City field for its workouts and expects to put a strong team on the field within a few months. Du Brock is instructing the riders and has great hopes for Bill McCann, Webster Kelly Hanson and Dick Laver. Joe Smith and Fred De Lacey will head the offense for the Tartars and should be their leading scorers.

Tigers Picked to Chalk Up Another Win

Coach Eddie Kienholz drove his Tiger aggregation through a hard scrimmage yesterday afternoon in preparation for their crucial tilt with Pomona tomorrow afternoon in the Rose Bowl. The "big game" of the Southern California Conference marks the thirty-fourth clash between Pomona and Oxy, as well as the close of the season for both squads. Pomona holds seventeen victories to her credit and Oxy has fifteen, with but one tie game on record, that was in 1921 when the count was 7-7.

The Tigers spent the first part of yesterday's practice session on the fundamentals of tackling and blocking and then were put in operation against Pomona plays. Kienholz also turned his offense loose on the frosh for a half hour in perfecting interference for his strong running formations.

Tomorrow's annual classic appears to favor a third straight Occidental victory for both squads are on a par in defensive ability, and the Tiger offense has been much more effective this season than Coach Nixon's scoring machine.

Given half a chance, the fleet Bengal backs, Dick Glover, Tuffy Reed and Stoney Johnston, should afford plenty of tackling practice to the Sagehen backfield. Bill Myers, 200-pound halfback, completes the line-plunging asset to the Oxy backfield. The reserve ball-packing material for the Tigers will be lacking with Bob Snyder definitely out of the game. He is suffering a badly sprained shoulder as a result of the Santa Barbara tussle last Friday night. Bob Blee and Art Elliott will not be in suits either. Blee is nursing a broken toe.

The Tiger line will probably be composed of Jimmy Meeks and Larry Green at ends. Meeks will also handle the punting. Dave Snedden and Jack Schurch are due to get the call at tackles. The guard positions are doubtful as to starting selections, but Howdy March and Johnny Waddell will likely get the call, with Warren Eppinette and Bob Freeman ready to enter the fray in case they falter. Capt. Jerry Chappell will play his final college game at center. Chappell has been all-conference center the past two years and is headed for the honor again this season.

Six seniors are on the starting Oxy line-up, three of whom are in the backfield. They are Dick Glover, Stoney Johnston and Bill Myers, and in the line are Capt. Chappell, Howard March and Larry Green. Bobby Freeman, who may start at guard, is also a senior.

BRILLIANTE WINS TANFORAN GALLOP

TANFORAN, Nov. 20. (AP)—Brilliante, from the J. D. Atkins Pasadena stables, with Apprentice Jockey Andy Fischer up, beat Irfaneh, ridden by W. Moran, by a neck, in the feature six-furlong race today. Brilliante, a sprinter, was brought here from Atwood, N. Y., and it was his first out for the meet. Brilliante started slowly, Fischer taking him on the outside and with a great stretch run he took the lead. Irfaneh raced Fort Worth into defeat early, but after making a game bid could not hold the win. Glad Effort, owned by George Drumheller, was third. The time was 1:11 4-5.

OWENSMOUTH PLANS TURKEY DAY SHOOT

First Turkey Shoot of annual series of shoots held by the Owensmouth Post of the American Legion will be held Sunday, at the Owensmouth Gun Club range. The club site is located west of Owensmouth, one block north of the western terminus of Van Owen street. Rifle, pistol and shotgun events for turkeys, geese, ducks and chicken will feature the program of events. Ladies are invited and lunch will be served free at noon.

WYNN TO ENTER SPEEDWAY RACE

Eastern Driver Wires Entry for Ascot Classic

Another eastern race driver appeared on the western horizon yesterday afternoon in the person of Billy Wynn, who wired his entry for Sunday afternoon's 100-lap grind at the Legion Ascot Speedway. Wynn, a team-mate of Herman Schurch and a "lion of the dirt ovals," according to local racing men, is expected to get into town today. He is bringing with him a fast Fronty, which is, incidentally, the car that he drove to first money in the Armistice Day race at Richmond, Va.

Schurch, a Hollywood boy, is one of the several nationally known speed kings who will be making their first appearances of the season at Ascot. Others are Fred Frame, Lou Moore, Babe Stapp and Bill Cummings.

Many racing fans expect Cummings, winner of the 100-mile Syracuse classic this year, to become a dirt-track ace of the caliber of Ralph De Palma, the Italian who is regarded as the nonpareil of the sport of speed.

De Palma will be feted in royal style by the Italian colony tonight, when a dinner will be held, starting at 7 o'clock, at Bert Rovere's Paris Inn.

The great driver, headliner in Sunday's program, will be paid homage by more than 200, among whom will be many luminaries of the roaring road. The Val brothers are behind the "big feed," while Rovere will serve as master of ceremonies.

Legion officials announced yesterday that Billy Arnold has entered his car for Sunday, but refused to say whether or not he plans to drive it himself. If the champion does not go to the post, Ernie Triplett undoubtedly will handle the Model A Miller.

GAELS DECIDE ON BID TODAY

should win over Stanford or Utah.

Oakland comes forth and says it's fine for St. Mary's to meet the Trojans for charity, but that the game should be played in the Bay region.

With reports coming in on all sides, perhaps it would be best to await official word from Madigan and other St. Mary's officials, which may be forthcoming today. You can bet that plenty of pressure will be brought to bear to force the Gaels to play in San Francisco, particularly in view of that victory over Fordham.

In case St. Mary's turns down Southern California's invitation, the Trojans probably won't have any trouble securing another opponent, either from the Midwest or South. The Gael-Trojan game is a "natural," however, and St. Mary's supporters have been hollering for the contest so long that there is much ballyhoo surrounding such a game.

In the meantime Howard Jones, as he says, "would like to have somebody to do a bit of thinking about the Washington and Notre Dame games. You'd think we didn't have anything to do, what with all the front-page publicity given other matters."

The Trojans have been drilling nightly against Washington plays shot at by the Spartans, who have been coached by Clif Herd and Sam Barry, both of whom saw Washington State beat the Huskies last week. In the absence of Dutch Wilcox, still laid up with a head injury, Ray Sparling and George Decker are handling the left end position. Sparling himself has been indosposed, but will be ready to play against the Huskies.

UTAH SEEKS TO PLAY ST. MARY'S ELEVEN

OGDEN (Utah) Nov. 20. (AP)—Plans for a football game between the University of Utah and St. Mary's College were discussed here today by coaches of the two schools. It was proposed the game be in San Francisco December 6 or 13. The final decision is to be made Sunday by the board of trustees of St. Mary's.

Coach Edward P. (Slip) Madigan said his players would prefer to meet Utah or Stanford than the University of Southern California, which has opened negotiations for a game at Los Angeles December 20.

The Utah-St. Mary's game would be played at Kezar Stadium and the receipts would be divided between the unemployment funds of San Francisco and Salt Lake City.

CASANOVA WILL GET TOUGH IN MOORE GO

Sandy Casanova is an easy-going youngster, but he has promised to show a lot of viciousness when he meets Tom Moore in one of the six-round feature bouts at the Main-street Athletic Club tomorrow night. Casanova has scored nine knockouts in as many Main-street starts, and he is nettled by Moore's claim that he will not only break the knockout string but will probably halt the Mexican's winning streak. Moore is a cagy veteran who is likely to make trouble for any of them. He will be the toughest test Casanova has met to date.

Harry Wallinder and Manuel Trevini, 130-pounders, will box the other feature six-rounder. Both have class but Wallinder figures to be the favorite.

Three four-round bouts complete the card.

UTAH INVITES KANSAS, HASKELL FOR CLASHES

LAWRENCE (Kan.) Nov. 20. (AP)—Invitations to play the University of Utah a football game for charity in Denver were taken under advisement today by the University of Kansas and Haskell Indian Institute.

Kansas authorities said the matter would not be discussed until after the Missouri game. Haskell preferred to await the outcome of its games with Butler and St. Xavier in the next week, before making a decision.

FIREMEN AFTER CHARITY GAME WITH BRUINS, LIONS

Fire department football players, one of the highest-scoring aggregations in the country, would like to perform against either the U.C.L.A. Bruins or Loyola in a charity game which they believe could be staged as a preliminary to the proposed Southern California-St. Mary's contest. E. O. Barnett, athletic director of the department, announced last night that his team was available for the game and that it would not interfere with the Firemen's final game of the season with North Dakota University.

"We believe we have a team that rates with the best on the Coast. If given a chance to show the fans just what we have I am sure they will back us in our activities in the future," Barnett stated. The Firemen have run up a total of 252 points against their opponents' 39.

They have defeated San Jose College, West Coast Army, U.S.S. California, San Diego Submarine Base, Arizona State College, Oneonta Military Academy and the Santa Barbara American Legion to date.

Sunday afternoon at the Rose Bowl the Firemen play the United States Marine team from San Diego. Johnny Blewett is coach of the Devil Dogs. His brother Bill coaches the Firemen. Another brother, Jim, will referee, so it ought to be quite a family affair. The action starts at 2 p.m.

prepared in such manner that the university was unable to detect any irregularity.

When information regarding Kirkwood's case was made known to university authorities all machinery of the institution was used in attempting to learn the true facts. Every effort has been made in the past to see that our athletes are as clean as it is possible for administration and athletic authorities to make them, and the dispatch with which the Kirkwood case was handled is indicative of the fact that we are always ready to do our utmost to keep our house clean.

BROOKS SAYS HE DID NOT RECOMMEND PURVIS

TACOMA (Wash.) Nov. 20. (AP)—Frank Brooks, principal of the Sumner High School, near here, from which Spencer Purvis, former College of Puget Sound football star, was graduated, denied today he had ever recommended Purvis, or certified his credits, to the University of Southern California either under his own name or that of Kirkwood, under which name Purvis is said to have been enrolled in the southern college.

"The only credits ever certified for Purvis from our high school were to the College of Puget Sound in Tacoma," said Brooks.

He explained, however, the clerical work in connection with certification was done with the aid of three or four members of the senior class, each year, and it might have been possible for a certification under the name of Kirkwood to have been filled out by one of these students without authorization. He was very doubtful if this had occurred, however, he said, as only students of high grades and character were chosen to aid in the work.

MILLIONAIRES GIVEN SINGER

Defense Hockey Star Goes to Hollywood Team

Dutch Singer, defense star, who finished the season with Hollywood last year, has been turned over to the Los Angeles Millionaires by Portland in the deal that sent "Peaches" Headley and Paul Maher north. Singer will be on hand for the opener Monday night at the Winter Garden between the Millionaires and Lloyd Cook's San Francisco Black Hawks. Mel Malwick has announced that women will be admitted free to all California Hockey League games at the Garden this year.

Malwick has also signed Johnny Bruenteau, forward from Winnepeg, for his Millionaires. Guidos Roy of Montreal and George Brown of Vancouver, both youngsters, have also been signed.

Ray Sanders, N. Pridham, Archie Gray, Lindsay Carver and Jack Filkin are scheduled to arrive today from Canada, where they have been stranded for several days, due to trouble with the immigration officials. They are being brought here by Kenny MacKenzie, new manager of the Millionaires.

The five Canadians have been working out regularly at the Canadian border and are in splendid shape for the opener. The Carrigan brothers, Tom and Dan, and Wolf Peltier are the only hold-overs from last season.

FIVE SURVIVORS

Only five members of the Yankees' roster in 1928 are still with the team—Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Tony Lazzeri, Earl Combs and Herb Pennock.

COLIMA TRAINING HARD FOR NEWSBOYS' BENE

Bert Colima is training as if for a comeback. The Mexican favorite boxes Ace Hudkins in an exhibition bout at the Main-street Athletic Club Monday night in one of the features of the boxing and vaudeville show which will be staged to raise funds for the annual Thanksgiving dinner for the Los Angeles newsboys.

"I'm tickled to get a chance to box for the newsboys," says Colima, "but Hudkins can't box and I don't want him mauling me, even in an exhibition bout."

Hudkins vs. Colima is but one of the exhibitions scheduled. Dartmouth has given more time to defense than to offense this week.

Hank Barber, varsity tackle, was in the infirmary today with the grip and this last-minute illness has worried the coaches, although it is assumed that he will be taken with the team. Aarne Frigard likewise is a possible patient. His infected leg has not improved as fast as the coaches hoped. He has had no chance this week to work out with the team. San Diegans Take Crowns at Olympic Boxers from the San Diego Athletic Club carried off major honors in the finals of the amateur tournament that ended last night at the Olympic Club. Mitt wielders from the Border City captured three of the eight titles, one went to a navy star from the U.S.S. Relief, and the other four were taken by unattached performers.

Louis Romero, unattached, won a give-and-take bout from Nash Hernandez of the Belvedere American Legion to win the 112-pound title.

In the 118-pound division, Henry Saleby of the S.D.A.C., lost the first round, but took the next two by wide margins to win from Sam Pearson of the U.S.S. Idaho.

Ace Bergen, also of the S.D.A.C., who looks something like Ace Hudkins, won three straight fights to take the 126-pound crown, beating Charley Greenberg in the finals.

Herb Young, a six-footer, won the third title for the S.D.A.C. when he finished fast, scoring two knockdowns over Paul Zuniga, in the 135-pound division.

John Plott of the U.S.S. Relief had to go four rounds to win the 147-pound crown from Ketchell Dubenvich. The 160-pound diadem went to Clarence Hines, unattached, who won from Delbert Smith in a fast fight. Dwight Dodge knocked out Jess Valvude in two rounds to win the 175-pound laurels, while Lawrence Petrone won the heavyweight crown by default. Lieutenant-Commander "Duke" Kenworthy and Lieut. Jack Kennedy refereed. The results:

112 pounds—Louis Romero (Un.) outpointed Kenny Reed (S.D.Y.)

112 pounds—Nash Hernandez (Bel. A.L.) outpointed Frankie Camacho (Un.)

118 pounds—Henry Saleby (S.D.A.C.) outpointed Albert Armelieus (Bel. A.L.)

118 pounds—Sam Pearson (U.S.S. Idaho.) knocked out Ernest Marquis (Un.) one round.

126 pounds—Ace Bergen (S.D.A.C.) outpointed Bernard Almerez (Bel. A.L.)

135 pounds—Herbert Young (S.D.A.C.) outpointed Bernard Almerez (Bel. A.L.) four rounds.

135 pounds—Paul Zuniga (Un.) outpointed Albert Sanchez (Bel. A.L.)

147 pounds—John Plott (U.S.S. Relief.) outpointed Emanuel Rollins (Un.)

147 pounds—Ketchell Dubenvich (Bel. A.L.) knocked out Al Goldstein (Un.) two rounds.

160 pounds—Clarence Hines (Un.) outpointed Harold Peterson (Un.)

Heavies—W. J. Skinner (U.S.S. Idaho.) outpointed George Hughes (Un.)

FINALS

112 pounds—Romero (Un.) outpointed Hernandez (Bel. A.L.)

118 pounds—Saleby (S.D.A.C.) outpointed Pearson (U.S.S. Idaho.)

126 pounds—Bergen (S.D.A.C.) outpointed Charles Greenberg (Un.)

135 pounds—Young (S.D.A.C.) outpointed Zuniga (Un.)

147 pounds—Plott (U.S.S. Relief.) outpointed Dubenvich (Bel. A.L.) four rounds.

160 pounds—Hines (Un.) outpointed Delbert Smith (P.A.C.)

175 pounds — Dwight Dodge (Un.) knocked out Joe Valvude (Un.) two rounds.

STANFORD DAILY ASSISTS ARLETT

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 20. (AP)—An editorial today in the Daily Palo Alto, Stanford University newspaper, characterized dismissal of Arthur Arlett, editor of the Daily Californian, as a "flagrant violation of power. Students at the University of California should not stand by and watch campus politicians crucify their editor when there is a cause at stake," the editorial said. The editorial suggested the students demand special elections and recall their executive committee.

CROSS-COUNTRY RUN COPPED BY FREMONT

Fremont High School's cross-country squad trounced the Fairfax "sightseers" by a 16-to-50 margin in a run held at the winner's school yesterday afternoon. Out of the first six to finish, Fairfax placed only one man and he came in fourth. The results follow: Bill Turner, first; Cal Simon, second; Al Turner, third; Widett, fourth, Tobin, fifth; Hosserbert, sixth.

LOYOLA LIONS SET FOR CLASH

Tom Lieb's Team Winds Up Practice Sessions

Santa Clara Tilt Scheduled Tomorrow at Coliseum

Playa del Rey Team Likely to Play Charity Game

Winding up their final practice session in a manner which might behoove any opposition to be on the lookout, the Loyola Lions came off the Del Rey turf last night all set for thei rbig game against Santa Clara University at the Coliseum tomorrow afternoon.

Loyola has been waiting for this game ever since last year when the Bronchos came to Los Angeles and trampled over the weak Loyola eleven by a 37-to-0 score. Since then the Del Rey warriors have been waiting in silence for the time to come when they could revenge that distasteful defeat. They believe that Saturday is their golden opportunity.

If the remarkable showing Tom Lieb's eleven has made during the last few weeks means anything then Santa Clara will have to play its best ball to win. The Lions have played first-class football of late, holding St. Ignatius to a 14-to-0 score, tying the Olympic Club, and overwhelming the California Aggies.

Tom Lieb has built up a fast, hard-fighting outfit at Loyola. It is well drilled in the fundamentals and has the Notre Dame system down to perfection. It will be playing its best football of the season Saturday and if this is good enough to keep the Bronchos in check then Lieb is going to sign up a charity game.

On the Loyola line are the best tacklers, and hardest blockers Loyola has ever had. The three Sargent brothers on the left side of the line go to make up the best fighting trio in California. All three are natural born fighters and enact the star role in every game. Lieb has said that Ted, the left tackle, could make that position at Notre Dame with ease. Before each game all three shake hands and "then proceed to worry the opposition.

Lieb will start a light backfield in Saturday's game hoping to put over a touchdown early in the game. This quartet is composed of the fastest men on the Del Rey squad. They are Smith at quarter, Gleason and Pheasant at halves, and Hannon at full.

Clipper Smith is bringing a powerful squad to Los Angeles. It is composed of men who have seen two years of experience. The backfield of Morey, Mettler, Storm and Stockton is the best in Santa Clara's history. Stockton at the full back post is one of the hardest hitting backs in the north.

The Bronchos closed their practice sessions at Coronado yesterday. They spent the week at the resort after meeting the marines last Sunday. They are scheduled to leave San Diego this morning and arrive in town this afternoon. There are thirty-five in the party.

OREGON STATE, BRUINS CLASH

Schissler indicated. Several of his backfield stars are still nursing bruises from the Oregon game and the Beaver coach would like to save them as much as possible. The Beavers leave tomorrow morning for Chicago, where on Thanksgiving Day they tackle West Virginia University.

Tonight's game will mark the second appearance of the Oregon State team here this season. They played the Trojans here September 27 and lost, 27 to 7. They gave Stanford a tough battle up to the last minute of play and had the Redshirts scared stiff. The Washington State game was a toss-up until the Cougars intercepted Buerke's pass in the last few minutes of play.

The Oregon State team usually functions better as the season wears on. If such is the case, the Bruins are in for a thumping tonight. If, however, the Bruins have improved as much as their performance against Oregon indicated they should make things very interesting. The Westwood followers claim that Spaulding has a diversified attack which will satisfy all the critics. The Bruins will uncover some lateral passes and forward passes that will prove real scoring plays, the Bruin attaches state.

Ralph Buerke, Cecil Sherwood, Hal Moe and Frank Little are the Oregon State star backs named to start tonight. As stated above Schissler may decide to hold several of them out for awhile, but they are sure to see action if things begin to look bad. McGilvray, right end, will captain the team tonight for the Beavers.

Eddie Solomon, captain of the Bruins, will call signals in the starting line-up. Bob Decker and Ruben Thoe will play the halfback positions, while Norm Duncan will hold down the fullback berth.

The Bruins worked last night under the Coliseum arc lights and when they were through the Beavers did a little prancing around the greensward.

The kick-off is scheduled for 8 o'clock. Bring along your own heat. Starting line-ups:

	U.C.L.A.		Oregon State.
30	Wellendorf	R.E.L.	McKalip	37

RABBIT PUNCHES
BY PAUL LOWRY

THE TOUGH TROJANS

MR. KNUTE K. ROCKNE was on the air the other night with Grantland Rice.

"What will be your toughest game, Northwestern, Army or Southern California?" queried Mr. Rice.

"Southern California," replied the eminent coach of the South Bend Ramblers, without a moment's hesitation.

"Don't misunderstand me," he went on. "They'll all be tough (there was considerable accent on the tough,) "and we may lose all three of them."

Mr. Rice then asked Rockne if the full second stop on the shift this year had bothered Notre Dame.

"At the start of the season I thought it would," said Knute. "However, the reverse has been true. The slowing up of the shift has made it more effective, and I am more than indebted to the men who put over the 1930 rule. I wouldn't go back to the fast shift if the rules permitted it."

That for Pop Warner.

ROCKNE RATES PLAYERS

ASKED who the best players on the Coast are this year, Rockne replied that Pinckert, Duffield and Baker of Southern California, Rothert and Moffatt of Stanford, Stennett of St. Mary's, Kitzmiller of Oregon, Hufford of Washington and Swartz of Washington State were the outstanding performers.

Mr. Rockne called Washington State's plunging fullback "Schwartzer," which leads to the suspicion that 'Rock' was covering more territory than he could pronounce.

Rockne said the best executed play of the year he has seen occurred in the Pittsburgh-Notre Dame game.

Marchmont Schwartz of the Irish eleven raced 67 yards to a touchdown.

And you could hear the tremolo of exultation in Mr. Rockne's voice as he described the deed.

"All but one Pittsburgh man was on his back. Our blocking was superb."

STANFORD-CALIFORNIA PUNCH

HERE'S additional evidence of the kick in the Stanford-California game at Berkeley tomorrow. (Figures supplied by Mr. Kenneth Priestley, head of the Athletic News Bureau at California.)

(1.) Game sold out as far as California was concerned four days after first application received from alumni, August 9.

(3.) Tightwad Hill admissions on sale to alumni only. (Tightwad Hill overlooks the stadium.)

(4.) California's allotment of seats 51,612, Stanford's 27,994.

ROMANS, TIGERS TANGLE TODAY

Romans are favored to put Lincoln out of the picture.

That would leave only Fremont and Manual Arts tied for first, with the Toilers taking the championship by virtue of a 29-0 decision scored over the Pathfinders in the second round of play.

If Tunney can whip the Tigers into the same shape that found them nosing out Manual Arts, 7-6, early in the season, there seems no reason why Lincoln shouldn't turn in a victory over the Romans. However, Horace Bresee's eleven, after a bad start, has found itself and is favored to win.

The Romans present quite a potent offense with two such speedsters as Max McClain and Chuck Cheshire cavorting in the backfield. Both are dangerous scoring possibilities any time they have the ball. Cheshire is much better than he was last year, doing most of the kicking, as well as backing up the line in fine fashion. Chuck is also one of the best open-field runners in the league.

When the all-city pickers start choosing, it will be hard to leave him off the team.

Two other City League contests are listed for the final round and will find Polytechnic at Franklin and Belmont at Jefferson. The Mechanics and the Democrats are favored.

Two C.I.F. play-off games are scheduled for this week-end, Villa Nova, champions of the Ventura County Minor League, taking on El Monte of the San Gabriel Valley League on the Lions' field. One thing certain about the tussle, it will be cleanly played and with no arguments. Veteran officials who worked in the El Monte-Puente title battle on Armistice Day report that the game was the cleanest they had ever witnessed and that the sportsmanship exhibited by both sides was exceptional.

Santa Maria and Santa Barbara will tangle tomorrow at Peabody Stadium in Santa Barbara in the other play-off game listed.

POMONA, COVINA MEET IN ANNUAL BATTLE

With the team in high spirits and ready to chalk up their fifth straight league victory, Coach (Butter) Gorrell's Covina Colts will attempt to take Archie Nisbet's Pomona Cardinals into camp tomorrow afternoon at Pomona. This will be the final league tilt for both elevens.

Due to the fact that the Colts have an impressive Citrus Belt League record this season, having won four games and lost none, they will be slight favorites to defeat the Cards, who have but one league win to their credit in four starts. But as past performances don't mean a thing when these old rivals clash, the Cards have as good a chance to win as the Colts.

Archie Nisbet's Cards will be out to win this encounter in order to even up her won-and-lost column with Covina. Nisbet-coached teams have turned the tables on the Colts but twice in their five meetings while the locals have won three tilts.

Here is a record of past performances between the two teams: In 1926 the Colts smothered the Cards, 25-0, in a Southern California play-off game. Pomona won an early season tilt, 5-0, in 1927 but later in the same year the local crew defeated the Cardinals, 13-6, in the first round of the Southern California championships. In 1928 Nisbet's team again upset the Colts, 6-0, in a preseason game. The last game played between Covina and Pomona was that thrilling 1928 Thanksgiving Day battle at Claremont, when Capt. Harold Chamberlain, with a broken hand, led a late fourth-period Colt rally which resulted in a touchdown and a 19-18 victory for Covina.

So Marty Brill transferred to Notre Dame, and after a year's ineligibility made the football team. Playing at right halfback last year, he proved himself a steady, firm performer, whose strength and determination and ability to block and back up the line won him a place among one of the star backfields of the land. He could carry the ball and receive passes, too, but the spotlight that plays on touchdown kings shone on others.

Came the big day, when Notre Dame played Penn at Philadelphia. Brill not only scored Notre Dame's first touchdown on a 66-yard run, but he scored two others on long gallops. It was sweet revenge for Marty and his dad, and complete vindication for the idea of transferring to Notre Dame. Of course, there are those who will question the practice of going to a certain school merely for its football. Also at the report that Marty's wealthy poppa gave him $1000 for each touchdown that he scored. Molla Mallory's wealthy husband is said to have presented her with much more than that when she won her biggest tennis victories, and Herb Fleishhacker's daddy used to buy him a big bond whenever he did anything in a football way at Stanford.

to the wars after a lengthy rest, put up two great fights to win the McLarnin shot. Billy whipped Canzoneri in Chicago and lost a hairline decision to Jackie (Kid) Berg, British windmill. As the two junior welterweights wound up training today it appeared McLarnin would have a slight advantage in the weights. Jimmy is due to weigh between 140 and 142 pounds tomorrow while Petrolle probably will scale at 138.

Two attractive ten-round appetizers are on the card. Taitt Littman, middleweight newcomer from Milwaukee, will meet Harry Smith, heavy-hitting Harlem Negro, in the semifinal, while Eddie Van, Polish welterweight, will swap clouts with Pee Wee Jarrett of Grand Rapids, Mich., in the first ten.

SHELL PUCKSTERS DOWN UNION OIL

Shell Oil defeated the Union Oilers, 5 to 1, at the Winter Garden last night, and gained a first-place tie with the Sunfreze Bears in the Amateur Ice Hockey League. The contest was featured by a bit of fistic endeavors by "Tubby" Coleman and "Ace" Keyes, who attempted to settle a few personal difficulties on the ice. Shell plays Gilmore Oil tomorrow night.

JONES STILL MEMBER OF GOLF BODY

Executive Committee of U.S.G.A. Takes No Action in Matter

BOBBY JONES

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—Although Robert T. Jones, Jr., was not in attendance his status as a member of the executive committee of the United States Golf Association remained unhanged today at a meeting of this governing group.

The brief statement issued on the committee's behalf by Prescott S. Bush, secretary, contained no reference to Jones nor would any of the committeemen answer a question as to whether the world's champion, having renounced his amateur standing for the talking motion pictures, would serve as a member in 1931.

The indications were Jones would fill out his term of office, with the likelihood he would not serve with the new executive committee functioning after the annual meeting, January 9-10, in New York City.

The committee today fixed the dates for the following national tournaments:

Women's championship at The Country Club, Buffalo, N. Y., September 21 to 26.

Men's amateur championship at the Beverly Country Club, Chicago, August 31 to September 5.

No action was taken on the "sand wedge," the new concave-faced instrument, equipped for the special purpose of getting the ball out of sand traps. Its use has been the subject of some controversy both here and abroad.

MAPLE LEAFS UPSET BY BRUIN PUCKSTERS

The tail-end Los Angeles Bruins ice hockey team scored an upset at the Palais de Glace last night when they took a 5-to-1 victory over the Maple Leafs pucksters in a thrilling game. The contest was featured by the brilliant goal tending of Ted Arlind, and the offensive play of Jack Neil and Art Palfrey for the Bruins. The latter two scored a pair of goals apiece.

SEEK WALKER-JACKSON GO

Wadhams Expects to Sign Classy Welters Today for Olympic Main Event December 2

Paulie Walker and Sammy Jackson are close to signing to box the ten-round wind-up at the Olympic for December 2. Matchmaker Wad Wadhams will hold a final conference with managers of both boxers today.

The split in the percentage, of which Jackson's pilot is said to want the lion's share, held up the signing yesterday. Wadhams has also booked Baby Sal Sorio and Bobby Reister for a ten-round engagement. The young team of knockout experts will likely go to the post December 9.

Eddie Mack and Cecil Payne, popular lightweights who clash next Tuesday, are in fine shape. Jack Dempsey watched the two boys work out yesterday. The Manassa man is an admirer of both boxers and stated he planned to see them fight it out next week.

Dempsey said he will be in Los Anegeles for the next month except for occasional short trips of refereeing. He has over $30,000 worth of business in sight with small clubs along the Coast all clamoring to have Dempsey referee for them.

Mack is as orthodox as Payne is unorthodox, and their battle is hard to figure. Boxing men look at the bout as a toss-up. If they had fought a year ago when Payne was "hot," the Kentuckian would probably have been the favorite.

Payne is a little lighter than Mack, although they may check in about the same. But Payne can do 130 pounds and be in good shape while Mack is getting big and has passed out of the junior lightweight class entirely.

Mack has a good-looking lightweight named Lew Avery with him. Avery comes from Tulsa and has whipped boys like Harry Dublinsky and others of this class. He lost a close decision to Tommy Grogan, Omaha slugger, a short time ago.

MISS GOTTLIEB ANNEXES MATCH

California, the defending champion, and Mrs. C. J. Woerner of Lakeside. These two fine players waged a furious battle that was reminiscent of their clash in the finals a year ago. Mrs. Green won, 1 up, after a nip-and-tuck tussle.

In the lower bracket, Mrs. Mark Steele of California defeated Mrs. George Crook of Hacienda, 2 and 1, and Mrs. C. K. Bellew eliminated Mrs. Ralph C. Noble of Wilshire, 1 up.

Semifinal matches will be played at 10 o'clock this morning with the following players paired:

Mrs. Green vs. Miss Gottlieb.
Mrs. Bellew vs. Mrs. Steeple.

In both the Gottlieb - Berg and Woerner-Green matches the players were all even at the turn. Both Mrs. Green and Mrs. Woerner contested every hole bitterly and were still even at the end of fourteen holes. The California star won the fifteenth and then held Mrs. Woerner even for the remaining three holes.

The cards:

Mrs. Green	446	655	356—44
Mrs. Woerner	555	455	356—43
Mrs. Berg	655	455	555—45
Miss Gottlieb	455	555	456—44

Mrs. Green	553	554	456—42—86
Mrs. Woerner	544	645	456—43—86
Mrs. Berg	455	647
Miss Gottlieb	445	536

Miss Gottlieb and Mrs. Green should put up a great match today, although the defending champion now rates a decided favorite to repeat her victory of 1929. Miss Gottlieb is a splendid golfer, being a former Metropolitan star.

Mrs. Steele has been knocking at the championship gates for some time, and at last appears to be playing the golf of which she is capable. She is a protege of Harry Pressler, San Gabriel's well-known developer of champions.

Indian Jim Rivers knocked out Alphonso Gonzales in the seventh round of the scheduled eight-round main event at the Pasadena arena last night. Rivers won all the way with the exception of the fourth round when he was on the floor for a nine count. In the semi-wind-up Georgie Akis won the decision over Jack Leyva. Young Ralph outpointed Eddie Duango in the special event. In the other bouts Al Taylor decisioned Charlie Parkes.

CITY LIGHTWEIGHT TITLE WON BY FAIRFAX BABES

Fremont Holds Colonial Team to Scoreless Tie in Final Class "B" Struggle

Coach Frank Shaffer's Fairfax lightweight team became the champions of the City League yesterday afternoon on Fremont's field when they tied the Pathfinders 0-0, thereby remaining the only undefeated lightweight team in the city. The game was one of the most hectic and thrilling contests ever witnessed in Class B football.

Capt. Carl Siegmund of the Fairfax babes was the highlight of the game, breaking away for numerous sweeping end runs that netted from 25 to 50 yards at a time, keeping the ball contiually in Fremont's territory. However, the Colonials were not able to push the ball over for the winning score.

At the start of the second half the Fairfax team led by Siegmund and Chuck McGowan started a drive from their own 35-yard line which ended in their crossing the Fremont goal. However, they lost the score because of a 15-yard penalty for holding.

The outstanding players for Fairfax were Capt. Siegmund, Chuck McGowan, in the backfield, and Elliot, Di Georgio and Petrone on the line, while the outstanding players for Fremont were Hallowell, Capt. Stein and Jermain.

In a Class C game played at Fairfax, the Colonial Cees and the Fremont babes battled to a 7-7 tie. It was the last game of the season for both elevens.

MANUAL ARTS BABES NOSE OUT GARFIELD

Scoring only in the first period, the Manual Arts lightweights nosed out the Garfield Bullpups, 6 to 0, yesterday in a game played on the loser's gridiron. Coach Cooper's Bullpups put up a much better game than was expected of them. The Toilers, unaccustomed to the heavy dirt field and evidently overconfident, were hard pressed to hold their scant lead over the home team in the latter stages of the game. Manual scored in the first quarter when De Stain shot a short pass to Urb for a touchdown. Woody McGowan and De Stain were the stars of the fray.

Glen Coyle, star Manual Arts guard, was kicked in the stomach so severely that it was necessary to take him to the Georgia-street Hospital for treatment. Dr. John E. Kirkpatrick, who examined Coyle, declared there was a possibility that his spleen was ruptured. His condition was pronounced serious.

JEFFERSON UPSETS BELMONT BABES, 6-0

Coach Clarence Ebers's Belmont lightweight charges bowed to a powerful Democrat lightweight aggregation, 6 to 0, on the Hilltopper oval yesterday after holding the classy Jeff gridders to a 0-to-0 tie in the first three periods. The Ebersmen failed to click throughout the tussle.

A sustained drive by the Democrat squad carried the ball to the Hilltopper's 6-yard line and Hicks carried it over on a jaunt around end. The conversion was wide. In the last few minutes of play the Jefferson eleven took the ball on a fumble and worked it to the Green and Black 2-yard stripe but failed to score as the gun went off.

ANAHEIM CEES ANNEX ORANGE LOOP TITLE

ANAHEIM, Nov. 20.—Ed Kroutil's flashy Anaheim Cees swamped Excelsior, 39 to 0, here today in the final game of the Orange League. It was Anaheim's fifth consecutive victory and it clinched the championship of the division.

The champions have not been scored on in league competition this year, and have scored 159 points in five games, one less than a point a minute. Next Tuesday Anaheim will invade El Monte for the only interleague play-off allowed by the C.I.F.

POLY LIGHTWEIGHTS WIN OVER FRANKLIN, 9-7

A thirty-yard gallop over right tackle to a touchdown in the final three minutes of play by Troy, colored Mechanic end brought back into the backfield on offense, gave Coach "Borey" Bell's Poly lightweights a 9-to-7 victory over Franklin yesterday at Dunn Field. Poly scored first in the second quarter when Sherwood booted a perfect place-kick from the 35-yard line for a field goal and three points. The Mechanics lost their margin in the same period when Sullivan intercepted a Poly pass and ran 20 yards to a touchdown. The extra point was added on a line plunge.

COMPTON LIGHTS DOWN GLENDALE; WIN TITLE

Compton lightweights won the Class B championship of the Coast League yesterday by defeating the Glendale babes, 14 to 0, in a game played on the winner's field. Coach Harold Lovejoy's men are undefeated this year, winning four league games and tying two. Compton scored early in the game when Williams, left end, blocked a Glendale punt, the latter recovering behind their own goal for a safety. The Tartars scored again in the second quarter when Matheny smashed over the goal line after a 60-yard march down the field. Tatman scored the other Compton touchdown in the final quarter when he ran 35 yards around end for the marker.

HOLLYWOOD "BEES" BEAT ROOSEVELT, 20-7

Coach "Doc" Pasch's Hollywood High lightweight aggregation trounced Coney Galindo's Roosevelt Bees, 20 to 7, in a City League game played on the winner's field yesterday afternoon. Two of the Sheiks' tallies came in the second quarter and one in the third. Teraji, sub right half, scored first on a 15-yard run after Hollywood recovered a Roosevelt fumble. The last two tallies were made when Manbo, full, bucked over from the 3-yard line, and Teraji galloped 50 yards to the promised land. Roosevelt rallied in the last quarter, and Parra, quarter, plunged 3 yards to score their only touchdown. The line-ups follow:

SANTA PAULA, FILLMORE

Paula and Fillmore high schools,

SANTA PAULA, Nov. 20.—Santa Paula and Fillmore high schools tied for second place in the Ventura County Major Football League, will meet on Thanksgiving Day here to decide which team is entitled to the county championship and the American Legion trophy which goes with the honors, it was officially announced today. The Cardinals of Santa Paula and the Flashes of Fillmore battled to a scoreless tie in their game October 18. Both, however, dropped a decision to Santa Barbara, champions of the Ventura League.

HOOVER BABES COP FOOTHILL TITLE

By trouncing the Burbank High "Cees," 32 to 0, in a game played on their own field yesterday afternoon, Coach Clinton Crow's Herbert Hoover High babes won the Foothill League Class C football championship. The Hoover squad went through the season undefeated and with but two ties marring their record. Virgil Garber, flashy right guard, featured the game by intercepting two Burbank passes and galloping 70 and 80 yards for scores, the first coming in the opening quarter and the second in the last period.

L. A. "CEES" IN WIN OVER URBAN, 13 TO 0

Scoring a touchdown in each of the first and third quarters, the Los Angeles High "Cees" defeated Coach Harold Blanchard's Urban Military Academy eleven, 13 to 0, in a game played on the Cadet's field yesterday afternoon. Capt. Russell, fullback, made both of the scores. The first came after a series of line-plunges, Russell going over from the 3-yard mark, and the second on a brilliant 80-yard gallop with excellent interference. Urban threatened to score once or twice, but the victors always tightened and held for downs. The line-ups follow:

Counterfeit Ducats for Game Found

Warning Los Angeles football fans against purchasing tickets for the University of Southern California - Notre-Dame football game on December 6, next, from scalpers, Warren Bovard, vice-president of the educational institution, last night announced that he has obtained information that counterfeit tickets are being printed in this city. The announcement was made at the end of a conference with Dist.-Atty. Fitts and Dep. Dist.-Atty. Jordan at which the question of prosecution of those responsible for the counterfeiting was discussed.

In issuing his warning Mr. Bovard cautioned all ticket purchasers to make certain before paying for tickets that the card bears the signature of Arnold Eddy, graduate manager of the Associated Students of the University of Southern California.

CALIFORNIA MILITARY TEAM WINS HARD GAME

The Southern California Military Academy eleven trimmed the South Western Soldiers, 14 to 0, yesterday in a game played on the loser's gridiron. Padilla scored the victors' two touchdowns and also added both extra points. Both scores came as a result of powerful line bucks. McHollend, Chaplan and Bertolla starred for the losers, while Padilla, Melrose and Savin shone for the southern team.

Pasadena Cops Play Firemen

PASADENA, Nov. 20.—Whether a man who has shot and killed bank bandits can shoot a forward pass better than a man who has rescued fair maidens from a burning building will be the principal issue tomorrow night when the football teams of the local police and fire departments stage their annual grudge game in the Rose Bowl.

More than 14,000 ducats are reported to have been sold and a record crowd for such an encounter is expected.

The firemen squad includes the State champion first-aid team which boasts it will practice its ability on several well-known police officers tomorrow night.

ROGERS'S ROVERS TO BATTLE PIRATE FOUR

Will Rogers and his Rovers, which also includes Will Rogers, Jr., will clash with Snowy Baker's Buccaneers on the Uplifters' polo field Sunday afternoon in the weekly polo tilt carded by the popular Rustic Canyon club. Charles Crawford and Lionel Pedley will team with the Rogers family, forming a strong combination which is apt to give Baker's squad plenty of action.

The Buccaneers, with Baker at No. 3, include T. Lyell Puckett, John Brandeis and Carl Beal, the latter entirely recovered from his injury of two weeks ago when he severed an artery in his right forearm.

Jack Holt and Hugh Blue will umpire the match, which starts at 2 p.m., and which is open to the public with ample parking facilities on the grounds.

BIG EVENT
Of The Year
150
Super Bargains
As Low As
49c
At 10 o'Clock Sharp
SUNDAY MORNING

November 23, the doors on the Figueroa-street side of our Vast Used Car Department at 12th and Figueroa will be thrown open to the public.

Each bargain car will be plainly tagged and will be sold to the person securing the tag. We will accept no responsibility in controversies between individuals and will recognize only the holder of the price tag.

This sale will be conducted strictly as advertised and no dealer or Greer-Robbins Company employee will be permitted to participate. No person can remove more than one tag. In event of any person removing more than one tag or transferring a tag to another person, all cars involved will be automatically withdrawn from sale.

THESE CARS ARE AVAILABLE TO THE PUBLIC ONLY and everyone attending will have an equal chance.

HOW GUGGENHEIM MADE HIS START

Producing stove polish in sausage form gave the late Meyer Guggenheim, founder of the House of Guggenheim, one of the richest families in the world, his first taste of wealth.

"An immigrant boy rubs stove polish on his fingers, and dreams of great things for himself and his descendants," writes Edward Doherty in the Liberty Magazine. "There is the magic of Aladdin's lamp in the polish, and greater things happen than he had dreamed.

"Meyer began making a stove polish out of black lead, but he wasn't satisfied with it. It was a powder, and, though it cleaned stoves well, it left black marks on the hands that used it, marks hard to cleanse. It was an accident that he, or someone working for him, discovered that by mixing the powder with and water one had a paste that would not soil the hands.

"The women were enthusiastic about the paste, so Meyer bought a sausage-casing machine—bought it, second-hand—ran his paste through it, cut it off the right sausage lengths, wrapped it up in neat packages, and put it on the market.

"One fine day, when Meyer was out of town on business, Van Horn, his partner, sold all the stock on hand, took all the money in the place, and faded out of the picture. Guggenheim, who had made a little fortune, had to start all over again.

"It was a blow below the belt—but Meyer fought all the harder. He made more polish. Later he formed a partnership with S. Dreifuss and Jacob Loeb, and they opened a store in Philadelphia. They dealt in black lead, coffees, spices, indigo, polish, soda and starches, and they made a fortune that wouldn't be sneered at even today."

Sleeps During Operation

For many years medical men have been searching for new anesthetics as complete in their effects of deadening sensation, but more free than the possibility of undesirable consequences. A wonderful new anesthetic called avertin is proving successful. Avertin is given internally and the patient simply falls into a deep sleep. He may be roused sufficiently to answer questions or even to converse on a subject, but he feels no pain. Avertin has no adverse effects upon the lungs. On regaining consciousness, the patient breathes quite normally.

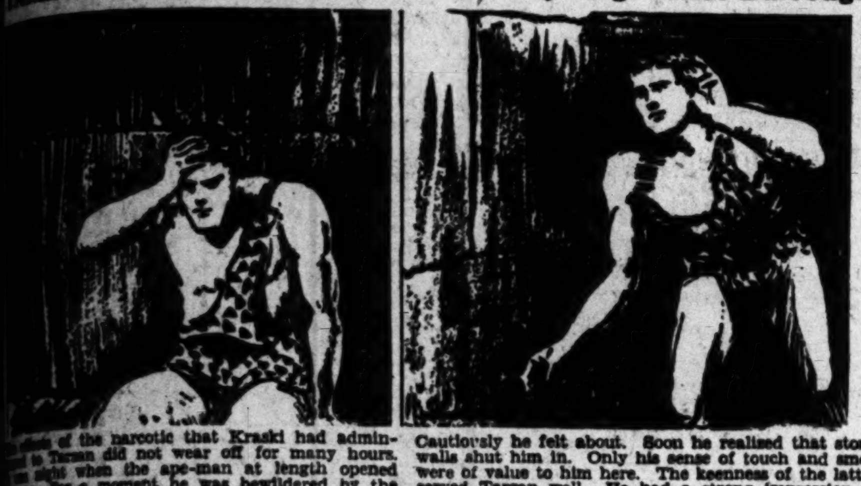
A CHUCKLE FOR EVERYBODY

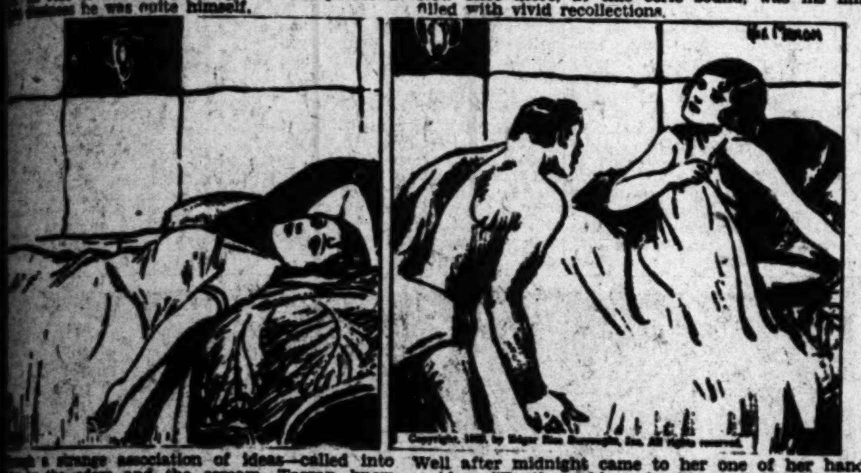
TARZAN AND THE GOLDEN LION

By Edgar Rice Burroughs



effects of the narcotic that Kraski had administered to Tarzan did not wear off for many hours. It was night when the ape-man at length opened his eyes. For a moment he was bewildered by the darkness and the silence surrounding him. All he knew at first was that he was uninjured, for he felt no pain. The fog of his drugged brain cleared slowly as he realized the trick that had been played upon him. He rose to his feet, finding that except for a slight dizziness he was quite himself.

Cautiously he felt about. Soon he realized that stone walls shut him in. Only his sense of touch and smell were of value to him here. The keenness of the latter served Tarzan well. He had a strong impression of familiarity in certain fragrant odors; a haunting suggestion that he had known them before under similar circumstances. And then from above, through earth and masonry, sounded an uncanny scream. Now once more, at this eerie sound, was his mind filled with vivid recollections.



Copyright, 1930, by Edgar Rice Burroughs, Inc. All rights reserved.

Through a strange association of ideas—called into being by the odors and the scream—Tarzan knew that he was in the dark pit beneath Opar. . . . Above him in her temple chamber, La tossed upon a sleepless couch. None knew better than La the difficulties that faced her in her proposed attempt to have the ape-man for herself. She was High Priestess of a horrid cult, but she was a woman too; a woman who had loved but once and given that love to the god-like creature who was again within her power.

Well after midnight came to her one of her handmaidens. "Dooth would speak with you," she whispered. Now it was death for a man to come to the High Priestess's chamber. La knew the exigency must be urgent, for Dooth was her friend and staunch supporter. "Bring him to me!" she bade the girl, after a moment's reflection, "and as you value your life, see that you tell no one." A moment later the girl returned with Dooth, who halted a few paces from the High Priestess and saluted her. "Speak, Dooth!" she commanded.

Tarlazzi Shooting Blamed on Row Over Rent

The sinister picture of a woman's long-sleeved arm pointing a gun through an open doorway, while the hand of a sleeveless arm clutched frantically at its wrist, yesterday entered the investigation of the fatal shooting last Saturday night of Frank Tarlazzi, 31 years of age, in his mother's home at 1145 Los Palos street.

Basing their request on such a picture, as it had been described by Miss Ruth Biescar of 1130 Calzona street, Detective-Lieutenants Corsini and Thompson obtained from Dep. Dist.-Atty. Hale a complaint charging the mother, Mrs. Rosa Tarlazzi, 65, with having murdered her son.

And while the complaint was being issued, anonymous voices over the telephone, according to the detectives, were warning Miss Biescar with such threats as "Remember the Black Hand!" "The Mafia never forgets!" and "Keep your mouth shut if you want to keep your friends!" The detectives, accordingly, arranged for police protection of the young woman.

The fatal shooting last Saturday climaxed a drinking party during which there had been a three-cornered argument among Tarlazzi, his wife and his mother, concerning rent the mother declared her son owed her. Tarlazzi admitted this, the detectives say, before he died in Georgia-street Receiving Hospital. But because Mrs. Dorothy Tarlazzi, the widow, had been found standing over the body with a gun in her hand, according to the officers, she was arrested and assumed blame for the shooting.

At the inquest Tuesday, all witnesses excepting Miss Biescar stated they were too intoxicated at the time to remember who had fired the fatal shots. Miss Biescar testified she and Tarlazzi were in the living-room, when from the open doorway leading to a darkened bedroom there suddenly protruded the long-sleeved arm, in the hand of which a revolver was clutched. Another arm, this one sleeveless, then shot out and the hand clasped the wrist of the sleeved one. Miss Biescar identified the sleeved arm as that of Tarlazzi's mother and the other as that of his wife.

The Coroner's jury found the shooting was done accidentally while mother and wife were struggling for possession of the gun.

Influenced, however, by Miss Biescar's story, police yesterday asked for and obtained the complaint.

Mrs. Tarlazzi was arraigned before Municipal Judge Ballard and ordered held in the County Jail without bail to await preliminary hearing, set by the court for the 25th inst.

STENOGRAPHERS WIN FREEDOM

Friends Back Pleas For Divorces

Seated—Manie De Sues and Lorraine Groves. Standing—Alice Preston, Gertrude West and Hazel De Sues.

FIVE stenographers from Hollywood went into Superior Judge Sproul's court yesterday to present the case of working wives versus the domestic article.

The burden of their quintuple song, sounded in behalf of two of their number, Mrs. Lorraine Groves and Mrs. Manie De Sues, seeking marital freedom, was that their husbands were jealous of their economic independence and sought to curb their recreational activities by curses and abuse.

"Just because I work and earn money outside of my home my husband expects more of me than he would if I stayed at home," said Mrs. De Sues. "And the names he calls me are something fierce."

Miss Hazel De Sues corroborated her sister's words, and Mrs. Gertrude West made the testimony stronger.

Judge Sproul signed a decree of liberation, inasmuch as the husband, Lloyd De Sues, did not appear in court.

Mrs. Groves told a similar story, regarding the abusive proclivities of Clifford Groves.

"I just couldn't stand it any longer," said the plaintiff. "My friends wondered how I stood it as long as I did."

One of her friends was Mrs. Alice Preston, who got on the witness stand and wondered some more for the benefit of the court record.

Judge Sproul agreed that this particular wonder should cease, and gave Mrs. Groves a decree.

Moving Story Wins Divorce

Moving to avoid paying rent did not appeal to Mrs. Josephine Goatcher, she told Superior Judge Moncur yesterday in obtaining a divorce from George Goatcher.

"I was forced to live the life of a gypsy or nomad because my husband always was neglected to pay the rent," testified Mrs. Goatcher. "He also failed to provide for me and our two children."

Judge Moncur awarded her custody of the children, Thelma, 10 years of age, and Eugene, 8.

NEW CLINIC SERVES AT LOW RATES

Medical Group Sponsors Move to Aid Those Who Cannot Pay High Costs

Specialized medical service at a nominal rate has been made available to residents of the city who otherwise would be unable to obtain such service, with the opening of a clinic at 614 West Temple street. Examinations, consultations or treatments may be had there for $1 a visit.

The clinic is sponsored by a group of about six physicians and specialists who maintain their own offices in the city, but who are giving a portion of their time to the clinic. The service is open to anyone, regardless of color or creed, and patients may make as many visits as their needs require.

The range of work will include internal medicine, diagnosis, heart and lung complaints, intestinal diseases, eye, ear, nose and throat troubles, women's diseases and confinement. The offices consist of a large reception room, consultation and examining rooms, and they are equipped for any work but surgery. Where examinations show that operations are necessary, the clinic has surgeon members who will take care of patients for a nominal fee, with special hospital arrangements also at moderate prices.

The clinic is open every day except Sunday from 9 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. to accommodate working people. In the building there is a pharmacy which is co-operating with the clinic in filling patients' prescriptions at nominal prices, and there also is dental service available at minimum rates. Miss J. Follet is the secretary in charge.

Murdered Man's Body Discovered

A murder believed to have been committed for robbery was revealed yesterday by the finding, in a ditch at Second street and Arrowhead Highway, Arcadia, of the body of a man identified as Luz Mada, 40 years of age, a produce dealer of Thermal.

The body was discovered by Fred S. Wood, 1248 Dalton avenue, Baldwin Park. He notified the Sheriff's office and Capt. Bright, head of the homicide detail, assigned Deputy Sheriffs Brewster and Weybright to investigate.

Mada's head, the officers reported, had been battered beyond recognition. The name, Luz Mada, tattooed on the left arm, established the victim's identity. No money was found in the pockets of the man's clothing, indicating according to the deputies, that Mada was followed after having attended to some business in Los Angeles and then slain and robbed.

Bullock's New Palm Springs Shop Cheerful

A new shop opened by Bullock's at the Desert Inn, Palm Springs, will complete its first week of business today. Housed in a newly erected building of Spanish design, with red title roof and gay awnings, the shop has attracted a fashionable clientele, store executives say.

Sports and travel apparel for men and women are in the shop's stock of merchandise. There is a room in which articles for men exclusively are shown. Boots, spurs, golf clubs and sweaters contribute a clubby outdoor aspect against a setting of hand-woven rugs of ancient Indian design and deep leather chairs in beige and rust.

The women's shopping room is equally cheerful. Hand-woven curtains, walnut furniture especially built for Bullock's Desert Inn Shop, lend a feminine touch against a background of cool greens and henna with snappy offerings of sports and travel costumes.

GRAVEL PLANT APPROVED

An ordinance permitting the establishment of an oiled-gravel mixing plant at the Arroyo Seco and Avenue 21 was passed by the City Council yesterday.

PLEA DENIED ON ESTATE HANDLING

Judge Approves Accounts of Executors Accused by Pendell as Wasteful

Superior Judge Hazlett yesterday denied Harry G. Pendell's petition for an order revoking the letters testamentary on the $250,000 estate of his mother, Mrs. Rose Pendell. The court also approved, with minor qualifications, the first current accounting of the executors, George Naegele and the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank. Pendell had asserted the executors mismanaged the estate and were wasteful.

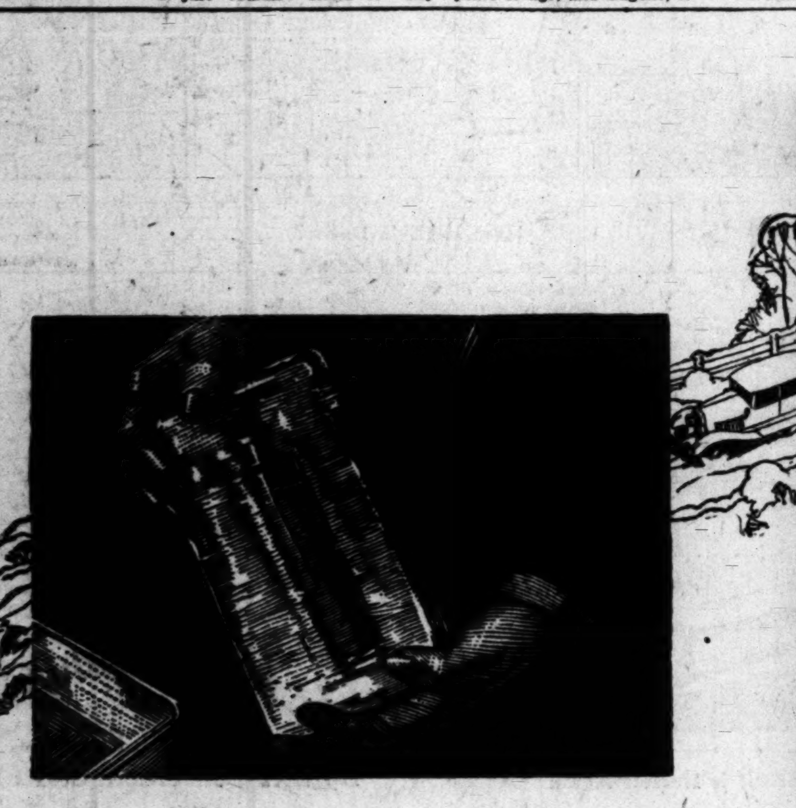
Judge Hazlett's memorandum states the balance with which the executors are charged is $246,850, including $1201 cash. The executors also are directed to distribute to Arthur C. Pendell of Saginaw, Mich., stepson of the testatrix, in addition to the Santa Monica property described in the will, all net revenue from that property subsequent to the 5th inst.

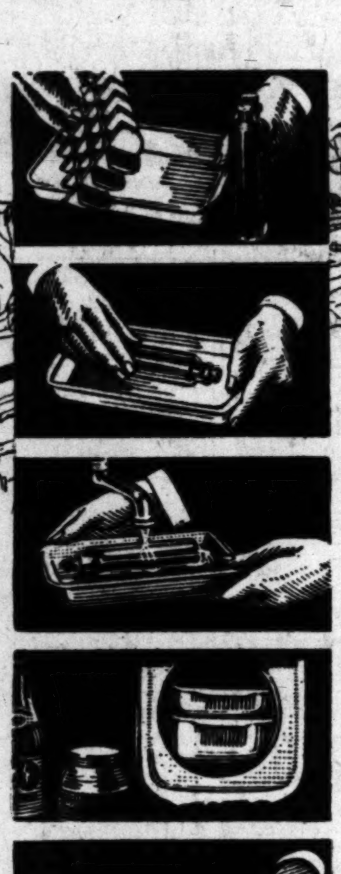
Objections to the accounting which were sustained had to do with the executors paying $100 a month wages to Emma Sprahnle for taking care of the untenanted Pendell residence and $19.50 worth of ice bills.

Mrs. Pendell died October 5, 1929. Harry G. Pendell, her only son, was bequeathed the net income of a trust, with additional payments of $25,000 each to be paid when he became 50, 60, 70 and 75 years of age.

EJECTED, SAYS WIFE

After dumping her with her luggage on a friend's porch, February 9, last, her husband left her, complained Mrs. Helen E. Cox yesterday in winning a divorce from Opie Cox. Afterward he went to Tia Juana with another woman, the wife complained. Judge Tappaan granted her a decree.





1 Remove the ice-cube separators from one of the freezing pans of your refrigerator.

2 Place a bottle of the new crack-proof Texaco Motor Oil, not quite full, in the pan.

3 Fill the pan with water so that the bottle of the new Texaco is completely immersed.

4 Replace in the freezing compartment of your refrigerator and leave it overnight.

FROZEN IN A CAKE OF ICE
TEXACO FLOWS FREELY

THOUGH you may never experience the extreme cold of northern winters—this is a convincing test of a motor oil that anyone can make in the freezing compartment of a refrigerator overnight. Try it. In the morning, watch the bubble rise as you turn the cake of ice from end to end. See the still unclouded golden color of this crack-proof, longer-lasting, new Texaco Motor Oil.

For Texaco is free from all impurities—free from the substances that form hard carbon in the engine—free from paraffin wax and the elements that thicken dangerously in the cold, hard as grease in many oils, bringing needless engine wear to every moving part.

Texaco flows instantly. It lubricates effectively in any climate, warm or cold—even when water freezes. You can depend on Texaco anywhere you go. Drain and refill with the correct grade of the new crack-proof Texaco Motor Oil today.
